CARDINALS CARE

The St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund

Director, Dr. Ed Lewis

OWNERSHIP

WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / GENERAL PARTNER

William O. DeWitt Jr. was born August 31, 1941, and grew up in St. Louis as the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt. He led the organization of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. As the principal owner of the Cardinals, DeWitt serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees all financial, baseball and league matters for the team.

DeWitt is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School and holds a 1963 B.A. degree in economics from Yale University and a 1965 M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School.

DeWitt has been involved in baseball since his childhood and has held past investment interests in the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He also has served as a board member for the Cincinnati Bengals and the Cincinnati Stingers hockey team. His father owned the St. Louis Browns from 1949-51, when Bill Jr. served as the team's batboy. His uniform, which was worn by midget Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch-hitting appearance on August 19, 1951, is on loan to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

DeWitt is President of the investment firm Reynolds, DeWitt & Co. He also is Co-Chairman of Restaurant Management Inc. and a board member of Sena Weller Rohs Williams Inc. and U.S. Playing Card Co.

He has had investment interests in CEA Corp. (parent of Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Co.), Charter Cable Systems Inc., Cincinnati Riverfront Coliseum, Coca-Cola Bottling Investment Group Inc. (co-chairman), Future Now Corporation (publicly traded on NASDAQ), Middle States Coca-Cola Bottling Group Inc. (vice-chairman), Midwest Employers Casualty Co., Mississippi Valley Investment Co. (bank holding company), Republic Broadcasting Corp., and Spectrum 7 Energy Corp. (vice-chairman).

His numerous civic activities include President of the Fund for Independent Schools of Cincinnati (minority scholarship program), Hamilton County Republican Finance Committee, President of the William O. and Margaret H. DeWitt Foundation, Semple Foundation Board Member, Yale University Development Board Member, Regional Chairman for the Yale Campaign, Cincinnati Art Museum Board Member, Taft Museum Board Member, Cabinet Member for Cincinnati Fine Arts Fund, United Way of Cincinnati, Multiple Sclerosis Society and Salvation Army Board Member.

In 1998, DeWitt was appointed to the National Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

DeWitt is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew and Margot. DeWitt's sister, Donna "DeDe" DeWitt Lambert, is also an investor in the team.

FREDERICK O. HANSER, CHAIRMAN

Frederick O. Hanser was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Hanser is President and Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and Chairman of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees the daily operations of the team on behalf of the ownership group as well as the activities of the holding companies and other subsidiaries.

Hanser, a St. Louis attorney, has been a partner in the St. Louis law firm of Armstrong, Teasdale L.L.P. since 1978, specializing in banking and corporate and estate taxation. He was a lawyer for the firm of Fordyce and Mayne from 1966-78. He has been involved in numerous venture capital and closely held businesses, including Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc., the holding company for Southwest Bank.

Hanser, a life-long St. Louis resident and Cardinals fan, was born April 13, 1942. He is the son of Mrs. Olive D. Mullen and the late S. Albert Hanser, M.D. He is the great-grandson of former Cardinals investor Adolph M. Diez, whose involvement with the Cardinals spanned 30 years, from 1917 to 1947.

Hanser received a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and earned a J.D. degree from the Washington University School of Law in 1966.

His business and civic activities include Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Board of Directors and Executive Committee; St. Louis Children's Hospital Board and previously the Development Board; St. Louis Country Day School Board of Directors; Easter Seal Society Board of Directors; the Executive Board of the Greater St. Louis Area Council, Boy Scouts of America; and the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association's Board of Directors.

Hanser and his wife, Kathy, have two grown children, Tim and Kara.

ANDREW N. BAUR, SECRETARY-TREASURER

Andrew N. Baur was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group that purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Mr. Baur is the Secretary-Treasurer and a Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and is Secretary-Treasurer of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. Baur is a native St. Louisan and life-long Cardinals fan.

Baur is currently chairman and CEO of Southwest Bank and its holding company, Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Baur led a group that purchased Southwest Bank in October 1984.

His past career posts include: Chairman and CEO of the County Bank of St. Louis, and President and Chief Operating Officer of County Tower Corp., the holding company for County Bank (1978-84); President and Chairman, Commerce Bank of St. Louis (1974-78); Mercantile Trust Co., N.A., which he entered as a commercial banking officer and left as Vice President in charge of the Loan Division (1970-74); and employment by the First National Bank of Atlanta (1967-70), where he started as a management trainee and was elected an officer in 1969.

Baur received an A.B. degree in 1966 from Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Va., and an M.B.A. from Georgia State University in 1970.

Baur is a member of the Board of Directors for Rawlings Sporting Goods Co., St. Louis University, the MUNY (Municipal Theater Association) and the Unity Health Network. He is the former chairman of St. Luke's Hospital, the St. Louis Regional Commerce & Growth Association, the Arts & Education Council of Greater St. Louis and KETC. Baur also serves as a Commissioner of Tower Grove Park.

Baur is the son of Andrew H. Baur and the former Florence Noland. He was born in St. Louis on April 25, 1944, and attended Country Day School. He has three grown children, Andrew, Todd and McKay.

MARK C. LAMPING
PRESIDENT

Mark Lamping was named president of the St. Louis Cardinals on September 1, 1994. In addition to the club's 1996 Central Division championship and return to postseason play for the first time since 1987, his tenure has been highlighted by the design and completion of major renovations to Busch Stadium.

In February 1994, Lamping was appointed commissioner of the Continental Basketball Association after serving as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing for five years. In that position, he managed the company's TV and radio sports production division while coordinating all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping, 41, joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981. He initially worked in the company's corporate planning group before serving as a district sales manager in southern Illinois and central Iowa. He also served as the senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations.

His civic activities include Chairman, Downtown St. Louis Presents Inc.; Board of Directors, St. Louis Downtown Partnership; St. Louis Sports Commission Board of Directors; Board of Directors, International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum; Fontbonne College Board of Trustees; and SSM Health Care Central Region Board.

Lamping also is involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including Board of Directors, Roman Catholic Orphan Board; Board of Directors, Boone Valley Classic Foundation; St. Patrick's Center for the Homeless; Board of Directors of the St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund; Chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998 and 1999; and 1996 Chairman of the Old Newsboys Day for children's charities.

Lamping was honored as 1998 Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of SIDS Resources. He also received the 1998 James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area.

A St. Louis native and graduate of Vianney High School, Lamping holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a master's degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. He lives in Kirkwood, Mo., with his wife, Cheryl, and their children, Brian, Lauren and Timothy.

WALT JOCKETTY
VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

Walt Jocketty is entering his 25th season in professional baseball. He was named the Cardinals' vice president/general manager on October 14, 1994, and signed a three-year contract extension (through the year 2000) in September 1997.

Jocketty, 48, was instrumental in bringing Manager Tony La Russa to St. Louis as well as nearly a dozen new faces to the Cardinals' roster before the 1996 season. Those changes helped the club return to the postseason that year after an eight-season drought. Jocketty has paid close attention to the Cardinals' home-grown talent, putting together a deal to secure Ray Lankford through 2003 while bringing up young talent such as catcher Eli Marrero. He also played a significant role in acquiring Mark McGwire in July 1997 and making a deal that will keep the slugger in a Cardinals uniform through the next century. Jocketty had a hand in building the Cardinals' future through the June amateur draft, helping to land young stars like Rick Ankiel, J.D. Drew, Chad Hutchinson, Adam Kennedy and Matt Morris. Over the winter, he bolstered the Redbirds' 1999 lineup by adding free agents Eric Davis and Scott Radinsky, and trading for Edgar Renteria, Ricky Bottalico and Garrett Stephenson.

Jocketty served 10 seasons as the Director of Baseball Administration for the Oakland A's before joining the Colorado Rockies' front office in 1993. He served a total of 14 years with Oakland, starting in March 1980, when he was hired by Charles O. Finley as Director of Minor League Operations and Scouting. Jocketty was instrumental in overhauling the A's minor league system and helped turn the club into one of the 1980s' most dominant franchises by producing such standouts as McGwire, Jose Canseco and Walt Weiss. Before joining the Cardinals, Jocketty was the Assistant General Manager/Player Personnel for the Colorado Rockies.

While with Oakland, Jocketty played a key role in establishing the Arizona Rookie League and the Dominican Summer League. He previously served on Major League Baseball's Operations Committee, which is responsible for negotiations between the Professional Baseball Association and Major League Baseball. He currently is a board member of the Epworth Children's Home in St. Louis.

Jocketty is a native of Minneapolis, Minn., where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey, and make their home in St. Louis County.

JERRY WALKER
VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

As vice president of player personnel, Walker assists General Manager Walt Jocketty with personnel decisions involving the major league club and oversees the Cardinals' player development and scouting activities. He was promoted to his current position on February 1, 1997, after serving as director of major league player personnel since he joined the organization in November 1994.

After concluding his playing career in 1964, Walker managed five years at the minor league level for the New York Yankees. He scouted for the Yankees from 1973 until the middle of the 1981 season, when he was named the Yankees' major league pitching coach. He also served as the Houston Astros' major league pitching coach from 1983-1986.

Walker returned to the scouting ranks in 1987, joining the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout. He was appointed the Tigers' general manager in September 1991 and was responsible for overseeing all major and minor league operations. In April 1994, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assignment scout.

A former pitcher, Walker's major league career spanned eight seasons with Baltimore (1957-60), Kansas City (1961-62) and Cleveland (1963-64). He became the youngest pitcher to ever start an All-Star Game in 1959, when at age 20, he drew the assignment for the American League in the second game played that summer (on Aug. 3).

Walker, 60, a native of Ada, Okla., and his wife, Janis, have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

BEHIND THE SCENES

DR. STAN LONDON
SENIOR MEDICAL ADVISER

Dr. Stan London was appointed the Cardinals' senior medical adviser in October 1997. He was the Cardinals' head physician for 29 seasons, succeeding his associate, Dr. I.C. Middleman, who passed away in September 1968.

Dr. London, 72, a native of Springfield, Ill., received his M.D. degree from Washington University in 1949. As a student, he excelled in baseball and is widely regarded as Washington University's greatest basketball player ever. While studying for his doctorate, Dr. London coached the university's baseball team and was assistant basketball coach.

Dr. London is a fellow for both the American Board of Surgeons and the American College of Surgeons, an assistant professor of surgery at Washington Medical, and a partner in Parkerest Surgical Associates.

Dr. London was the team physician for the St. Louis Hawks during the club's 11 seasons (1956-57 to 1966-67) in the National Basketball Association. He has tended to Cardinal baseball players' medical needs since 1956.

One of the area's top all-time amateur athletes, Dr. London is a member of the Springfield (Ill.) High School Hall of Fame, the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame and was the first inductee into the Missouri Handball Hall of Fame. He also is a member of the Missouri Sports Medicine Hall of Fame.

Dr. London and his wife, Jackie, have three children and four grandchildren.

DR. GEORGE A. PALETTA JR.
HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. George A. Paletta Jr. was named the Cardinals' head physician in February 1998 after serving as the New York Mets' associate team physician since July 1996. Paletta also has been an assistant team physician for the Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Cavaliers.

Paletta is a 1984 graduate of The College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. He completed medical school in 1988, receiving an M.D. from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore. Paletta completed a surgical internship at Northwestern University Hospital in Chicago and then a residency in orthopedic surgery at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York. While at the Hospital for Special Surgery, he also completed a research fellowship in sports medicine. After residency, he served as a fellow in sports medicine in 1994 and '95 at the Cleveland Clinic. He then completed an additional fellowship in pediatric and adolescent sports medicine at Children's Hospital of Michigan.

In January 1996, Paletta joined the staff of the Hospital for Special Surgery as an assistant attending surgeon on the Sports Medicine and Shoulder Service, where his practice specialized in sports medicine. He also served on the faculty of Cornell University Medical College as an instructor in orthopedic surgery.

In 1998, he joined the faculty of Washington University's Department of Orthopedic Surgery as an assistant professor.

Paletta and his wife, Jackie, have three children: Sarah, Savannah and George III.

DR. RICK WRIGHT
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Rick Wright, a native of Sikeston, Mo., and graduate of the University of Missouri, begins his second year as an orthopedic specialist on the Cardinals' medical staff. Wright has served as an orthopedic physician for the St. Louis Rams since 1995 and the St. Louis Blues since 1997. He also has worked with the Minnesota Twins, Minnesota Vikings and Minnesota Timberwolves.

Wright is a 1984 graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia and received his M.D. from the university in 1988. Following medical school, he received specialty training in orthopedic surgery at Vanderbilt University from 1988-93. From 1993-1994, he did subspecialty training in orthopedic sports medicine at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center.

Wright established his practice in St. Louis in August 1994 and is a member of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at Washington University.

Wright is married to the former Lana Adams. The couple have two children, Megan and Robert.

DR. KEN YAMAGUCHI
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Ken Yamaguchi joined the Cardinals' medical staff in 1998 as a specialist in shoulder and elbow disorders. He currently serves as an assistant professor and chief of shoulder and elbow surgery at Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

After graduating from UCLA, Yamaguchi attended George Washington University School of Medicine, where he also served his orthopedic residency training. He completed his fellowship training in shoulder surgery with the internationally renowned shoulder service at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center in New York, which serves as consultant to the Yankees. Yamaguchi later continued his elbow training at the Mayo Clinic and has authored several publications on shoulder and elbow surgery.

Born and raised in Southern California, the 38-year-old physician resides in Chesterfield, Mo., with his wife, Kathy, and two children, Kelli and Kyle. His hobbies include running, water sports, and long walks with his family.

DR. JIM LOOMIS
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Jim Loomis, the Cardinals' specialist in internal medicine, has been a team physician for the St. Louis Rams since 1995 and has served as European tour physician for the St. Louis Symphony.

Loomis, 39, a native of Little Rock, Ark., came to St. Louis in 1985 after receiving his M.D. from the University of Arkansas. He served his internship and residency in internal medicine at Barnes Hospital, completing both in 1988. He received his M.B.A. from Washington University in 1997.

Loomis is board-certified in internal medicine and a member of Alpha Omega Alpha, the American College of Physicians and the American College of Sports Medicine. He is part of the BJC Medical Group and practices with Associated Internists in west St. Louis County. He also is on the clinical faculty of Washington University's School of Medicine in the Department of Medicine.

Loomis enjoys running and cycling and has competed in several triathlons and marathons. He and his wife, Susan, have two sons, Jimmy and Billy.

BARRY WEINBERG
TRAINER

Barry Weinberg begins his second season as the Cardinals' head athletic trainer following 16 seasons as trainer of the Oakland A's. He began his training career in 1974 with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he spent five seasons in their minor league system. He was the New York Yankees' assistant trainer from 1979-81.

Weinberg, 47, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He also conducts continuing education seminars for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. Weinberg received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield (Mass.) College and a master's degree in athletic training from Indiana University. He was the American League trainer at the 1987 and '93 All-Star games.

A native of Silver Spring, Md., Weinberg enjoys country and western music, photography and golf.

BRAD HENDERSON
ASSISTANT TRAINER

Brad Henderson is entering his 12th season as the Cardinals' assistant trainer. The 37-year-old Henderson joined the Cardinals' training staff in May 1988 and has been a trainer in the organization since 1985.

Henderson, a native of Ballwin, Mo., is a 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri. His first trainer's position was with Johnson City of the Appalachian League. He was head trainer at Arkansas (Texas League) before joining the major league club in 1988. Henderson has been a NATA member since 1986 and is licensed by the states of Missouri and Florida. He formerly was the National League Assistant Trainer Representative to the PBAT Executive Committee.

Henderson also has worked with the training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

Henderson and his wife, Julie Lynn, have a son, Blake Andrew, and a daughter, Brooke Marie. In his spare time, Henderson enjoys running, horse racing and golf.

MARK O'NEAL
MEDICAL/REHABILITATION COORDINATOR

Mark O'Neal enters his 10th season as a trainer in the Cardinals' organization and his second year at the major league level. From 1994 to '97, he was head trainer for the Class-AAA Louisville Redbirds.

O'Neal joined the organization after graduating from the University of Arkansas in 1989. After a year with the Cardinals' Savannah club in 1990, he was the Arkansas Travelers' trainer for three seasons (1991-93). In the off-season, the Russelville, Ark., native has worked as a trainer for the University of Arkansas-Little Rock and in the instructional Arizona Fall League. He also monitors the medical status of the Cardinals' major leaguers during the winter.

A nationally certified trainer, the 31-year-old O'Neal enjoys golf and is an avid college football and basketball fan. He and his wife, Stefanie, have one child, Conner.

C.J. CHERRE
TRAVELING SECRETARY

C.J. Cherre is responsible for handling the Cardinals' travel and road accommodations, including all spring training arrangements in Jupiter, Fla.

Born in Norfolk, Va., and raised in St. Louis, Cherre is entering his 22nd season with the club. He is a 1970 graduate of St. Louis University High School and received a bachelor's degree (cum laude) from Saint Louis University in 1974.

Cherre began his Cardinals career in the group sales department, where he worked in 1977 and '78. He was named assistant director of public relations in January 1979 and held the position through 1980. He assumed his current position in January 1981.

Cherre, an ardent University of Notre Dame supporter, enjoys swimming, country and contemporary music, and fine dining. He has a daughter, Laura.

BUDDY BATES
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Buddy Bates is in his 17th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager. He succeeded Butch Yatkeman, who was with the Redbirds for 59 years before retiring after the 1982 season.

The 46-year-old Bates joined the Cardinals in 1969, his first of three seasons as a bat boy. He was named assistant equipment manager and visiting clubhouse manager in 1972, holding the positions until assuming his current role in 1983.

Bates, a St. Louis native, is a graduate of Central High School, where he lettered in basketball. He attended Florissant Valley Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. In his spare time, Bates is a big supporter of Saint Louis University's basketball program and enjoys collecting Motown music. He was honored in 1997 with the "Good Guy" award by the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA.

RIP ROWAN
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rip Rowan is entering his 11th season as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager. Rowan, a native of St. Louis, has been with the Cardinals since 1978, when he served as the visitors' bat boy.

The 35-year-old Rowan graduated from Pattonville High School in 1982 and began assisting in the Cardinal clubhouse in 1983. He enjoys watching sports and fly fishing in his spare time. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children, Jessica, Jacob and Brennen.

JERRY RISCH
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Jerry Risch is in his 34th season with the Cardinals and his 16th year as visiting clubhouse manager.

The 46-year-old Risch began working for the Cardinals in 1966 as the umpires' room manager. In 1969 and 1970, he served as the Redbirds' bat boy. He began working as an assistant in the visitors' clubhouse in 1971 and was named to his current position in 1983.

Risch is a graduate of Southwest High School, where he lettered in soccer. He attended Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Risch and his wife, the former Mary Catherine Arnold, have two children, Jessica and Joseph.

JEFF MURPHY
BULLPEN CATCHER

Murphy begins his third season as the Cardinals' bullpen catcher and his eighth year in the organization. A former All-Big Eight performer at the University of Nebraska, Murphy was the Cards' 19th-round pick in the June 1992 amateur draft. He advanced to Class-AA Arkansas before an ankle injury in 1996 curtailed his career.

Murphy was named to the New York-Penn League's postseason All-Star squad in 1992, his first professional season. He threw out 47 percent of the runners attempting to steal against him. The next year, he led the South Atlantic League's catchers in fielding while posting career highs with seven home runs and 47 runs batted in. After spending the 1994 and '95 seasons at St. Petersburg, he moved to Arkansas in 1996 but appeared in just two games before injuring his ankle. He was named the Cardinals' bullpen catcher during spring training in 1997 after coming to camp as a nonroster invitee.

Born in St. Louis, the 28-year-old Murphy was raised in Las Vegas, where he still resides. He and his wife, Leah, have a son, Hunter.

Cardinals Care

SERVING ST. LOUIS AREA YOUTH

"...to positively impact the lives of children in the St. Louis area, and thus ultimately the future of our community. We offer and support effective and efficient programs which contribute to the safe and healthy development of children into responsible, caring and productive adults."

— CARDINALS CARE MISSION STATEMENT

For over a century, Cardinals baseball has been a part of the great history of St. Louis and has become, through generations, a major St. Louis institution. With that status comes a very significant responsibility to the future of the community which has so strongly and so loyally supported the team, a responsibility which the Cardinals realize goes far beyond the white lines at Busch Stadium or the seven months of the baseball season.

Since there is no better way to impact the future than through children, Cardinals Care was established in January 1997 to serve as a major vehicle through which the ball club would both express and manifest its commitment to the future of St. Louis Cardinals Care is, very simply, a charitable foundation serving area youth. Its mission is to both offer and support programs that positively impact the lives of children, programs that offer alternatives to the many self-destructive behaviors that tempt them, and programs that contribute to their safe and healthy development into responsible, caring and productive adults.

Established with inaugural contributions from the Cardinals ownership group totaling $100,000, the effort has grown through the resources of the ballclub and the generous contributions of Cardinals owners, players, fans and corporate partners. In just two years, Cardinals Care already has touched the lives of thousands of kids through outreach programs like "Tony's Troops" and through the distribution of over a half-million dollars in grants and allocations to worthy efforts and organizations serving children in the St. Louis area - from youth baseball activities like RBI ("Reviving Baseball In The Inner City") to scholarship funds - from after-school and summer youth programs to efforts serving families in crisis - from associations like MDA to local agencies providing residential care to children victimized by abuse and neglect.

Cardinals Care is a true team effort supported by all members of the Cardinals family. Its Executive Board is made up of Cardinals General Partner William O. DeWitt Jr., Chairman Frederick O. Hanser, Secretary-Treasurer Andrew N. Baur, Ownership Partner David C. Pratt, Cardinals President Mark Lamping, VP/GM Walt Jocketty, Manager Tony La Russa and a number of current players each year, Hall of Famers Lou Brock and Red Schoendienst, and Cardinals Care Director, Dr. Edward Lewis.

Each winter, Cardinals Care presents the St. Louis Cardinals Winter Warm-Up, an off-season baseball assembly at which thousands, young and old, celebrate their fellowship as Cardinals fans while supporting the Cardinals Care effort. This annual event has quickly developed into one of the highlight events on the St. Louis sports calendar each winter and already has achieved a level of interest, support, and participation of fans, current and former players, Hall of Famers, and area business sponsors that is exceeded by no team charity event in professional sports. The Third Annual Winter Warm-Up, held in January 1999, raised over $400,000 to benefit area youth efforts and organizations.

Beyond giving of their time by participating in Cardinals Care programs, many Cardinals players have also given personal financial support to the Fund, notably pitchers Donovan Osborne and Lance Painter, outfielder Ray Lankford, former Cardinals pitcher Todd Stottlemyre, and first baseman Mark McGwire, who also established The Mark McGwire Foundation for Children, his own effort addressing the problem of child abuse and neglect.

One-hundred percent of the annual administrative and operating expenses of Cardinals Care are underwritten by the ball club, thus none of the funds raised through events, autograph sessions, auctions, sponsorships, and donations are used for this purpose. This structure makes Cardinals Care an extremely efficient vehicle through which supporters and contributors achieve maximum impact to benefit children in the St. Louis area. Consistent with the goal of maximizing impact, Cardinals Care makes efficiency of operations a principal consideration in evaluating potential beneficiary organizations for all grant selections and distributions.

As a not-for-profit, charitable organization recognized and determined by the IRS as exempt under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, donors may deduct contributions to Cardinals Care as provided in section 170 of the Code.

By positively impacting the healthy development of our children, especially those who are disadvantaged or severely challenged, it is the goal of Cardinals Care to make the future a little brighter for everyone in St. Louis.

MANAGER

ANTHONY (TONY) LA RUSSA JR. (10)

Tony La Russa enters his fourth season at the Cardinals' helm as the career leader in wins (1,564) among active managers.

La Russa was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, after managing for 17 years in the American League with Oakland and Chicago. In his first N.L. season, La Russa guided the Cardinals to the 1996 Central Division title and was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, La Russa's honors include Manager of the Year recognition in four seasons, one N.L. Central Division title, five A.L. Western Division titles, three A.L. pennants and one World Series championship.

La Russa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class-AA Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox.

In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, La Russa quickly established his managerial acumen. In 1983, he guided Chicago to the A.L. West title and the best record in the major leagues, 99-63. He was rewarded with Manager of the Year accolades from The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, La Russa's White Sox were tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing fifth with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and assumed the manager's role with Oakland less than three weeks later, on July 7.

In just his second full year with the A's, La Russa managed the club to an A.L. West-record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the 1988 World Series. He again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, La Russa guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, LaRussa became the 40th manager in major league history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is Oakland's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut with Kansas City just one year later. La Russa didn't return to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four seasons in Oakland before concluding his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. Overall, his professional career spanned 16 seasons.

LaRussa, the 48th manager in Cardinals history, actually was a member of the organization once previously, when he was a player-coach for the Cardinals' Triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, La Russa passed the bar exam in December 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants, Brooklyn and Providence, late 1800s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1913-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25). All of La Russa's predecessors are in the Hall of Fame.

La Russa, 54, makes his off-season home in Danville, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). La Russa was born 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa. He is the founder and chairperson of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) and is an active member in the Cardinals' community foundation, Cardinals Care.

COACHES

MARK STEPHEN DeJOHN (34)

BULLPEN COACH

DeJohn, 45, joined the Cardinals' major league coaching staff in 1996. He served as the organization's field coordinator for player development for three seasons and managed in the Cardinals' farm system from 1986-1991. He also managed and coached in the Detroit Tigers' and Kansas City Royals' farm systems.

DeJohn was drafted by the New York Mets in 1971 and played in their system through the 1977 season. He signed with the Detroit Tigers in 1978 and reached the major leagues with the Tigers in 1982.

DeJohn made the transition from player to coach the next year, serving as a minor league instructor for the Tigers. He then coached at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate in 1985 but returned to Detroit midway through the season to manage the Tigers' Birmingham affiliate.

DeJohn joined the Cardinals' organization in 1986, managing the Savannah Cardinals to a 75-60 record. He spent two seasons in Savannah before taking the helm of the Midwest League's Springfield Cardinals in 1988. The next year, he was named manager of Johnson City, where he spent two seasons. DeJohn managed Detroit's Class AA London affiliate in 1992 before returning to the Cardinals' organization in 1993.

DeJohn and his wife, Judith Marie, make their home in New Britain, Conn., with their two children, Timothy and Stephanie. DeJohn attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, Conn.

DAVID (DAVE) EDWIN DUNCAN (18)
PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 53, enters his fourth season as the Cardinals' pitching coach after being appointed to the post on October 23, 1995. In each of his first two seasons, the pitching staff set club records for strikeouts and ranked in the top six in the league in ERA.

Before joining the Cardinals, Duncan had been Oakland's pitching coach since July 1986, when he joined the A's along with manager Tony La Russa. Under Duncan's guidance, the Oakland staff ranked as one of the best in baseball, leading the American League in ERA from 1988 through 1990. In 1990, the A's had the lowest earned-run average in the majors, becoming just the second A.L. staff to do so since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as Seattle's pitching coach, and the Mariners responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

A former catcher, Duncan signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Duncan moved with them and appeared in both the 1971 and 1972 A.L. Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. Duncan concluded his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his playing and coaching career, Duncan has been associated with six Cy Young Award winners. He coached Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley and LaMarr Hoyt, and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore when all six pitchers won their awards.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, Christopher and David, and make their off-season home in Tucson, Ariz.

MICHAEL (MIKE) ANTHONY EASLER (4)
HITTING COACH

Easler enters his first season with the Cardinals after managing the Nashua Pride of the independent Atlantic League in 1998, the league's inaugural year. Easler guided the Pride to a 59-41 record, and seven of his players were signed by major league organizations. Felix Jose, a former Cardinal, won the Atlantic League batting title and was named named the league's Co-Player of the Year. During his playing career, Easler spent most of the 1976 season in the Cardinals' farm system, winning the American Association batting title with the Tulsa Oilers before a Sept. 3 trade to California.

A veteran of 14 big-league seasons, Easler has coached or managed at the professional or amateur level for the last nine years. He began his instructional career in 1990 as manager of the Miami Miracle and in 1991 was named the Toronto Blue Jays' roving minor league hitting instructor. In 1992, Easler took over as hitting coach for the Milwaukee Brewers and helped the team to a .268 batting mark, second in the American League. He joined the Red Sox's staff in 1993 and spent two seasons as the team's hitting coach before leaving to become head coach at National Christian University in San Antonio, Texas. In 1996, Easler began working as Mo Vaughn's personal hitting instructor, a role that continues to this day.

Known as the "Hit Man" during his playing days, Easler batted .293 during his career with Houston (1973-75), California (1976), Pittsburgh (1977-83), Boston (1984-85), the New York Yankees (1986-87) and Philadelphia (1987). He was named to the National League All-Star team in 1981 and batted over .300 on four occasions, including a career-best .338 in 1980. A former recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award for Outstanding Community Service and the Boston Man of the Year Award, Easler took part in the 1979 World Series as a member of the Pirates' "We are Family" Series champions.

A native of Cleveland, Easler, 48, attended Cleveland State University and is an ordained Baptist minister. He and his wife, Brenda, have three children and reside in San Antonio.

RENE GEORGE LACHEMANN (15)
THIRD-BASE COACH

Lachemann, 53, enters his third season as the Cardinals' third-base coach. He has the distinction of being the first manager in Florida Marlins franchise history, guiding them to a 221-285 record in three-plus seasons (1993-96). Lachemann also managed in the major leagues with Seattle (1981-83) and Milwaukee (1984).

Counting last season, Lachemann has coached on Tony La Russa's teams for eight seasons. He coached first base for La Russa's 1987-88 teams in Oakland and was third-base coach for the A's from 1989-92. Before joining the A's, he coached third for the Boston Red Sox in 1985 and '86. Between 1986 and '92, Lachemann wound up coaching in five A.L. Championship Series and four World Series.

A former catcher, Lachemann was signed by the Kansas City Athletics in 1964 following his freshman season at the University of Southern California. His professional playing career spanned nine seasons and included major league stints with Kansas City (1965-66) and Oakland (1968). After retiring as a player, Lachemann managed in the Oakland farm system from 1973-77. He joined the Mariners' system in 1978 and earned a promotion to Seattle on May 6, 1981, when he replaced Manager Maury Wills. At the time, Lachemann was the youngest manager in the major leagues.

A native of Los Angeles, Lachemann is one of three brothers who have had careers in professional baseball. Marcel Lachemann joined Rene with the Marlins in 1993 as the club's first pitching coach. He took over the California Angels' managing job during the 1994 season and held the post until resigning in August 1996. Bill Lachemann was a catcher in the Dodgers' system and most recently coached with the Angels. All three brothers graduated from Dorsey High School in Los Angeles. Rene also worked as a bat boy for the Dodgers from 1959-62.

Lachemann and his wife, the former Lauri Thomas, reside in Scottsdale, Ariz., during the off-season. They have two sons: Jim (11/25/64) and Britt (9/25/68). Name is pronounced LATCH-man.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (33)
FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 48, begins his fourth season as the Cardinals' first-base coach and his 14th season on Tony La Russa's coaching staff. McKay was La Russa's first-base coach in Oakland from 1989-95 and handled bullpen and bench coach duties for the A's beginning in 1984. In all, McKay spent 16 years as a player or coach in the Oakland system.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minor leagues. He broke into the majors in a big way, homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on Aug. 22, 1975. McKay also hit safely in 21 of his first 22 major league games.

After the 1976 season, the Twins lost McKay in the expansion draft to Toronto, where McKay was the starting third baseman in the first game in Blue Jays franchise history. After splitting time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979, McKay signed with the A's in 1980. He played for Oakland through 1982, helping the A's to the 1981 Western Division crown by batting .288 in the second half and belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach.

McKay earned a physical education degree from Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash., and attended Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. He was born in Vancouver, B.C., and his wife, Lene, is from Denmark. The couple make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with their son, Cody.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)
BENCH COACH

Jose Oquendo begins his first coaching assignment at the major league level as the Cardinals' new bench coach. Oquendo joined the Cardinals' instructional staff as a minor league field instructor in 1997. Last season, he managed the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate in the New York-Penn League, guiding them to a 34-41 finish.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season major league records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Oquendo, 35, now makes his home in St. Louis County with his wife, Zenaida, and their four children.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 59, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 19th on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 10 that have been retired by the Cardinals.

Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is entering his fourth season as Cardinals special instructor.

Gibson, 63, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 10 to be retired by the Cardinals.

Gibson recently authored his autobiography, "Stranger To The Game." He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 57 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager, the longest tenure in club history. He managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and '78.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and is married to the former Mary Eileen O'Reilly. They have four married children: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

JUAN ACEVEDO

53 JUAN CARLOS LARA-ACEVEDO

Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Bats: Right
Wt: 228 Throws: Right

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on May 5)
Born: 5/5/70 at Juarez, Mexico

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired in a trade with the New York Mets for pitcher Rigo Beltran on March 29, 1998.

M.L. SERVICE: 2.056

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 1999.

1998 SEASON:

- Finished the season as the Cardinals' primary closer, posting a team-leading 15 saves (in 16 opportunities).
- Achieved career bests in victories, ERA, games, innings and strikeouts.
- In relief duty, led the bullpen with a 2.79 ERA, 29 games finished and a .199 opponents batting average.
- Led the Cardinals' staff by limiting righthanded batters to a .203 average.
- Fashioned a 1.96 ERA (in 28 games) at Busch, ranking second on the staff to Matt Morris' 1.94 mark at home.
- Did not allow a run in his last 16 relief outings (a span covering 18 innings and the team's final 29 games, 8/28 - 9/27). Notched 12 saves and two wins during that stretch.
- Made nine starts between 5/30 and 7/17, going 4-1 with a 2.34 ERA.
- Led the team with two pick-offs. Five of the seven runners who attempted to steal against him were thrown out.
- Retired the first batter he faced 29 times in 41 relief spots.
- Was on the disabled list from 7/18 to 8/15 with a strained right elbow.
- Earned his first win as a Cardinal on 4/2 vs. LA. Pitched a scoreless 12th inning, then singled (his second career hit) and scored on Mark McGwire's homer in the bottom of the inning.
- Secured his first career save in dramatic fashion on 4/19 vs. PHI. Entered in the ninth inning with the bases loaded and no outs. Promptly induced two pop-ups and a strikeout.
- Pitched two scoreless innings 8/19 at CHI to earn his sixth win.
- Earned his seventh victory on 8/28 vs. ATL, pitching the last 1.2 innings of the Cards' 5-4 win.
- Threw two shutout innings 9/6 vs. CIN to collect his eighth win.
- Notched his sixth and seventh saves in consecutive games vs. CHI on 9/7 and 9/8.
- Collected his ninth save with a perfect ninth inning at HOU on 9/13.
- Pitched a 1-2-3 ninth inning to pick up his 15th save in the season finale vs. MON on 9/27.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 - Was part of the Colorado Rockies' first free-agent draft...pitched one game for Bend (OR) in the Class-A Northwest League...was then assigned, as part of a working agreement with the Minnesota Twins, to their Visalia club in the Class-A California League.

1993 - Struck out 107 men in 118.2 innings, a strikeout ratio of 8.1 per nine innings...made seven relief appearances.

1994 - Enjoyed a spectacular season for Colorado's New Haven (AA) club of the Eastern League...garnered Pitcher and Rookie of the Year honors and was voted the top Double-A righthanded pitcher by Topps and the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues...led the Eastern League in victories (17) and ERA (2.37)...was also third in the League in strikeouts (161)...opponents hit just .219 against him, which tied him for first in the E.L. among starting pitchers'...was only 1-3 through his first six starts but reeled off a 9-0 record in his next 10 games (5/15-7/2)...in a three-game stretch from 6/11 to 6/22, he tossed 25 consecutive scoreless innings...in the nine-game winning streak, he posted a 1.98 ERA, giving up 16 earned runs in 72.2 innings...was 13-3 with five complete games in his final 16 starts.

1995 - Started the campaign with the Colorado Rockies and was optioned to Colorado Springs (AAA) of the Pacific Coast League on 7/16...made his major league debut with a no-decision start at HOU on 4/30, tossing five shutout innings (1 H, 1 BB, 2 SO)...first big-league win came vs. SF on 5/11 (6.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 5 SO)...rested for two weeks after joining the Norfolk Tides (AAA) of the International League in a trade that sent Bret Saberhagen to the Rockies on 7/31...an MRI on 8/4 disclosed he had tendinitis in his right elbow...pulled a rib cage muscle after one inning in his Norfolk debut on 8/12 at Richmond...came back to pitch two innings vs. Richmond on 9/1, his final appearance of the season.

1996 - Began the year on New York's disabled list (left hamstring)...joined Norfolk (AAA) on 4/10 on an injury rehab assignment...was the International League's only two-time Pitcher of the Week...from 5/13-5/19, he was 2-0 with a 1.93 ERA in two starts (14.0 innings) and from 6/17-6/23, he was 1-0 with a 2.40 ERA in two starts (15.0 innings)...his season was cut short after he was diagnosed with a stress fracture of his right tibia on 7/25...after the regular season pitched for the Mets' Instructional League team in Port St. Lucie, FL...also pitched for Hermosillo of the Mexican Winter League, going 1-0 with a 2.53 ERA in three starts.

1997 - Began the season at Norfolk...was recalled by New York on 6/18...made his first appearance as a Met that night at Yankee Stadium, pitching 2.1 innings of shutout relief, allowing one hit, with two walks and three strikeouts...came out of the bullpen for his first Mets win, defeating the Marlins in a 12-inning game on 7/6...optioned to Norfolk on 8/11 and recalled again on 9/2...won his first start after 20 consecutive major league relief appearances, vs. TOR on 9/2...prior to that, his last major league start was a 12-7 win for the Rockies, vs. MON on 7/7/95...again pitched for Hermosillo in Mexican Winter League.

MISC.: Graduated from Dundee-Crown High School in Carpentersville, Ill....lettered in baseball...did not play baseball for three years after high school...attended Parkland Community College and after one season was drafted and signed by the Colorado Rockies...he is currently single and resides in Carpentersville...name is pronounced ah-sah-VAY-doh.

- Honored as the Carolina League's Pitcher of the Year and as a postseason league All-Star, named to Howe Sports' Minor League All-Star team and All-Teenager team, and selected to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star team and Class-A

All-Star team. Also voted by Baseball America as the best pitching prospect in both the Carolina and Midwest leagues, and named No. 18 on the publication's list of top 100 prospects (one of two Class-A minor leaguers to make the top 20).

- Among all minor league pitchers in 1998, ranked first in strikeouts. Among all minor league starting pitchers, ranked second in strikeouts per nine innings (12.41) and third by limiting opponents to a .191 batting average.
- Led the Carolina League in strikeouts per nine innings (12.93), ranked second in strikeouts (a Prince William-record 181) and opponents' batting average (.205), and finished fourth in ERA (2.79).
- Started the year with Peoria in the Midwest League after participating in the Cardinals' major league spring camp. In seven starts at Peoria, was a perfect 3-0 with a 2.06 ERA, allowing just 15 hits in 35 innings.
- Won his pro debut on 4/10 vs. Kane County, allowing just one hit in five scoreless innings as the Chiefs prevailed, 8-3.
- Pitched back-to-back hitless starts on 5/1 and 5/6, stretching his hitless innings streak that began 4/26 vs. Burlington to 15.2 IP. On 5/1 vs. Quad City, fanned seven in six hitless innings of a 7-1 win; on 5/6 at Fort Wayne, retired the first 11 batters en route to 6.2 no-hit innings, fanning 10.
- Wound up pitching a minor league-best 17.2 consecutive hitless innings. Streak ended 5/11 vs. Lansing with a third-inning leadoff single, though he allowed only one other hit in seven innings, winning 7-1.
- Made his Carolina League debut on 5/22, striking out seven in 5.2 IP. Lost, 3-0, though he pitched five scoreless innings before surrendering a pair of runs in the sixth.
- Gained his first win with the Cannons on 6/1, allowing just one hit (a fifth-inning single) in seven scoreless innings. Struck out 11 as Prince William beat Winston-Salem, 7-0.
- Became the first pitcher in the minors in '98 to strike out 10 or more batters in three-straight games (6/1 - 6/11) by fanning 12 in a 6-2 win at Salem on 6/11; struck out seven of the first eight batters he faced and nine of the first 12.
- Recorded his fourth double-digit strikeout game in seven Carolina League starts by striking out 12 batters over seven innings in a 5-4 win over Kinston on 6/21.
- Struck out 11 in a no-decision start vs. Lynchburg on 6/27, allowing one run on three hits.
- Posted his second streak of three consecutive games with 10 or more strikeouts (6/21 - 7/2) by fanning 10 in a 4-3 win over Salem on 7/2; saw the streak end on 7/13, when he struck out nine in a 7-1 win at Frederick.
- Wound up with 35 strikeouts over 19.2 IP in his first three-game streak 6/1-11 and 33 whiffs in 19 IP in his second three-game streak 6/21 - 7/2.
- Pitched seven scoreless innings, allowing one hit, in a 1-0 win at Lynchburg on 8/4.
- Won his third straight start and improved his ERA over that stretch to 0.95 with a 13-2 win at Frederick on 8/25.
- Earned Midwest League Pitcher of the Week honors 5/3-9 for Peoria and Carolina League honors 5/28-6/3 for Prince William.

Age: 27
Born: 1/21/72 at Evansville, Indiana

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the first round (16th player overall) of the June 1993 free-agent draft.

M.L. SERVICE: 3.016

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 1999.

1998 SEASON:

- Placed on the disabled list on 3/30 after missing the entire exhibition schedule while recovering from shoulder surgery performed in September 1997.
- Underwent additional surgery on his right shoulder on 9/3. Dr. James Andrews performed the arthroscopic procedure to repair "residual underlying laxity."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1993 – Allowed just two home runs in his 37 innings...posted a 2.01 ERA in four home starts, but had a 6.14 mark in three starts on the road.

1994 – Made a rapid rise through the Cardinals' farm system, posting a combined 17-3 record with a 2.28 ERA...led all of minor league baseball with his 205.2 innings pitched, and his 2.28 ERA was 9th among all minor league hurlers...finished third among minor league pitchers with 184 K's, and his .197 opponents average was second...hurled a 2-hitter in his first AA start, and a 4-hitter in his first AAA start.

1995 – Started out strong, but season was shortened due to injury...began the year 2-0 with a 1.74 ERA in his first five games at Louisville (AAA) before elbow injury put him on the shelf following five scoreless IP in 4/29 start vs New Orleans...missed nearly four months due to inflammation and tightness in his right elbow and forearm...returned to active roster on 8/9 in start vs Iowa...was held to two innings of work as he was working off a pitch count...was stretched out to 4 IP in 8/14 start vs Omaha and went to 6 IP on 8/19 vs Indy...Alan was 2-2 with a 3.24 ERA (25 IP/9 ER) in his six starts following return to the active roster...he was 2-0 during post-season, helping Louisville to opening round series sweep of Indy with a CG shutout in Game #3 of playoff series...earned 2nd post-season win in Louisville's Game #3 win over Buffalo on 9/13 in the American Association Championship series...was 4-2 with a 2.41 ERA in 11 starts at Louisville, his first full year at the triple-A level...held opposing batters to a .185 mark and fanned 54 in his 56 IP...was purchased from Louisville on 9/16 & was 1-2 in three starts for the Cardinals...made his ML debut on 9/19 at PIT, working four innings...lasted just 3.1 IP in 9/25 start at CHI...earned his first ML win on 9/30 vs PIT...fanned 10 in his 8.2 IP, equaling the Cards single-game strikeout high for the year...fanned a total of 20 batters in his 16 IP with the Cards...won Arizona Fall League top honors for pitching with 6-1 mark and a 1.78 ERA...also established AFL record for strikeouts with 62.

1996 – Rookie right-hander put together one of the finest frosh seasons ever by a Redbird pitcher...finished the year with 13 wins, the most by a STL rookie since 1967 (Dick Hughes -16)...his 131 strikeouts were the most by a Cardinal rookie since 1971 (Reggie Cleveland -148)...he and Expos' Ugueth Urbina were only rookie pitchers in the NL to post a double-digit win total...the Cards were 14-18 in his starts and averaged 4.9 runs/game support (158 runs)...Alan owned a 2.21 ERA (85.2 IP/21 ER) in the 12 starts he won, but a 6.99 mark (104.1 IP/81 ER) in his 20 starts without a win...10 of his 13 wins came in night games...suffered tough stretches in May (1-2, 7.67 ERA) & July (3-2, 6/98 ERA), but was a solid 3-1, 2.65 ERA in June...his longest win streak was three games (4/10-20 & 7/6-19)...Alan made two relief appearances, the first ever of his professional career...suffered 4-2 defeat in relief on 9/11 at SF, as Barry Bonds tagged him for a 2-run homer in the 8th, breaking a 2-2 tie...he allowed two unearned runs in 4.2 IP during his start 9/6 vs Padres, before leaving the game after being hit by Steve Finley's line drive off his right wrist in the 5th...was used in relief for first time in his professional career on Labor Day (9/2) and gained win vs Astros in 8-7 extra-innings affair...became Cards' winningest rookie since 1971 (R. Cleveland) as he gained a 2-1 win over the Rockies on 8/31 for win #12...dropped a 4-1 decision at HOU 8/25, allowing three runs in 6 IP...won for the first time since July 19 when he tossed a CG 6-1 win over the Dodgers on 8/14, allowing just five hits...made his longest start (7 IP) since June 15, but had no-decision in Cards' 5-3 loss to the Giants on 8/8, allowing just one run on six hits...Terrell Wade & two Braves' relievers held the Cards in check, as Alan's 3-game win streak came to an end in 4-1 loss to ATL on 7/24...became Cards' first 10-game winner, as he battled Cubs and rain delays for a 9-1 win on 7/19...earned his first career win in three tries against the Cubs on 7/14, as he and Cards held on for a 7-6 win at the "Friendly Confines"...Redbirds provided 11 runs and 17 hits in support of his 11-7 win over the Braves 6/26 at ATL...allowed two runs (one earned) in 6 IP on 6/21 at MTL before departing with game tied at 2-2...the Expos went on to win 4-3 in 12 innings...Alan supplied Cards' first two runs with bases-loaded 2-run double in the 5th...won at home for the first time since 4/15, as he posted a 4-2 win over the Mets on 6/15 at Busch...lowered his ERA below the 5.00 mark for the first time since the end of April...earned his first ML shutout with a 3-0 CG effort on 6/3 at San Diego...it was his second CG effort of the season...recorded wins in each of his first three decisions and finished the month of April with a 3-1, 4.89 mark...fanned a career-high 11 batters in complete-game win vs MTL on April 10...the 11 K's were the most by a Cards' pitcher since 1992...worked 8 scoreless innings in a 1-0 at PHI on April 20...his first and only loss for the month came on April 25 vs NY...the Cards were 3-3 in his six starts...fanned 34 batters in 35 IP...he and brother Andy became the first Cardinals' brother pitching tandem since Lindy and Von McDaniel teamed together in 1957-58...they were the first brothers to share 10-win seasons since Joe and Phil Niekro did so in 1985...made postseason debut in fourth game of N.L. Championship Series 10/13 vs ATL, retiring all four hitters he faced to keep deficit at 3-0 before Cards came back for 4-3 win in game started by older brother Andy...held Braves to two runs and three hits in five innings in Game Six start, a 3-1 loss.

1997 – Had his brilliant sophomore campaign cut short by a shoulder injury in late July, which eventually led to season-ending surgery to repair a partially torn rotator cuff, damaged cartilage and looseness in his right shoulder. Was placed on the DL 7/31 and remained there for the rest of the schedule...at the time of his injury, ranked third in the N.L. in strikeouts (160) and opponents' batting average and sixth in ERA (2.89)...because of the injury, fell one-third inning short of the 162 necessary to qualify for N.L. pitching honors. Would have tied for sixth in ERA and ranked third by limiting opponents to a .219 batting average...surpassed his rookie '96 season strikeout total by 29. Fanned batters in 17 consecutive innings (21 batters total) from 5/16-27...the Cardinals were 11-12 in his 23 starts but averaged just 3.6 runs per start, the least support given the Redbirds' regular starters...averaged seven innings per start; worked eight or more innings in nine starts, including two complete games...was 7-7 with a 2.55 ERA and 136 strikeouts in 127 innings before the All-Star break...was 0-2 with a no-decision in his final three starts...notched his ninth, and final, win in a 7/15 start at CIN, winning 7-4...in a 6/27 duel against B. Tomko at CIN, led 3-1 entering the sixth but was beaten on a Willie Greene grand slam, 5-3...earned his seventh win, vs. CIN on 6/22 at Busch Stadium, 5-2, holding the Reds to one earned run and four hits in eight innings...had no decision in his 7/2 interleague start vs. MIN. Struck out 10 in eight innings, surrendering only a solo homer by S. Stahoviak before giving way to Petkovsek. Cards won, 2-1, on a McGee solo homer in the bottom of the 10th inning...was brilliant in his 6/16 interleague start at MIL, but lost when J. Burnitz homered in the ninth for a 1-0 Brewers win. Benes matched his career high with 11 strikeouts, the third time he'd fanned 11 batters in '97...also struck out 11 in an 8-3 win at San Diego on 6/11 and in a 5/16 no-decision at Atlanta...blanked the Braves on no hits for 8.2 innings 5/16 at ATL. Did not earn a decision in the game, which the Cards eventually lost, 1-0, in 13 innings...posted a complete-game 2-1 win over the Padres in the nightcap of a 4/19 DH at Honolulu, allowing only three hits and a lone ninth-inning run.

MISC: Attended Creighton University, where he was team captain and a first-team preseason All-America in 1993...named Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year and second-team All-America in 1992...named to Baseball America's Freshman All-America team in 1991...graduated in 1990 from Lake Forest High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball, earning all-conference honors in each sport...enjoys fishing and golf...brother of Diamondbacks' pitcher Andy Benes and Cardinals' minor leaguer Adam Benes...was signed by Cardinals' scout Mike Roberts...was named Cardinals Rookie of the Year for 1996 by the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA and by Hamilton Jewelers...resides in Cedar Hill, Mo...name is pronounced BEN-es.

1998 SEASON:

- Played in 46 games before spending the last three months on the disabled list.
- Batted .324 (11-for-34) against lefthanders.
- Hit safely in 15 of his 23 starts (22-for-80, .275).
- Had six multihit games, including a three-hit effort 6/10 at CWS.
- Was 5-for-8 (.625) in the early June series against the White Sox and batted .389 (7-for-18) against the Giants in '98.
- Popped his first National League home run and ninth career round-tripper in the first game of a 4/16 doubleheader vs. ARI.
- Changed his uniform number to 29 from 13 on 7/2 in honor of former Kansas City Royals pitcher Dan Quisenberry, who died in '98 after battling brain cancer.
- Left 7/2 game vs. KC with a sprained left shoulder. Placed on the disabled list for the remainder of the season on 7/3. Spent 5/25 to 6/9 on the DL with the same injury.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1987 – After being drafted by Kansas City the previous June, began his professional career at Class-A Fort Myers...appeared in 89 Florida State League games, playing exclusively at shortstop.

1988 – Played another full season at short, this time at Class-A Appleton of the Midwest League...raised his average 29 points from '87 season and scored a minor league career-high 48 runs in 110 games.

1989 – Returned to the Florida State League, where he struggled through an injury-plagued season at Baseball City...limited to 83 games after straining a hamstring early...had two stints on the disabled list, first in May and then in late July-early August...when healthy, played a variety of positions — second, short, third and the outfield.

1990 – Played in 116 games, a minor league career high, at Class-AA Memphis of the Southern League, strictly at the middle infield spots...established minor league career bests with five home runs, 44 RBIs, 15 stolen bases and 384 at-bats.

1991 – Made the Royals' Opening Day roster and embarked on a season that culminated with his selection to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie team...debuted 4/14 vs. NYY; started at second and collected his first hit, a single off Eric Plunk...played at third for the first time on 5/5 vs. TOR...made his first appearance at short on 5/8 at DET...appeared in eight games, five starts, before being optioned to Class-AAA Omaha on 5/9...after seeing action in 14 American Association games, recalled 5/27...made his first big-league outfield appearance, in right, 6/19 at TEX...started at short 7/7 and held onto the job until 9/14, when he was moved to second base for the rest of the season...cracked his first home run, off Jimmy Key, 7/26 at TOR...hit safely in 11 of 12 games, 8/2-14, batting .341 (14-41) with seven RBIs.

1992 – Opened the season as Kansas City's starting shortstop but went on the DL with lower back stiffness, 4/21...optioned to Omaha, where he'd been rehabbing since 6/20, upon being reactivated on 7/6...returned to short for Royals after 7/15 recall and got hot at the plate, hitting in 17 of 21 games (.394, 26-66) from 7/31 - 8/25...streak raised his season average to .270 from .155...batted .342 (25-73) in August...hit his second major league homer, an inside-the-park shot, and drove in three runs in the second game of an 8/4 doubleheader vs. CAL...made his first two career appearances in center field, 8/14-15 vs. BAL.

1993 – After opening the season in the minors, was recalled to Kansas City only to succumb to injuries that limited him to 15 major league games and 47 Class-AAA contests...joined the Royals from Omaha on 4/15 but played just twice before heading for the DL with Bell's Palsy, 4/19...returned following rehab stint at Omaha 5/10-17...had three hits and scored twice 5/29 at MIL...went 8-for-23 (.348) over nine games before straining his right hamstring 6/6 vs. MIL...after a 6/7 - 8/10 stint on the DL, rehabbed 7/15-23 and 7/31 - 8/10 at Omaha, then was optioned to the AmAs club...recalled 9/8 but made just four more appearances.

1994 – Spent the entire season in the majors for the first time...played in 46 games in a utility role: three games at second base, 25 at third, 15 at short and one in left...made only one error all year, at short, 4/12 vs. BOS...in the eighth inning of the same game, he pitched for the first time as a professional, allowing a run, two hits and five walks over the final two innings of a 22-11 game...made his first major league start at third 5/5 at TOR... drove in three runs 7/7 vs. MIL, then popped his third career home run 7/8 at TOR.

1995 – Started 70 of the 95 games he played in...started at five positions: second (28 starts), short (26) and all three outfield spots (16 in all)...also played first base for the first time 7/15 at BAL...made his first big-league start in the outfield (in center), 5/6 at CWS...hit .293 (24-82) in July and .282 (20-71) in August...batted .330 (30-91) over 28 games, 7/4 - 8/8, raising his average from .130 to .246...capped the hot stretch by hitting safely in a career-high 10 straight games 7/28 - 8/8 (.433, 13-30).

1996 – Took over the Royals' starting job at shortstop in mid-April and enjoyed his finest season...led all A.L. shortstops in fielding with a .982 average, committing 11 errors in 135 games...also saw duty at first base (two games), second (three, two starts) and center field (once)...set career highs in most offensive categories, with 51 runs, 92 hits, 14 doubles, five triples, four homers and 48 RBIs...established another personal best, 17 sacrifice bunts, second in the A.L. behind teammate Tom Goodwin...hit .304 (7-23) vs. CWS and .333 (9-27) vs. OAK...had his first career four-RBI game 4/24 vs. BAL...batted .423 (11-26), with five RBIs, during a season-high eight-game hitting streak, 5/31 - 6/9...matched a career high with three hits 8/3 vs. NYY...equaled a season- and career-best with four RBIs in an 18-3 win 8/10 at CAL.

1997 – Was moved to second base after leading the American League in fielding at shortstop in 1996; overall, made 28 of his 39 starts at second...played six positions for the Royals; in addition to second, started four games at third base, three each at short and in right, and one in left field. Also played center field...enjoyed the best start of career, batting .327 (16-for-49) with eight RBIs in April...drove in three runs and scored two in a 6-1 victory vs. MIN on 4/13...hit his eighth career home run 4/23 at SEA...played in his 500th career game 5/24 vs. SEA...saw action in only two of Royals' last 45 games due to an injured left shoulder. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on 9/9.

MISC: Graduated in 1985 from Riverview, Fla., H.S., where he participated in baseball, basketball and track...attended Manatee Community College in Bradenton, Fla...was a member of 1985 Babe Ruth World Series champions...father, Bruce, pitched for six seasons in the American League, for the White Sox 1963-67, then splitting 1968 between the Orioles and Senators...resides in Leawood, Kan., with his wife, Jill, and daughter, Bridget Ann (5/19/98).

1991 – Enjoyed one of the best Cardinal rookie seasons in recent memory...batted .295 (13-for-44) over 10 starts from 4/20-5/3 though he was bothered by sore right wrist, which he hurt during the final week of spring training...had three hits and scored winning run in memorable collision with Darren Daulton 4/21 vs PHI...stole season-high three bases and scored three runs 5/10 at HOU...had 10 stolen bases and four triples in June...tied Pedro Guerrero with team-high 12-game hitting streak 8/10-8/22...hit two homers 9/1 at SF, teaming with Felix Jose to give Cards first single-game multi-homer tandem since 1950...his cycle 9/15 vs NY was first by a Card since Willie McGee (1984) and first by a Cardinal rookie since Cliff Heathcote (1918)...the night before, his two-run single was lone hit in 2-1 win vs NY - first Cardinal win in 73 years with just one hit...hit seven homers in second half, six in September...had most RBI (69) by Cards' rookie since Hector Cruz had 71 in '76...batted .286 with RISP...had team-leading 44 stolen bases and was first Cardinal rookie since John Heidrick (1899) to total 60 RBI and 40 steals...was first Card rookie since Rogers Hornsby (1916) to hit 15 triples (tops in majors)...first NL rookie to lead league in triples since Juan Samuel (1984)...was second on club with 12 GWRBI...lead-off hitter in 76 starts...tied for NL lead in total outfield chances with 380...each of his nine homers came off right-handed pitching...had 14 RBI vs NY and batted .353 against HOU...finished third in NL rookie of the year voting...named to major league all-rookie teams by Baseball Digest and Topps.

1992 – Proved that he was on the verge of becoming one of the premier players in the league...led Cards in 13 offensive categories, while posting one of the best all-around seasons by a Cardinal in recent years...hit his 20th homer in the final game of the season, becoming the first Cardinal to post a 20-homer/20-steal season since Lou Brock in '67...his 20-homer total was one off the pace of Stan Musial's club-record 21 for a STL centerfielder set in 1952...also became the first Cardinal left-handed batter since Brock (1967) to hit 20 homers in a season...66 of his 175 hits (38%) went for extra bases...Ray finished among NL top-10 in hits (175), total bases (287), multi-hit games (52), doubles (40, T-2nd), stolen bases (42), slugging percentage (.480) and extra-base hits (66)...had a league-high 22 road doubles...surpassed career-highs for BA, runs, hits, doubles, homers, RBI, walks and strikeouts...he, Marquis Grissom & Barry Bonds were only players among NL top-10 in both total bases & stolen bases...hit .314 with 16 homers vs RHP, .255 with four homers vs lefties...hit .327 with runners in scoring position, up 41 pts. from his .286 mark in that situation in '91 season...finished 3rd among NL outfielders in fielding percentage (.996) with just two errors in 445 chances...led NL outfielders in putouts (438)...had a club-record 147 strikeouts breaking the previous season-high of 139 set by Jack Clark in 1987...hit .384 (173-for-451) in at-bats when he didn't strikeout...put together a season-high 12-game hit streak, 7/9-24...hit .337 in July...had 9 HR's and 43 RBI in the season's final two months...hit his first career grand slam 9/13 vs CHI...posted a .309 BA with 13 HR's and 54 RBI at Busch Stadium...finished 6th in the NL in stolen bases; however, was caught stealing a league-leading 24 times...grounded into just five double plays (one every 120 AB).

1993 – Wrist and shoulder injuries slowed his season and was never able to regain the form he displayed the year before...had a team-high 81 walks (8th in NL) and 111 strikeouts...hit each of his seven HR's vs RHP...was 3-for-6 (.500) in bases-loaded situations...had top fielding percentage among Cards' outfielders (min. 100 games) with .978 mark...suffered strained left shoulder on 4/9 and had slight separation of same shoulder after banging into outfield wall on 8/29 at Los Angeles...was disabled 6/24-7/9 due to injured right wrist...stole 14 bases, but was also caught 14 times.

1994 – Jump-started the season with a lead-off homer in the season opener 4/3 at CIN and carried the Cardinals for the first few months with timely hitting...batted .352 with five homers and 16 RBI in April...although his average dipped from .322 on 5/25 to .267 at season's end, Lankford still tied for the club high with 19 homers, one under his career high, and was the leader in runs scored (89), walks (58) and total bases (203)...led off five games with home runs and won three games with homers in Cards' final at-bat...hit three lead-off homers in a five-game span 4/26 - 5/3...belted 11th-inning solo homer to lift Cards to 7-6 win vs. CHI on 5/10...belted a 400-foot 10th-inning homer to beat PIT, 4-3, on 5/18...recorded 500th career hit 5/21 at FLA with single in the 5th...hit game-ending homer in bottom of ninth 6/4 vs. SF...had a career-best 15-game hitting streak 4/19 - 5/7 and scored in 13-straight games 4/19 - 5/5...had nine-game hitting streak when season ended...matched a career-high with two home runs 6/27 at NY...was the only N.L. batter (min. 200 at-bats) not to ground into a double-play...tied for third in league with a career-high 89 runs scored...ranked second in N.L. with 113 strikeouts, one fewer than Reggie Sanders...batted .366 (111-for-303) when he put the ball into play (ABs minus Ks)...batted .293 with 16 homers and 48 RBI vs. right-handers...batted .318 at Busch, 50 points above his career mark (entering the season) at home.

1995 – Enjoyed an incredible run over the season's final two months and once again proved to be one of the club's top performers...appeared in a team-high 132 games and paced the club in home runs (25), RBIs (83), doubles (35), extra base hits (62), slugging average (.516), on-base average (.360), walks (63) and stolen bases (24)...became just the seventh Cardinal since 1966, when Busch Stadium opened, to hit 25 or more home runs...batted .308 & finished with 16 home runs at Busch, one short of tying the single-season record for home runs at the stadium...his 25 HR's were the most ever by a Cards' center fielder, surpassing Stan Musial's 1952 total of 21...10 of his 25 round-trippers came in Sept. and he took home NL Player-of-the-Week honors for Sept. 4-10 when he batted .619 with three home runs & 8 RBIs...was just the fifth Cardinal & the first since 1948 to lead the team in both home runs & stolen bases and the first to ever lead with totals of 10 or more for both HR's & steals...had a career-best 16-game hit streak from 8/29 - 9/17 in which he raised his BA 29 pts (.258 - .287)...he homered in 4-straight games, 9/8-12, one shy of tying the club record for consecutive homer games...bombed a 441-ft HR into the upper deck in RF on 9/8 vs SD, the longest HR of the year at Busch...power supply came in bunches, as he homered on back-to-back days eight times...23 of his career-high 25 home runs came vs RHP's...finished with 15 HR's & 46 RBIs after the All-Star break...matched his career high with four RBI on four occaisions & finished with a team-high 25 multi-RBI games...matched his single-game high for hits with four on both 6/10 at ATL & 5/26 vs CIN...batted .306 with a team-high 9 home runs with runners in scoring position...topped Cards' outfielders in both putouts & total chances and had the 2nd-best fielding pct. (.990) of his career...his steal of home on 6/16 vs SF was first by a Cardinal since 1990.

1996 – Led the club with 100 runs, 265 total bases, 79 walks, 35 steals, and eight triples, and tied for club lead with 36 doubles...equalled career high with 86 RBI and his 100 runs were most by a Cardinal since Vince Coleman in 1987...hit 20-plus homers for third time, finishing with 21, including three two-homer efforts, giving him five for his career...placed ninth in NL with 35 stolen bases...played center field without error for first 108 games and 278 chances before miscue 8/13 vs LA...finished as NL outfield fielding champion with .997 percentage, one error in 366 chances...drove in 20 runs in April with seven homers and .573 slugging average...hit in seven straight games, 4/8-15 (.393, 11-28), highlighted by third career two-homer game 4/12 vs PHI...hit longest Cardinal homer ever at Busch, 468 ft. into RF upper deck 4/17 vs PIT...fourth career two-homer game came 4/30 at CHI, including game-tying shot in ninth...posted 25-game on-base streak, 5/5 - 6/2, batting .330 (29-88) with .440 OBP (18 walks, one HBP, two sac flies)...5/19 at COL ninth inning HR was first ever into Coors Field RF upper deck 483 ft....good on 18 consecutive steal attempts 7/4 - 9/6, last caught 6/19 vs PHI, next caught 9/8 vs SD...popped 100th career homer in first inning 7/15 at CIN, then hit another four-bagger three innings later for his third multi-HR game of season, and tallied career-high five RBI...started week during which he hit .407 (11-27) scored eight runs, drove in seven, and was named NL Player-of-the-Week...scored 500th career run 8/22 at COL...hit in season-high 10 straight games, 8/28 - 9/7, batting .417 (15-36)...highlighted streak and matched career high 8/30 vs COL, with four hits, the sixth time he had done so in the majors...hit .313 (31-99) in August...drew 21 walks in September...suffered torn rotator cuff in his left shoulder while making diving catch 9/27 vs CIN...ailment limited Ray to six postseason appearances and three N.L. Championship Series starts vs ATL...singled and scored lead run in seventh inning of Division Series Game Three 10/5 at SD, first of two go-ahead rallies in finale of three-game series sweep...only postseason RBI was game-winner in second game of NLCS 10/10 at ATL, sacrifice fly that snapped 3-3 tie in seventh inning.

1997 – Missed the season's first three weeks while recovering from off-season shoulder surgery but returned to enjoy his most productive offensive year...led the team in home runs (a career-high 31), RBIs (a career-high 98), runs scored (94), walks (95), slugging average (.585) and on-base average (.411)...finished among the N.L. Top 10 in homers (T-ninth), slugging average (T-fourth), on-base average (seventh), extra-base hits (eighth) and walks (fifth)...was named to the N.L. All-Star team for the first time...set a club record for most home runs by a Cards center fielder, eclipsing the mark of 25 he set in 1995...became only the 17th Cardinal to hit 30 homers in a season; hit the most by a Redbird since Jack Clark hit 35 home runs in 1987...led the team in multi-RBI games (27) and game-winning RBIs (12)...ranked second on the club with 36 doubles...came close (.585) to becoming the first Cardinal to post a .600 slugging average since Stan Musial had a .612 average in 1957...blasted two upper-deck homers on 7/15 at CIN, becoming the first player in Riverfront Stadium history to reach the upper tier twice in one game...tied career highs for most hits (four) and home runs (two) in a game on 4/29 vs. SF...matched his single-game high with four walks on 9/18 at CHI...matched a career high for most runs scored in a game (four) on 5/7 vs. PHI...batted .462 (12-26) in April and .333 with17 homers and 61 RBIs prior to the All-Star break...batted .515 (17-33) when hitting the first pitch, including six doubles and four homers...swiped 21 bases, increasing his career total to 199 steals...moved into 10th place on the Cards' all-time home run list with 135.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000 with a club option for 2001.

1998 SEASON:

- Inspired a renaissance of the National Pastime as he blasted his way to a major league record 70 home runs, eclipsing Roger Maris' 1961 record of 61 homers.
- Received a bevy of postseason awards and honors. Named The Sporting News Sportsman of the Year (co-winner with the Cubs' Sammy Sosa), Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year (co-winner with Sosa), Associated Press Player of the Year, Players Choice Player of the Year (chosen by major league players), Baseball America Major League Player of the Year, Baseball Weekly Player of the Year, ABC Wide World of Sports Man of the Year, Time Magazine Hero of the Year, St. Louis Baseball Man of the Year (selected by St. Louis BBWAA chapter), the Missouri Athletic Club Personality of the Year, Sid Mercer Player of the Year (New York BBWAA chapter). Named N.L. first baseman on Louisville Slugger's "Silver Slugger" team (his third Silver Slugger award, emblematic of the best offensive player at each position), The Sporting News' Major League All-Star team and Baseball America's Major League All-Star team. Finished second to Sammy Sosa in N.L. Most Valuable Player balloting (438-272), as selected by the BBWAA. Also chosen one of People Magazine's 25 Most Intriguing People of the Year, one of Vanity Fair's People of the Year and one of Barbara Walters' 10 Most Memorable People of 1998. Received ESPY awards as Professional Baseball Performer of the Year, Male Athlete of the Year and Baseball Performer of the Year. On the season's final day, received the "St. Louis Award," a civic honor presented to individuals who bring distinction to the city. Also received a Key to the City of St. Louis, the RCGA Right Arm of St. Louis award, the Pierre Laclede Award and numerous other city and state honors.
- Honored as the N.L. Player of the Month in April, May and September. Coupled with his Player of the Month honor in September 1997, he became the first player to receive the N.L. award in three consecutive months.
- Voted N.L. Player of the Week for the weeks ending April 5, May 24 and Sept. 27.
- Became the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three consecutive seasons.
- Set a major league record for most home runs in two consecutive seasons, 128, breaking Babe Ruth's record of 114 homers in 1927-28.
- Averaged one home run every 7.27 at-bats (70HR/509AB), breaking his previous single-season major league record of one homer every 8.13 at-bats (52HR/423AB) in 1996.

- Improved his career AB/HR ratio to a major league best 11.23:1, surpassing Babe Ruth's career mark of one homer every 11.76 at-bats.
- Moved into 20th place on the all-time home run list with 457 homers. Started the season in 30th place.
- Reached the 400-homer plateau in the fewest at-bats (4,726) in major league history.
- Broke his own major league record for hitting 40 homers in the fewest at-bats (281 AB) and tied his record for fewest at-bats to 50 homers (390 AB).
- Set an N.L. record for most home runs at home (38), breaking Ted Kluszewski's 1954 record of 34.
- Tied a major league record for most homers hit on the road (32), equaling Babe Ruth's 1927 mark and breaking George Foster's N.L. record of 31 in 1977.
- Set major league records for most home runs before June 1 (27), before July 1 (37), before August 1 (45), before September 1 (55, tied with Sosa), and through September 30 (70). Tied an N.L. record for most homers before May 1 (11).
- Tied a major league record for most home runs in May (16), equaling Mickey Mantle's 1956 mark. The monthly total eclipsed his Cardinals club record for most homers in one month, bettering his mark of 15 homers in September 1997.
- Tied a major league record shared by 11 other players with two three-homer games in one season (4/14 and 5/19).
- Had 10 multihomer games (eight 2-homer, two 3-homer), increasing his career total to 53 multihomer games, sixth on the all-time list (see chart).
- Had two back-to-back two-homer games: 9/1 & 9/2 and 9/26 & 9/27.
- Homered in 12 straight series, beginning 5/8 at NY through 6/18 at HOU.
- Homered against every opponent except DET (seven at-bats).
- With his first career homers at Montreal (4/21), Philadelphia (4/25), New York's Shea Stadium (5/8), Arizona (6/12) and Houston (6/17), has homered in 31 of the 33 ballparks in which he's played during the regular season. He's homerless in five games at Turner Field, five games at Cinergy Field and has never played during the regular season at Dodger Stadium.
- Drove in a career-high 147 runs and set a Cardinals club record for most RBIs by a first baseman (145). His single-season RBI total ranks third in club history, behind Joe Medwick's 154 RBIs in 1937 and Rogers Hornsby's 152 in 1922.
- Set an N.L. record with 162 walks, breaking Barry Bonds' 1996 mark of 151.
- Led all major leaguers with a .752 slugging average, second in N.L. history to Rogers Hornsby's .756 average in 1925.
- Fell one hit short of batting .300, concluding the year at .299.
- Stole his only base of the year in the second game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY.
- Was selected to his 10th All-Star Game as the Cards' lone representative in Denver.
- The Cardinals were 34-24 when McGwire homered. He hit 25 homers with the Cards trailing (six tied the game and five put the team ahead), 25 with the game tied and 20 with the Cards leading.
- Hit more homers, 11, on the first pitch than on any other pitch count. Hit none on a 3-0 count — the only pitch count on which he failed to go deep.
- Hit more homers, 13, in the fourth inning than in any other inning. Hit none in the second inning — the only inning (1 through 12) in which he failed to go deep.
- Hit more homers, 13, on Saturday than on any other day of the week. Hit the fewest, five, on Monday. He and Sosa homered on the same day 21 times.
- Hit 33 solo homers, 28 two-run homers, seven three-run homers and two grand slams. Hit 21 homers with no outs, 22 with one out and 27 with two outs. Hit 55 homers off righthanders and 15 off lefthanders; 38 at home and 32 on the road; and 21 in day games and 49 at night.
- His longest homerless spell was 29 at-bats (twice).
- Homered against 65 different pitchers.
- Ended the season on a tear, hitting 23 home runs in his last 40 games (one homer every 5.39 at-bats), including five round-trippers on the final weekend.
- As a Cardinal, has a .287 batting average with 94 home runs, 189 RBIs and 205 walks in 206 games. Has homered 51 times in 106 career games at Busch Stadium (a ratio of one HR every 6.8 at-bats) since joining the Cardinals on 7/31/97.

DAY-BY-DAY:

- Became the first Cardinal (and 20th major leaguer since 1901) to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, connecting for a fifth-inning blast off LA's Ramon Martinez on 3/31 at Busch. The slam was the 10th of his career.
- Homered in the season's first four games, tying Willie Mays' 1971 major league record for most consecutive games homered in to start a season.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the season's first week after batting .400 (8-for-20) with four homers and 12 RBIs.
- Collected his 1,000th career RBI on a bases-loaded walk 4/11 at SF.
- Became the ninth Cardinal to belt as many as three home runs in one game and the first Redbird to do so at Busch with a 3-for-3 performance 4/14 vs. ARI. Became the ninth major leaguer to have a three-homer game in each league (see chart).
- Hit his first career homer at Montreal's Olympic Stadium, a two-run shot off Trey Moore on 4/21.
- Hit his first career homer at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium, a two-run homer off Jerry Spradlin on 4/25.
- Hit career homer 400 in the fewest at-bats in major league history (4,726) on 5/8 at NY, a two-run blast off Rick Reed in the third inning (his first career homer at Shea Stadium). Became the 26th player to reach the 400-homer plateau.
- Crushed what could briefly be called the longest homer ever hit at Busch Stadium, a 527-foot bomb off Milwaukee's Paul Wagner on 5/12. The ball landed in Sec. 389, Row 4, Seat 4, above the left-center field scoreboard.
- Launched the longest estimated home run in Busch Stadium history, a 545-foot moonshot off Florida's Livan Hernandez on 5/16. The ball caromed off the Post-Dispatch sign in dead center field before falling into the shrubbery below.
- Belted three homers on 5/19 at PHI, becoming the 12th player (13th time) to record two three-homer games in one season. The third homer was No. 20 for the season, breaking Ken Griffey Jr.'s record for reaching 20 in a calendar year (May 20, 1997) and tying Mickey Mantle's record for reaching 20 in the fewest games played (41). Also matched a career high with six RBIs.
- Became the first player to hit a home run into Busch Stadium's "Big Mac Land" on 5/22 vs. SF, entitling 47,549 ticket holders to a free Big Mac hamburger at McDonald's restaurants the following day.
- Recorded his third multihomer game of the season by belting Nos. 22 and 23 on 5/23 vs. SF.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the week ending 5/24. Batted .423 with eight homers and 15 RBIs in six games.
- Became the first player to hit 25 homers before June 1 and tied a club record for most homers (17) at Busch Stadium with a first-inning solo shot on 5/25 vs. COL.
- Set a Cardinals club record for most home runs (16) in a month on 5/30 at SD, tying Mickey Mantle's 1956 major league record for most home runs in May.
- Established a single-season club record for most homers (18) at Busch Stadium on 6/5 vs. SF, breaking the mark shared by Richie Allen (1970), Ted Simmons (1979), Jack Clark (1987) and Ron Gant (1996). The homer, No. 28 of the season, came in his first at-bat after missing three games with back spasms.
- Reached the 30-homer plateau in the Cardinals' 64th game, sooner than any other player except Babe Ruth (63 games in 1928), on 6/9 at CWS.
- Hit his first homer at Arizona's Bank One Ballpark when he connected for his 11th career grand slam, 6/12 against Andy Benes.
- Recorded his first-ever Astrodome homer, 6/17 off Houston's Jose Lima.
- Hit his 33rd homer on 6/18 at HOU (the 11th to reach the Astrodome's upper deck) to break Ken Griffey Jr.'s major league record for most homers before July 1.
- Homered in both of the Cardinals' interleague games at Cleveland, 6/24-25, including a 461-foot homer (No. 35) on 6/25 — the second-longest in Jacobs Field history after his 485-foot blast in April '97 while with Oakland.
- Belted homer No. 37 into the left-field upper deck (472 feet) 6/30 vs. KC, tying Reggie Jackson's 1969 record for most homers before the All-Star break.
- Pounded a dramatic 11th inning, two-run homer into Busch's upper-deck (485 feet) off Houston's Billy Wagner on 7/11, capping a 4-3 win. The homer was his 38th, but his first home run and RBIs of July.
- With a two-homer game 7/12 vs. HOU, reached 40 homers in the fewest at-bats (281) and games (90) in major league history.
- Posted his second two-homer game in less than a week on 7/17 vs. LA, tying Rogers Hornsby's 1922 club record for homers by a righthanded batter (42) while breaking Babe Ruth's and Jimmie Foxx's major league record for most homers before August 1. The first homer traveled an estimated 511 feet.

- Tied Johnny Mize's 1940 club record with his 43rd homer on 7/20 at SD. Also matched a career high with four hits.
- Established a single-season club home run record with No. 44 on 7/26 at COL, ending an 0-for-16 skid at the plate.
- Snapped a 29 at-bat homerless drought and set a single-season club record for most homers at home (26, breaking Mize's 1940 record) with No. 46 on 8/8 vs. the Cubs.
- Hit No. 47 on 8/11 vs. NY, eclipsing Hack Wilson's N.L. record for home runs before Sept. 1 (46 in 1930).
- Drew his 27th intentional walk on 8/12 vs. NY, breaking Stan Musial's 1958 club record for intentional walks in a season.
- On 8/19 at CHI, less than an hour after Sammy Sosa hit his 48th homer to take over the N.L. lead in the fifth inning, McGwire tied the game with his 48th homer in the eighth, then hit a game-winning shot (No. 49) in the 10th to reclaim the lead.
- Hit No. 50 in the first game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, becoming the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three successive seasons and the oldest player to hit 50 (34 years, 324 days, compared with Mize's previous mark of 34 years, 256 days). Tied major league records for fewest at-bats (390, which he set in 1996) and games played by team (125, set by Ruth in '21 and matched by Maris in '61) to reach 50 homers.
- Hit No. 51 in the second game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, setting a club record for most homers (24) hit on the road in one season.
- Hit No. 52 on 8/22 at PIT, setting major league records for most homers before Sept. 1 and most homers in three consecutive seasons (162), an N.L. record for home runs by a first baseman (breaking Mize's 1947 mark), and a club record for most homers in two consecutive seasons (76).
- Hit No. 53 and walked twice on 8/23 at PIT, breaking Jack Clark's 1987 club record of 136 walks in one season. Also broke his own major league record for most homers by a righthanded batter in consecutive seasons with his 111th since the start of play in 1997 (110 in 1996-97).
- Became the first N.L. player since Ralph Kiner in 1949 and only the third National Leaguer to hit as many as 54 homers in one season, blasting a 509-foot smash off the hitter's backdrop on 8/26 vs. FLA.
- Hit Nos. 56 and 57 on 9/1 at FLA. The second homer breaks Hack Wilson's 1930 N.L. record for most home runs in one season and Ruth's major league record for homers in consecutive seasons (114 in 1927-28).
- Smashed Nos. 58 and 59 in a 9/2 win at FLA, his second-straight two-homer game. The second homer enables him to surpass Jimmie Foxx, Hank Greenberg and his own 1997 total for most homers by a righthanded batter, and Greenberg's major league record for most homers by a first baseman.
- Belted a two-run, first-inning home run off Cincinnati lefty Dennis Reyes on 9/5 at Busch, reaching 60 homers in the team's 142nd game — in 12 fewer games than Ruth (154) and 17 fewer than Maris (159).
- Tied Maris' mark of 61 homers with a first-inning solo homer off the Stadium Club against Cubs righthander Mike Morgan on 9/7. Hits 61 in 19 fewer games than Maris (144-163).
- Connected for historic No. 62 at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, 9/8 vs. CHI. With nobody on, two outs and the Cards trailing, 2-0, in the fourth inning, McGwire lined the first pitch from Cubs righthander Steve Trachsel an estimated 341 feet over the left-field wall — his shortest homer of the year. The ball cleared the wall 15 feet to the right of the foul pole and was retrieved under the stands by grounds crew worker Tim Forneris. The home run came in the Cardinals' 145th game and McGwire's 451st at-bat. The game was delayed 11 minutes by the ensuing celebration.
- Drew walk No. 152 on 9/12 at HOU, breaking Barry Bonds' 1996 N.L. record.
- Poked his 63rd homer (450th career) and his only pinch homer of '98 (sixth career) in the ninth inning of the first game of a 9/15 doubleheader vs. PIT.
- Pounded his 65th homer in the first inning 9/20 at MIL and had another apparent homer ruled a double due to fan interference. Tied Ruth's 1927 major league record for most homers on the road (32) and broke George Foster's 1977 N.L. mark.
- Kept pace with Sosa on 9/25 by belting his 66th HR, off Montreal's Shayne Bennett at Busch, just 45 minutes after Sosa hit No. 66 at HOU.

- Regained the homer lead with Nos. 67 and 68 on 9/26 vs. MON. No. 67 was his 35th homer at Busch, breaking Ted Kluszewski's 1954 N.L. record for most homers at home.
- In the 9/27 season finale vs. MON, singled in the first inning, hit a solo homer (No. 69) off Mike Thurman in the third, walked in the fifth and blasted No. 70 off Carl Pavano in the seventh — a three-run shot to left in his final at-bat of the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1984 – Selected by the Oakland A's in the first round (10th player overall) of the June amateur draft...played 16 games for Modesto, batting .200 in 55 plate appearances.

1985 – Spent the full year as Modesto's starting third baseman...showed exceptional power...batted .274 in 138 games, and slugged 50 extra-base hits in 489 at-bats (23 doubles, 3 triples and 24 homers)...also had 106 RBIs and 108 strikeouts...earned the California League's Rookie of the Year Award.

1986 – Started the year at Double-A Huntsville but moved up to Tacoma June 6th and then up to Oakland on August 20th...finished his minor league season with a .311 average, 148 hits, 23 home runs and 112 RBIs...picked up his first major league hit on August 24th vs. the Yankees Tommy John...belted his first homer the next day off Walt Terrell at Detroit...never really found his groove with Oakland, batting .189 with 10 hits and three homers in 53 at-bats...fielding was a problem at third as he made six errors and fielded .833.

1987 – Was the consensus American League Rookie of the Year...selected unanimously by the BBWAA, only the second rookie to earn that distinction (after Carlton Fisk in 1972)...his 49 homers led the league and tied for the major league high with the Cubs' Andre Dawson...homer total also set a new major league rookie record...set a new Oakland single-season standard, eclipsing Reggie Jackson's 47 hit in 1969...also topped the major leagues with a .618 slugging percentage, which was an A's record at the time...had at least 12 RBIs in each month of the season and 20 or more in four months...his RBI total was the third best in the AL...finished sixth in the AL MVP voting...had a five-homer spree in Detroit May 8-10th...in a three-game series at Cleveland June 26-28, hit five homers, knocked in seven runs and scored runs in nine consecutive at-bats...named to the AL All-Star team for the game in Oakland...had 33 homers with 68 RBIs at the break...tied major league rookie homer record of 38 August 11th at Seattle with a solo shot off the M's Mike Moore...set the new mark with his 39th homer in Anaheim August 14th, a two-run homer in the 6th inning off the Angels' Don Sutton.

1988 – Finished second on the club to Jose Canseco with 32 homers and 99 RBIs...homer total of 32 was third-best in the loop and RBI total was eighth best...back stiffness caused Mark to miss nine of the A's last 16 games and his chance at 100 RBIs for the second consecutive season...named as the AL's starter at first base in the All-Star Game at Cincinnati...more than a third of his RBIs pulled the A's into a tie or put them ahead...hit .333 in the ALCS vs. Boston with a homer and three RBIs...recorded one of his greatest career moments when he homered off Jay Howell in the ninth inning of Game 3 in the World Series...the blast gave the A's a 2-1 victory...it was Oakland's only win in the Series and Mark's only hit in 17 at-bats.

1989 – Led the A's and ranked third in the AL with 33 homers...finished second to Parker on the A's and tenth in the league with 95 RBI's...led the league with a homer every 14.8 at-bats and was second with an RBI every 5.2 at-bats...all this despite spending 15 days on the DL in early April with a herniated disc in his back...after returning missed just five games the remainder of the season...hit safely in seven of the A's nine postseason games...overall hit .343 in the postseason with a homer and four RBIs...amazingly was the only A's regular not to homer in the Series vs. San Francisco.

1990 – Topped the A's in RBI's (108) and games played (156) and led the major leagues in walks with 110...was second on the A's to Rickey Henderson in runs scored with 86...post season numbers were not up to his standards...wound up with five hits...all singles...hit .154 in the ALCS vs. Boston with 2 RBI's...and .214 in the Series with no RBI's...earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence at first base...made just 5 errors in 1,429 total chances for a .997 fielding percentage...selected by the fans for the third consecutive season as the AL's All-Star starting first baseman...finished 11th in American League MVP voting.

1991 – Had his consecutive streak of 30 or more homers end at four years...his .201 average was a career low by 30 points...was again among the top fielding first basemen in baseball...made just four errors in 1,297 chances for a .997 fielding percentage...22 homers was the third best total on the club and his 75 RBIs was fourth best...with 93 walks he finished second to Rickey Henderson on the A's and sixth in the league.

1992 – Led the major leagues by averaging one homer every 11.1 at-bats but a muscle strain in August forced him to miss 20 games and cost him a chance to win his second major league homer title...McGwire's 42 homers were second only to the Rangers' Juan Gonzalez who homered on the final day of the season to finish with 43...Mark did lead the AL with a .585 slugging percentage...finished fourth to teammate Eckersley in the AL MVP balloting and was named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams...also named by UPI as the Comeback Player of the Year...finished the year with a .268 average, 67 points above his 1991 figure...led the A's with 104 RBIs as he also topped the club with 29 multi-RBI games...in the playoffs vs. Toronto belted a two-run homer off Morris in his first at-bat but then finished the post season 2 for his last 19 with one RBI...spring training was a good indication of what kind of year McGwire was set for as he led the major leagues in hitting with a .453 Cactus League average...June 10th in Milwaukee a big day in Mark's career as his 22nd home run of the 1992 season off the Brewer's Bosio was the 200th of his career...only four men in baseball history, Kiner, Ruth, Killebrew and Mathews have reached the 200 mark faster than Mark who hit his 200th in his 2,852nd at-bat...that homer also tied his total for 1991...reached the All-Star break with 28 homers and was named to the AL All-Star squad for the sixth consecutive year...it was the fifth straight year he was named a starter by the fans...in the All-Star home run hitting contest belted 12 homers to top everyone and lead the AL All-Stars to an easy win...with 38 homers on August 21st had a six-homer bulge over Gonzalez but strained a rib muscle on the right side of his rib cage that night at Camden Yards and went on the disabled list...when he came back 20 games later had lost the homer lead...with one swing at Chicago 9/21 reached the 40-homer and 100-RBI plateaus...second time he had reached the 40-homer mark and third time for 100 RBIs.

1993 – Appeared in just 27 games due to an injured left heel...made just two pinch-hitting appearances after 5/14...eventually underwent surgery in September to repair the damage...was off to a great start with 28 hits, including 15 extra-base hits, and 24 RBI in his first 25 games before the injury shut him down...originally injured the heel during the A's series in New York 5/3-4...played in another nine games before he went on the DL 5/14...missed the next 100 games before he was activated 9/3...after grounding out in a pinch-hitting role vs. Baltimore at the Coliseum on 9/3 had to miss the A's next 3 games as he served a suspension for his part in the 8/24 rhubarb at Milwaukee...his last 1993 appearance was as a pinch-hitter at Toronto 9/9...underwent surgery on the heel September 24th in Houston as Dr. Donald Baxter corrected a partial tear of fascia in his left heel and also shaved a small bone spur...his season total of nine homers was the second-best figure in major league history for a player with 100 or fewer at-bats...Ted Williams hit 13 in 91 at-bats for Boston in 1953.

1994 – Had his second consecutive injury-shortened season...after off season left heel surgery, came to spring camp healthy but the injuries arrived almost as soon as camp started and persisted through much of his season...a stiff back kept McGwire out of the first three weeks of spring games but not out of the A's opening day lineup for the seventh consecutive year...stress fracture of the left heel was his second significant injury of the year and it landed him on the disabled list from 4/30-6/18 (43 games)...belted one of the most dramatic homers of the year 7/10 at Baltimore off Lee Smith, a two-run shot with the A's down a run in the 9th inning...but just a little more than two weeks later, on 7/26 in Anaheim, he re-injured his left heel...was placed on the disabled list the next day, missed the remainder of the season and eventually underwent surgery for a second time on the heel...Dr. Donald Baxter, who performed the first surgery on McGwire's heel to "release" the medial part of the fascia 9/2493, performed the second surgery to "release" the lateral aspect of the fascia on 8/30...on the year McGwire wound up appearing in 47 games, making 37 starts at first base which tied him with Troy Neel for the most starts on the A's at the position.

1995 – Despite having the schedule shortened to 144 games and missing 33 games because of two separate stints on the disabled list, McGwire hit 39 home runs in just 317 at-bats...became one of just seven players in ML history to hit 30 homers with fewer than 400 at-bats and his 39 HRs are the most ever by a player with fewer than 392 at-bats (Hank Aaron, 40 HRs in 392 at-bats in 1973)...most of the power came against lefthanded pitching as he hit 14 HR off southpaws in just 79 at-bats (1 per 5.6 at-bats)...his average distance of 418 feet per homer was the best in the majors...also topped the A's with 90 RBIs...had more home runs than singles (35)...started the year 4-for-18 but then put together a career-high 18-game hitting streak (23 for 64, .359) from 5/3-21...had his first two-homer game of the season on 6/10 at Boston and followed that up by blasting three the next day to tie his career high (6/27/87 at Cleveland)...the five HR in consecutive games tied a major league record (18 times) which he already shared...he and Ralph Kiner are the only two players who have done it twice...had five multiple HR games for the season...belted his sixth career grand slam vs. California on 6/30 in the bottom of the ninth off Lee Smith to give the A's an 8-5 win...21 of his 39 HR and 31 of his 90 RBI either tied the game or put the A's ahead...was tied with Mo Vaughn for the major league lead with 24 HR and 59 RBI when he was hit in the helmet by a David Cone pitch on 7/8 vs.

Toronto...was hit by a pitch 11 times for the season which tied for 4th in the league...was named to his seventh All-Star Game but did not play because of the injury...missed five games following the Cone beaning and returned for three games before suffering a deep bruise in his left foot on 7/17 which landed him on the DL the next day...missed 12 games, was activated 8/2, played in three games, and then went back on the DL with a sore lower back...missed another 21 games before returning 8/26...finished the season by hitting 11 home runs in his last 18 games...included in that span was the 269th of his career on 9/14 vs. Kansas City (Gubicza) which broke Reggie Jackson's Oakland career record...stole second base as a part of a double steal at California on 9/30, his first steal since 8/6/91.

1996 – Hit an Oakland record and major league-leading 52 home runs, becoming the 14th player (21 times) in major league history to hit 50 home runs...the 52 homers tied for 11th most in major league history, were the most in the majors since Foster hit 52 in 1977 and the most in the A.L. since Maris (61) and Mantle (54) in 1961...is the only player to hit 50 HR and play in fewer than 140 games...did it at a major league record rate of one home run every 8.13 at-bats, matching his figure from 1995...in addition to leading the majors in home runs, he also ranked first in slugging percentage (.730) and on-base percentage (.467)...became the 10th player (18 times) to lead the majors in all three categories, the fourth since World War II (Mays in 1965, Yastrzemski in 1967 and Schmidt in 1981)...both figures also set Oakland records and the slugging percentage was 14th best in major league history...batted a team leading .312 which was 60 points above his career average and 23 points above his previous best of .289 in his rookie season of 1987...also had career highs in runs (104) and walks (116), falling two walks short of Bando's single season Oakland record...had his fourth career 100 RBI season (113) and reached the century mark in runs, walks and RBI in the same season for the first time in his career...named to the Silver Slugger Team, the Associated Press All-Star Team and finished seventh in the BBWAA MVP voting...missed the first 18 games with a foot injury before he was activated April 23...reached base via hit, walk or hit by pitch in each of his first 48 games and 62 straight dating back to 9/16/1995, setting an Oakland record...hit his first of two grand slams on 5/1 vs. California (other came on 9/22 at Seattle)...went 24 at-bats without a homer from 5/7-14, his longest homerless streak of the season...began his home run tear on 5/17 at Boston and including that blast, he hit 21 home runs in a 36 game span through 6/27...hit .333 (41 for 123) over that span with seven doubles for a .902 slugging percentage...during the streak he hit the 9000th home run in Athletics history on 5/28 vs. Boston and drove in his 790th career run on 6/16 at Milwaukee to break Sal Bando's Oakland career record...had three doubles in the latter contest, tying an Oakland record...belted his 300th career home run on 6/25 vs. Detroit (Olivares) to become the 73rd player in major league history to reach that plateau...finished June with 14 home runs, one shy of his club record for home runs in a month (May, 1987) and the major league record for home runs in June...was named American League Player of the Month in June, hitting .329 with 25 RBI, six doubles, a .915 slugging percentage, 31 walks, a .513 on-base percentage and 26 runs in 26 games...was named to the American League All-Star Team for the eighth time in his 10-year career on 7/2 and celebrated by hitting his 303rd career home run that night in Seattle, breaking Jimmie Foxx's Athletics career record...hit his 30th home run on July 13 at Texas, giving him seven 30-homer seasons, tying Foxx's all-time A's record...recorded his 1000th career hit on 7/22 at Chicago off Tapani, becoming the eighth Oakland player to reach the plateau...homered in four consecutive games from 7/23-26...also homered in three straight twice...he hit the longest home run ever by an opponent at the new Comiskey with a 470 foot blast 7/24...then on the 25th in Toronto he homered into the fifth deck for a 488 foot home run, the longest in the five years that all major league home runs have been measured...he homered at least once in every series during the latter streak for a major league record of 20 consecutive series with a home run...that streak ended when he missed five games with back spasms, 7/27-8/1...hit his 40th home run on 8/12 vs. Minnesota, his third 40 homer season, making him and Foxx the only two Athletics with three 40-homer seasons...hit his 40th in his 294th at bat, breaking Ruth's record for fewest at-bats to 40 homers (316 in 1928)...homered the next day to increase his 162-game total dating back to 6/2/95 to 70...hit his 145th career home run in the Coliseum on 8/18 vs. Baltimore (Yan) breaking Reggie Jackson's Coliseum career home run record...hit his 50th home run in the second game of a doubleheader at Cleveland on 9/14 off Ogea...reached 50 in 390 at-bats, breaking Ruth's record of fewest at-bats to 50 homers (438 in 1921)...hit his final two home runs on 9/22 at Seattle, and both came in the fifth inning to tie a major league record for home runs in an inning (28th player, 30th time)...that gave him 28 home runs on the road, tying the franchise record which he already shared with Canseco...homered at least twice against every team; hit six vs. Boston, Cleveland and Detroit...hit at least .321 each month from May through August, including .356 in May, his highest batting average ever in a full month...average improved to .359 with runners in scoring position, which ranked fourth in the league, and his .373 average off southpaws was seventh-best.

1997 – Tied the major league record for most home runs in one season by a righthanded batter with 58 round-trippers, the most in the majors since Roger Maris hit a record 61 homers in 1961...broke Jimmie Foxx's record for most home runs by a righthanded batter in two consecutive seasons (106 in 1932-33) with 110 home runs...became only the second major leaguer, after Babe Ruth, to hit 50 or more homers in consecutive seasons...concluded the season with a career average of one home run every 11.94 at-bats (387/4622), second in major league history to Ruth's ratio of one homer every 11.76 at-bats...had eight multihomer games in 1997 (four with Cards) and concluded the season tied for 14th on the all-time list with 43 multihomer games...became the first player to hit 20 home runs with two different teams in one season...after arriving in a July 31 trade from Oakland, hit 24 homers as a Cardinal, including a club single-month record 15 home runs in September. Overall, 24 of his 44 hits as a Redbird were homers...homered once every 7.3 at-bats as a Cardinal and wound up second on the team in home runs behind Ray Lankford (31)...went deep 11 times in April, eight in May, 10 in June, five in July, nine in August and 15 in September. Homered in 12 consecutive series to finish the year...established career highs with 123 runs batted in (topping his best of 118 RBIs as a rookie in 1987) and three stolen bases, and finished one short of his career best in doubles (28 in '87)...homered against every opponent except BAL in 1997...hit home runs in a record 17 ballparks...matched his previous single-season high for home runs (52) on 9/16 vs. LA, when he launched a 517-foot blast off the facade above the left-center field scoreboard — the longest estimated homer at Busch Stadium, McGwire's longest as a Cardinal and his fifth 500-foot effort of the season; earlier in the day, he'd signed a contract extension with the Cardinals through the year 2000...homered in the second at-bat of his Busch Stadium debut on 8/8 vs. PHI — a 441-foot drive off the left-field foul pole at the Stadium Club level; the homer ended a 71 at-bat homerless drought, the second-longest such streak of his career after his 102 consecutive homerless at-bats spanning the 1990 and '91 seasons...in his first game against the Marlins on 8/22, became the first player to hit two upper-deck homers at Florida's Pro Player Stadium...hit his second-longest homer as a Cardinal (and 44th of the season) on 9/2 against the White Sox, a 504-foot blast off Busch's left-field scoreboard...matched a career high with four hits 9/5 at COL, including two home runs...hit a game-tying, two-run homer off Tom Glavine in the ninth inning 8/15 vs. Atlanta, setting up the Cards' 3-2, 12-inning victory...was named the National League's Player of the Week 8/11-17, when he hit .421 with four homers and eight RBIs...was named the National League Player of the Month for September, when he blasted 15 home runs and recorded a .729 slugging average...left Oakland as the Athletics' franchise leader with 363 home runs, 941 RBIs, 563 extra-base hits and a .551 slugging average. Ranks second in runs scored (773), walks (847), total bases (2,451) and on-base average (.380)...ranks No. 1 in franchise history, with Jimmie Foxx and Sam Chapman, with nine career grand slams...in four months with the A's, McGwire's 34 homers ranked as their season high and he tied Jason Giambi for the team lead with 81 RBIs...tied an Oakland record with his fifth career pinch-homer on 4/16, equaling the mark held by Mike Aldrete, Jeff Burroughs and Terry Steinbach...concluded the season with one homer and an .800 (4-for-5) average in pinch-hit appearances...his 11 homers in April were the most ever hit during the month by an Oakland player...reached base in all seven plate appearances 4/26 vs. KC to tie an A.L. record for most times reached base in an extra-innings game without being retired; his five walks in the game (three intentional) tied an A's club record...hit his longest homer to date and the longest in Seattle Kingdome history (538 feet) off Randy Johnson on 6/24...became the fourth player (after Harmon Killebrew, Frank Howard and Cecil Fielder) to clear the left-field roof at Tiger Stadium with a 514-foot home run on 4/20...had two four-game homer streaks with the A's: 4/19-23 and 5/24-28...named to the American League's All-Star Game team for the ninth time...was named 1997 Sportsman of the Year by The Sporting News and was selected by his peers as the Players Choice Man of the Year for leadership and commitment on and off the field.

MISC: Graduated from Damien High School (Claremont, Calif.) in 1981...attended the University of Southern California for three years...holds the Pac-10 Conference record for most homers in a single season (32)...named The Sporting News' 1984 College Player of the Year; also a member of its All-America team...played for the 1984 U.S. Olympic team...brother, Dan, was a quarterback for the Miami Dolphins and Seattle Seahawks; he was Seattle's first pick in the 1991 NFL draft...finished in a second-place tie in the 1993 AT&T Pebble Beach ProAm with his partner Billy Andrade...after the 1998 season, made guest TV appearances on The Late Show with David Letterman, The Today Show, the Rosie O'Donnell Show, Mad About You and The Simpsons (character voice)...founded the Mark McGwire Foundation for Children, through which he contributes $1 million annually to agencies that work with child-abuse victims in St. Louis and Southern California...teamed with Starbucks Coffee to contribute $5,000 per homer in 1999 to a literacy program in the city in which he homers...is single and resides in Long Beach, Calif...has one son, Matthew.

KENT MERCKER

43 KENT FRANKLIN MERCKER
Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Bats: Left

Age: 31
Born: 2/1/68 at Dublin, Ohio

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, December 16, 1997.

M.L. SERVICE: 8.148

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 1999 with a player option for 2000.

1998 SEASON:

- Established career highs and led the staff in wins (11), starts (29) and innings pitched (161.2) in his first season with the club.
- The Cards were 18-11 in his 29 starts, despite going 8-8 in his last 16 assignments.
- Had his best month in September, winning all three of his starts while posting a 2.70 ERA .
- Prone to streaks in the won-loss column, losing five straight decisions 6/7 -7/21, winning three straight 7/26 - 8/5, losing three in a row 8/11 - 8/23 and winning all three starts 9/2 - 9/13.
- Former Brave was 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA in two starts against ATL.
- Cardinals catchers threw out 11 of 19 runners who attempted to steal against him.
- Had one of his strongest outings early, scattering five hits and two runs in eight-plus innings vs. SF on 5/22. Did not earn a decision, as the Giants scored two runs in the ninth inning on a Bill Mueller pinch-homer.
- Was disabled 6/14 to 7/1 with a bruised nerve below his left knee after being hit by a batted ball 6/13 at ARI.
- Dropped his fifth straight decision 7/21 at SD in 6-3 loss against Kevin Brown.
- Earned his 50th career victory in perhaps his finest outing of the season at ATL on 7/31, when he took the mound in place of Todd Stottlemyre due to a pregame trade that sent the righthander to Texas. Held the Braves to just two runs and six hits through eight innings.
- Did not earn a decision in his 8/28 start vs. the Braves' Greg Maddux. Left the game after six innings with a 3-2 lead, setting up Cards' 5-4 win in 10 innings.
- Belted his first career home run, a grand slam, on 9/2 at FLA against Jesus Sanchez (fourth inning) while winning his ninth decision.
- Was the winning pitcher (No. 10) when Mark McGwire broke Roger Maris' home run record 9/8 vs. CHI.
- Among Cards pitchers, had a staff-high six RBIs and ranked second with eight hits.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1986 – Tied for second on the Braves' Gulf Coast League club with four victories and posted a 2.47 ERA...made nine appearances, eight starts, recording 42 strikeouts in 47.1 innings.

1987 – Made three starts in April for Class-A Durham before suffering an injured elbow...underwent successful, but season-ending, surgery in May.

1988 – Back to health, led the Carolina League with a 2.75 ERA and shared the circuit's Pitcher of the Year honors...went 11-4 in 19 starts for Durham and finished third in the league with 159 strikeouts (an average of 11.21 per 9 IP)... tied for sixth with five complete games...selected for league's All-Star Game...promoted to Class-AA Greenville, where he made nine starts and won three of four decisions...struck out 60 Southern League hitters in 48.1 innings (11.17 K/9 IP)...named outstanding pitcher in the Braves' minor league system after going a combined 14-5 with 2.91 ERA and 219 strikeouts in 176 innings.

1989 – At Class-AAA Richmond voted the second-best prospect in the International League...led the league with 144 strikeouts and tied for the lead with 27 starts...worked four complete games...held opponents to 5.71 hits per nine innings (107 H/168.2 IP)...named to Class-AAA All-Star team...recalled in September and made his major league debut 9/22 vs. CIN with two innings of relief...made one other appearance, his first start 9/27 at HOU, where he had no-decision after 2.1 innings of Braves' 5-4 victory.

1990 – Opened his second straight year at Richmond, going 5-4 in 12 games, 10 starts...one of his two relief outings resulted in his first professional save...continued delivering strikeouts, posting 69 in 58.1 innings...recalled to Atlanta 6/28...summoned from the bullpen 36 times in his rookie campaign...collected seven saves in 10 opportunities...yielded six earned runs in his first 28 innings (1.93 ERA), 18 games, 6/30 - 8/15...in July, his first full month in the majors, posted a 1.77 ERA (4 ER/20.1 IP)...picked up first two big-league wins in consecutive two-inning stints: 7/7 vs. NY and 7/14 vs. MTL...earned his first save 7/17 vs. PHI...won four of five decisions with a save over a seven-game stretch 7/7 - 7/24...opposing batters hit .182 (18-99) over 19 games 7/22 - 9/8...collected four saves in five appearances 8/22 - 9/4.

1991 – Got off to a strong start, allowing two runs on four hits in seven April appearances (1.86 ERA, .125 BA)...posted a 1.46 ERA in May...in 29 games, 4/19 - 7/7, had a 1.39 ERA (5 ER/32.1 IP)...started the stretch with 10 straight scoreless outings...stroked his first career hit and drove in his first run with an RBI single 7/30 vs. PIT; also earned the save with three innings' work...went on the disabled list 8/9-24 with a strained muscle in his right side...made four starts in September...the lone decision, a 1-0 win 9/11 vs. SD, was historic, as he pitched six innings before Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena finished the game for the first combined no-hitter in N.L. history...appeared once in Braves' victorious N.L. Championship Series vs. PIT...pitched twice in the World Series vs. MIN.

1992 – Pitched in a career-high 53 games, all in relief...did not allow a home run over a 43-game stretch comprising 55 innings, 5/3 - 9/3...pitched a Braves-best 25 consecutive scoreless innings over 22 games, 5/23 - 7/27, during which opposing batters hit .149 (13-87)...reduced his season ERA from 3.65 to 1.81...finished four combined shutouts during the streak...missed three weeks between two September appearances due to a sore right rib cage...hurled three scoreless innings in two appearances vs. PIT in the NLCS...suffered a rib injury during the postgame celebration after Game Seven and missed World Series vs. TOR.

1993 – Opened the season in the bullpen but became a spot starter after the All-Star break...for the year, opponents hit .214 against him — .200 by lefthanded batters (14-70) and .220 by righties (38-173)...combined on two one-hitters: was the third of four pitchers 8/13 vs. CIN, a 14-0 Braves win, then tossed six hitless innings in his longest start, 9/9 at SD (walking one and striking out six); Mark Wohlers then surrendered an eighth-inning single but Greg McMichael finished the 10-inning for a 1-0 win...saw action in five games of NLCS loss to Phillies...allowed a run on three hits in five innings.

1994 – Opened the season in Atlanta's starting rotation...in his first outing, 4/8 at LA, pitched his first career complete game, shutout and no-hitter...struck out 10 hitters, a career high, and walked four batters in what was his 12th big-league start, the earliest no-hitter in the career of an N.L. hurler since the Cubs' Burt Hooten recorded one 4/16/72 vs. PHI...named N.L. Player of the Week 4/4 - 4/10...for the season, enjoyed career highs with nine wins and 111 strikeouts...went 6-3 in 11 starts after Memorial Day with a 2.91 ERA (24 ER/74.1 IP) and .204 opponents' batting average (55-269)...recorded his second career base hit, 6/7 vs SD...saw his streak of scoreless first innings end at 19 consecutive starts when the Reds plated a run in the opening frame 8/7; streak was intact since 8/21/93.

1995 – Made 26 starts and three relief appearances for Atlanta's first World Series championship club...Braves won 16 of his starts...had a 3.09 ERA in 12 road games...held lefthanded batters to .213 batting average (16-75)...took part in a combined shutout, 5/15 vs. COL, throwing a four-hitter over eight innings and driving in a run in a 4-0 victory...equaled a personal best with 10 strikeouts, in 6.2 innings, 6/1 vs. LA...posted a 2.17 ERA (7 ER/29 IP) in July and hurled seven shutout innings in two of five starts...pitched two-hit ball over seven innings while surrendering two runs, one earned, in a 6-2 win 8/23 at HOU...collected a career-high three RBIs 8/29 vs. HOU; his season total of five RBIs also were a career best...worked his 500th career inning that same game...made one appearance in the N.L. Division Series...saw no action in Braves' four-game NLCS sweep of Reds...went two innings in relief, allowing a run on two hits, in Game Three of World Series 10/24 at CLE.

1996 – Opened the season in the Orioles' starting rotation after arriving from Atlanta via trade the previous December...endured a bout with influenza during spring training...subsequent loss of arm strength caused problems early, as lefty dropped six of eight decisions after winning his first outing, 2-1, 4/5 at MIN...traded to Cleveland for Eddie Murray on 7/25 and optioned to Class-AAA Buffalo...made three starts there, with a 3.94 ERA, then recalled 8/6...summoned from Tribe pen 10 times, yielding four runs on five hits in 11.2 IP...worked six consecutive scoreless games, 9.1 innings, 8/19 - 9/18...lone decision with Cleveland was a victory, 9/28 at KC.

1997 – Pitched a career-high 144.2 innings in his only season with Cincinnati...delivered four scoreless innings in three relief spots to open the season before moving into the Reds' starting rotation for good...drew a pinch-walk 4/25 vs. PHI to become the first Cincinnati pitcher in 19 years to reach base in a pinch-hitting role...tallied a career-high five consecutive wins (over seven starts) 5/28 - 6/30; recorded a 1.71 ERA over that span...honored as the National League Pitcher of the Month in June, when he went 4-0 with a 1.96 ERA...tossed a season-best 16 straight scoreless innings over three starts 6/9-20...fired eight innings of four-hit, shutout ball in a 5-1 win 6/14 vs. CWS...notched his 500th career strikeout 7/5 at HOU...carried a 6-6 record and 3.19 ERA into the All-Star break...hit his first career triple 8/6 vs. SD...came out of his 8/16 start at LA after 39 pitches over two innings; was diagnosed with inflammation in his lower back and disabled, 8/17 - 9/1...lost his only two decisions over his final three starts.

MISC: Graduated in 1986 from Dublin High School in Ohio, where he was Central Ohio Player of the Year three times...resides in Dublin with his wife, Julie, (11/10/91) and their two daughters, Madison Diane and Sophia.

MIKE MOHLER

32 MICHAEL ROSS MOHLER

Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Bats: Right
Wt: 208 Throws: Left

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on July 26)
Born: 7/26/68 at Dayton, Ohio

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, January 15, 1999.

M.L. SERVICE: 4.074

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 1999.

1998 SEASON:

- Worked short relief most of the season, tossing more than 2.0 innings just twice in his first 49 outings.
- Did not allow a run in nine of his 12 appearances in April, posting a 2.92 ERA for the month.
- Finished the season on a high note, allowing just two earned runs in 10.1 innings (1.74 ERA) in September.
- Picked up first win of the year on 6/5 vs. ARI with a scoreless 11th inning.
- Moved onto Oakland's top-10 list in games pitched on 6/5 and finished the season in the eighth spot (262).
- Posted a 2.70 ERA (5 ER, 16.2 IP) over his final eight outings.
- Pitched 4.0 innings on 8/31 at CLE, the longest relief stint of his career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1989 – Signed by former A's scout Bill Gayton in mid-August after the June draft...did not pitch for the Athletics until the next year at Madison (A).

1990 – Pitched his first year of pro baseball at Madison of the Midwest League...worked in long relief for the Muskies...allowed just 56 hits and struck out 72 in 63.1 innings (10.23 SO/9 IP).

1991 – Split the year between Modesto (A) and Huntsville (AA)...was converted to a starting pitcher at Modesto and went 9-4 with a 2.86 ERA, the sixth lowest ERA in the league...earned a late-July promotion to Huntsville and went 4-2 with a 3.57 ERA in eight starts for the Stars.

1992 – Returned to the bullpen for most of Huntsville's season...was in the Stars' starting rotation to start the year but 38 of his final 39 appearances were in relief...did his best pitching in June and July, when he allowed only two earned runs and 12 hits over 23.1 innings.

1993 – Made the jump from Double-A Huntsville to the majors...pitched both out of the A's bullpen and in the starting rotation until a late-season shoulder injury ended his rookie campaign and eventually led to surgery (performed by Dr. Rick Bost)...made his M.L. debut 4/7 vs. DET...made his first major league start 7/3 vs. NYY after 27 relief appearances, but wound up with a no-decision...recorded his first M.L. win in relief on 7/15 at NYY...final five appearances of the season were as a starter...was especially effective against lefthanders, holding them to a .183 mark (13-for-71) with no home runs.

1994 – Spent the year rehabbing his surgically repaired shoulder and made just one appearance for Oakland...opened the season on Tacoma's (AAA) disabled list...was sent to Modesto on 5/24 to begin pitching and in seven games (five starts), he was 1-1 with a 2.76 ERA...recalled to the majors on 7/22...started and lost that night vs. BAL...returned to Tacoma the next day and finished up the season in the Triple-A rotation.

1995 – Started the season at Edmonton (AAA)...was recalled on 7/22 and finished the year in Oakland, making 28 relief appearances...recorded his first major league save on 8/16 at KC by escaping a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the ninth...yielded just two runs on nine hits over his last 18 outings (15.2 IP) and allowed only two of 16 inherited runners to score...did not allow a home run in 23.2 innings pitched in Oakland and 45.0 innings at Edmonton.

1996 – Was the A's closer early in the season, saving each of his first six opportunities through 6/16...had just one save in seven chances over his final 42 games...appeared in a career-high 72 games, which tied for the team lead...also had career highs in wins (6), which tied for sixth among A.L. relievers, and saves (7)...retired 27 consecutive hitters from 4/15 to 4/28.

1997 – Converted to a starter to begin the season but went 0-7 with a 6.83 ERA in his 10 starts and returned to the bullpen by the end of May...fared better once he rejoined the relief corps, going 1-3 with a save and a 3.21 ERA (17 ER/47.2 IP) in his 52 appearances...tossed a career-high 101.2 innings and struck out a career-high 66...fanned nine batters in a 7-1 loss on 4/27 vs. KC...went into the All-Star Break with 0-8 record and 6.68 ERA...his eight-game losing streak was the longest by an Oakland pitcher since Rick Langford in 1986...improved his numbers significantly in the second half as he went 1-2 with a save and a 1.91 ERA...ended his losing streak with a victory on 7/15 vs. SEA, which started a scoreless streak of 11.0 innings through 8/9...recorded his only save on 8/13 at BAL...made his 200th career appearance on 9/13 vs. DET.

MISC: Graduated in 1986 from East Ascension High School (in Louisiana), where he was a two-time all-state selection...prior to being drafted by the A's in the June 1989 draft, he was an accounting major at Nicholls State in Thibodaux, La....hobbies include golf and music...Mike and his wife, Paula (1/15/93), reside in Gonzales, La., with their son, Landon.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1990 – Was drafted by the Cardinals in the 1st round (13th player overall) of the June, free-agent draft...was assigned to Hamilton, Ont. (A) on July 8 after signing contract...appeared in four games at Hamilton and was 0-2 with a 3.60 ERA...struck out 14 batters in 20 IP for the Redbirds...was promoted to Savannah (A) on July 31...gained his first professional win on 8/25, allowing one unearned run in 7 IP...was winning pitcher in Game #2 of SAL playoff game vs Columbia, SC, when he pitched 7 innings of 2-hit ball, while striking out 7...was 3-0 with a 1.04 ERA in eight games during the Cards' Winter Instructional League season.

1991 – Second-year pro posted a 8-12 mark with a 3.63 ERA at Arkansas (AA)...finished 7th in the Texas League in ERA, second in innings pitched (166) and fourth in strikeouts (130)...was 3-1 with a 1.93 ERA in July...hurled consecutive 3-hitters on 7/17 and 7/24, while recording 18 strikeouts...had a 3:1 (130 SO/43 BB) strikeouts-to-walks ratio and in two seasons has struck out 172, while walking just 55.

1992 – Rookie lefthander wasn't even supposed to be in the Cards' plans for '92, but injury to Bryn Smith in the first week expedited his call-up from Arkansas (AA)...faired well in big league initiation, finishing second on the club with his 11 wins...made his ML debut on 4/9 vs Mets, but had to be removed from the game after two innings when his sprained left ankle, suffered while fielding a hit on the first play of the game, began to tighten...allowed just one run in 7 IP of 4/14 start at MTL to earn his first win in the majors, 3-1...hurled 7 scoreless innings on 4/23 at NY, but had ND in extra-inning loss...combined with Lee Smith for 4-hit shutout of the Padres on 5/2 at SD...was 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA after his first five starts...struck out a season-high 10 batters on 5/7 vs SF, but lost 2-0 decision in head-to-head meeting with the Giants and Bill Swift...retired 24 straight batters in 5/29 start vs SD, but had no-decision after leaving the game with 1-0 lead after 8.2 IP...won two games on Cards' west coast trip in July, including 6-3 win over the Padres on 7/7 and 1-0 win vs Giants on 7/2 at SF...put together a 15-inning scoreless streak, 6/27-7/7...was 7-5 with a 3.19 ERA at the All-Star break...was moved to the bullpen in late July when he fell into a brief slump...made five relief appearances between July 28 and August 18...was 1-1 with a 3.60 ERA (10 IP/4 ER) out of the bullpen...worked four innings, allowing one run, in 8/9 relief outing vs the Pirates, his last relief appearance prior to returning to the starting rotation on 8/16...was 3-3 with a 3.78 ERA (22 ER/52.1 IP) in 9 starts after returning to the starting rotation...won his 10th decision of the year in his 9/1 start vs the Padres...allowed just six hits in seven shutout innings of Cards' 2-0 win...walked just 38 batters in 179 IP (1.9 BB/9 IP), making him one of three Cards' pitchers to finish in the top-10 among NL pitchers in fewest walks allowed per 9 IP...was 3-0 vs SF...posted a 0.50 ERA in three starts vs NY, but had no decisions vs the Mets...collected his first ML hit with single on 4/27 at LA...was named to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie team.

1993 – Did credible job following solid rookie season, however late-season injury hindered his progress...had no-decisions in four-straight starts from 4/14-4/28 and had ND in 9 of his 26 starts for the year...owned the lowest ERA (3.76) among STL starters & finished 3rd on the club in wins with 10...put together a 6-game winning streak from 6/14-7/19...the Cardinals were winners in 9 of Donovan's 10 starts from 5/28-7/19 & they were a combined 15-11 (.577) in his 26 starts for the year...allowed first inning 3-run homer to Matt Williams on 6/9 @ SF and was tagged with 3-1 loss...went the distance for his first career complete game...combined on 4-0 shutout vs the Braves on 7/19 at ATL to improve his record to 9-3...lost 1-0 decision on 8/3 when he & Cards fell to the Marlins and Charlie Hough, 1-0...had no-decision in 8/13 start at MTL (4-3 loss in 11 innings) and was 2-1 loser vs CHI on 8/8 as Cubs' Hibbard doubled in winning run with his first ML hit... walked 47 batters, nine more then he'd allowed the previous season...allowed an average of 11.6 baserunners (hits + walks)/9 IP...the Cards averaged 4.6 RPG in his 26 starts (119 runs)...of the 18 homers he allowed, only two were by LH batters...opposing LH batters hit a combined .205...was 7-3 with a 2.50 ERA at home...sat out the final month of the season after developing tendinitis in his left shoulder. Follow-up exams found that shoulder had become loose ... had surgery to repair his injured shoulder.

1994 – Missed the entire season after undergoing reconstructive surgery in December 1993 to tighten tendons and repair looseness in his injured left shoulder.

1995 – Made the long road back from shoulder surgery and was the club's top starter by season's end...after missing all of 1994 due to injury, made his first start since '93 on 4/29 at NY...was 0-1, 4.09 after his first four starts when it was discovered that his ailing left elbow needed rest...was DLed from 5/15 - 7/13 due to elbow soreness...began injury rehab on 6/28 & was a combined 0-2 with a 3.00 ERA in three injury rehab starts with Arkansas (AA) and Louisville (AAA)...fought to return to his form of '93, but was 0-5 with five no-decisions in his first 10 starts after returning from the DL... surrendered 3 HR's & 7 runs in 4 IP on 7/21 vs the Phillies in 7-0 loss...held the Dodgers to just one run on six hits in his 6 innings of work on 8/8...left the game with 3-1 lead, but took ND as LA rallied for a 4-3 win in their final two at-bats...allowed four runs in 3 IP on 8/19 vs ATL & had ND in Cards' 5-4 win...game was delayed by rain for 1 hr. 22 min., which cut short Donovan's work for the night...had no-decision in Cards' 6-5 win vs the Reds on 8/24...teammates staked him to early 5-0 lead, but he was victimized by two Ron Gant homers & left the game after allowing five runs in 5 IP...fell behind early on 9/3 vs COL, allowing four first-inning runs, but keyed Cards' 4-run fourth inning with his 2-run double ...took no-decision in Cards' 5-4 x-inning loss to the Rockies...won for the first time in 16 games dating back to 8/18/93 when he downed the Padres, 5-2, on 9/8...worked a season-high 8 IP & allowed just two runs (both on HR's) and four hits...won for the 2nd-straight start in Cards' 8-4 win over the Giants on 9/13 completing a 3-game series sweep over Frisco...won for the 3rd-straight start with a 4-2 win at PIT on 9/18...held the Bucs scoreless for the first six innings before allowing two runs (one earned) in the 7th...blanked the Astros for seven innings on 9/24, allowing just three hits, but had no-decision in Cards' 1-0 x-inning loss...equalled '95 club high for cons. wins (4) with his 3-2 win over PIT on 9/29 in his final start of the season...Donovan finished 4-0 with a 2.20 ERA (41 IP/10 ER) in his six starts during Sept, lowering his ERA for the year from 4.73 to 3.81...the Cards were 8-11 in his 18 starts, averaging 3.0 RPG...they were shutout in four of those starts...didn't allow a homer in his last four starts, however he did allow a team-high 17 HR's for the year...14 of the 17 round-trippers he dealt were to RH batters...finished with a team-leading 82 strikeouts, the club's lowest team-leading total since the strike-shortened season of 1981.

1996 – Lefthander finished the season with career highs for wins (13), innings pitched (198.2) and strikeouts (134), as he continued his rise to top spot among game's LHers...season got off to tough start as he suffered broken ribs in spring training automobile accident...made his first start for Cardinals on 4/17 vs PIT, a 6-1 win...went 3-1 in both May & June, improving his mark to 7-4...walked just 18 batters in his first 94.2 ip...longest win streak was three games (twice) & long losing streak was also three...led the team's starters with his 3.53 ERA, the Cards' lowest team-leading mark since 1992...his 13 wins were most by Cards lefty since 1989 (Magrane -18) ... averaged 6.2 ip in his starts, receiving 4.0 runs/game (120 runs)...the Cardinals posted a 17-13 mark in his games started...belted grand slam homer in 9/7 win over Padres, becoming 8th Cards pitcher to hit a grand slam homer & first since B.Forsch ('86)...hurled a combined shutout over Astros on 8/23...was a 1-0 loser to the Padres on 8/6, as the Cards were blanked for the third time in a game started by Donovan...fanned a season-high nine batters on 7/26 vs MTL...tossed his first career CG shutout in a 4-0 win over the Reds on 7/3 at Busch, allowing just four hits...won for the 4th time in five decisions, beating the Dodgers 6-3 on 6/11 at LA...the win gave Cards a split of 8-game west coast trip and it was one more win for Donovan than he had in all of 1995...battled the Padres for seven-plus ip, allowing just two runs on seven hits on 6/5 at SD...was in position to gain the win before Tony Gwynn launched a two-out, 3-run HR in the bottom of the 9th for a 6-4 Padres win...tossed a complete-game 5-3 win over the Astros in Houston on 5/22...batted .220 (13-59) for the year with 4 doubles & 10 RBIs...his 10 RBIs are most by a Cards' pitcher since Bob Forsch had 12 in 1986...was 10-6, 2.90 ERA (130.1 ip/42 er) at night...limited LH batters to a .216 BA (24-111; 4 HR's)...8 of his 13 wins came at Busch...made postseason debut 10/5 at SD in Game Three of Division Series, earning no decision in finale of Cards' three-game sweep...claimed first postseason victory, allowing two runs over seven innings in 3-2 decision 10/12 vs ATL in third game of N.L. Championship Series.

1997 - Pitched in just 14 games due to groin and hernia injuries that sidelined him for nearly four months...won one of his first six starts, a 6-2 decision vs. Colorado on 4/27, allowing just one run in seven innings; the victory would be his last until 8/8...allowed only two runs in seven innings at LA on 4/22 but did not receive a decision in the Cardinals' 6-4 win...left his 5/2 start at NY after two innings due to a strained groin; went on the 15-day disabled list the next day and would not be reactived until 7/29. Missed 77 games...lost his 7/29 start at HOU after being reactivated, although he allowed only four hits and two runs in five innings...won his first game since April on 8/8, limiting PHI to one run in seven innings in the Cards' 6-1 win at home...held the Expos hitless for six innings 8/26 at Busch but had to settle for a no-decision in the Cards' 7-5 loss...won for the first time in four starts on 8/31 at KC, beating the Royals, 5-4, in the rubber game of the I-70 Series rematch. Allowed three runs (including two homers) in six innings...made his final start of the season 9/5 at COL. Missed the remainder of the schedule due to discomfort caused by a hernia...at Busch, held opposing batters to a .214 average. On the road, was 1-6 and surrendered nine of the 10 homers he allowed in 1997.

MISC: Graduated from Carson City (NV) H.S. in 1987...played football, basketball and baseball in high school...was drafted by Montreal in the 9th round of the 1987 draft, but did not sign...attended UNLV from 1987-90, and set Big West Conference career victory record...was named preseason All-American and Big West Conference player-of-the-week during his junior year...broke the UNLV school record for strikeouts during his freshman season...was named among top 10 prospects in the Texas League by Baseball America...enjoys playing golf and snow skiing...he has a son, Davis (11-10-94)...signed a three-year contract with an option for the year 2000 in February, 1997...donates $50,000 annually to Cardinals Care Community Fund.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2000 with a club option for 2001.

1998 SEASON:

- Appeared in a career-high 65 games and led the team with 21 "holds," a total that tied for third in the National League.
- Recorded a career-best 3.99 ERA and tied a personal best with four wins.
- Allowed only 19 percent of inherited runners to score, the fourth-best percentage among N.L. relievers.
- Was a perfect 4-0 in decisions, 1-for-1 batting and errorless in 18 fielding chances, giving him a 1.000 average in all three categories.
- Notched a 1.42 ERA in September and a 2.16 mark in May.
- Held lefties to a .205 batting average (second-best among Cards relievers) and had a 3.09 ERA in opponents' home parks (third among the team's relievers).
- Received credit for his first win of '98 on 5/23 vs. SF. Allowed two runs in two innings but preserved an 11-10 victory.
- Gained his first save as a Cardinal, and the second save of his career, on 7/31 at ATL, striking out the final two batters with the bases loaded in the ninth.
- Pitched 2.1 scoreless innings on 8/12 vs. NY.
- Earned his fourth win on 8/15 vs. PIT, recording the last out in the 12th inning.
- Pitched a scoreless inning both 8/29 and 8/30 vs. ATL.
- Struck out the side in a perfect eighth inning at FLA on 9/1.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1990 – Held Northwest League batters to .174 average pitching for Class A Spokane in first pro season...appeared 23 times, 22 in relief, going 7-3 with 1.51 ERA and averaged 13.06 strikeouts per nine innings (104 K/71.2 IP).

1991 – Tried as a starter (all 28 outings), led all of Class A with four shutouts for Waterloo of the Midwest League...finished as league runner-up with seven complete games, 200 innings and 201 strikeouts, and placed fourth with his 14 wins...named team MVP and earned spot on Midwest League All-Star team.

1992 – Won five of first seven starts en route to 10-5 record for Class AA Wichita...his .667 winning percentage led Texas League and he tied for league lead with 27 starts...struck out season-high 11 batsmen 7/30 at Arkansas...having thrown a shutout in his only complete game during the season, tossed another in Texas League postseason series vs Shreveport.

1993 – Promoted to Class AAA Colorado Springs after strong outing in Rockies' first major-league spring camp...made big-league debut 5/19 at SD and garnered first hit but former organization beat him 7-3...made two more starts before being optioned back to Colorado Springs 6/2...went 9-7 and shared Pacific Coast League lead with four complete games...landed berth on N.L. team that played in Class AAA All-Star Game at Albuquerque...recalled 8/27, assuming uniform number 28 after wearing 47 during first stint, the change necessitated by the arrival of Bruce Hurst...it seemed to change his luck, because he won his first two starts...claimed first major-league victory 8/29 at NY, allowing just five hits in complete-game 6-1 decision and driving in a run...went seven innings, tripled and scored twice in next start, 10-4 win 9/4 vs PIT...furthered his cause at bat in final start, a no-decision 9/9 at PIT, recording two sacrifice bunts...hit .300 (3-10) with three sac bunts and a walk...entered in relief for first time in majors 9/18 vs LA, as he would in three remaining appearances thereafter.

1994 – Started again at Colorado Springs, but spent enough time in two big-league stints to earn four wins and Rockies' Rookie-of-the-Year award from Colorado BBWAA chapter...won back-to-back starts 6/17 at LA and 6/22 vs HOU...held Astros to two runs over eight innings while scoring a pair himself, driving in another with a sac fly and doubling along the way...posted career-high six strikeouts over six innings in 7/8 loss at FLA...surrendered three runs over seven innings in 15-4 victory 7/16 vs STL...made only relief appearance of season 8/4 at HOU, three days after getting fourth and final win of '94 on same field.

1995 – Opened season on disabled list after spraining ankle early in abbreviated spring training but would win three decisions in a late-season stint that proved crucial to Rockies' march to wild-card berth...having been moved full-time to bullpen, made first opening-day roster, but had only two relief appearances before expanded team lists were cut and was optioned to Colorado Springs...recalled 6/5, but sent back south again after three outings...summoned to Denver once more 7/12, for keeps...would finish season 28-for-33 in first batters retired and permitting only six of 27 inherited runners to score (including two of last 16)...two-run homer by Ryan Thompson 7/14 at NY represented only earned runs scored against Lance in first 15 games back...struck out season-high five that night in four innings, longest relief outing of season...ER-free streak was extended 16.2 innings over 13-plus appearances, 7/14 - 8/11 (allowed unearned run, 7/22 vs NY), before being snapped 8/12 at ATL...opponents hit .158 (9-57) during this span...streak reached zenith 7/25 at PHI, when he set down all 10 Phillies to bat against him, four on strikes...gave six bases on balls in 39.1 innings after final recall, and none in 14 straight games (19.2 IP) 7/25 - 8/27...earned first major-league save 8/16 at CIN by entering to record final out of 6-4 win, and first pro save since 1990 with Spokane...in only start of season, 9/12 vs ATL, allowed only two runs in five innings to put Rockies 10 games over .500...retired only batter faced in season finale, 10/1 vs SF, giving teammates chance to pull out 10-9 win and again go 10 over .500 - and into postseason...opened postseason career as pinch-hitter in Game One of N.L. Division Series, 10/3 vs ATL...started Game Two, one night later, giving three runs over five innings and finishing with no decision in Braves' 7-4 win.

1996 – Spent full season in majors for first time, but was available for just two-thirds of it...like year before, made just one start, incurring loss 4/7 at MON though tying career high with six strikeouts...recorded 100th career strikeout 4/10 vs CHI...allowed one earned run over 3.2 innings 4/24 vs PHI, but that did not happen before Lance tied game with two-run single that completed comeback from 6-1 deficit he inherited...went on to win career-best four straight decisions over 15 appearances, 4/27 - 6/14...included was a string of eight consecutive scoreless outings 4/30 - 6/1 (6.2 IP)...provided own display 7/4 at LA with four innings of one-hit, shutout pitching while striking out four against one walk...after walking only batter faced 8/4 at CHI, went on DL next day...arthroscopic surgery 9/13 revealed and repaired labrum tear in left shoulder.

1997 – Limited to 14 appearances due to a right hamstring injury that forced him to the disabled list from 4/5-5/13 and 5/20-9/1...picked up his only victory in the season finale vs. CHI on 9/28, working the final 1.2 innings in a 2-1 win...pitching at Busch, he allowed only one hit in 7.1 shutout innings...of the 14 first-batters he faced, only three reached base.

1988 – Hurled for Tidewater's International League finalists...led Class AAA with 1.80 ERA...topped IL with .750 winning percentage and was second with 12 wins, a career high, and 143 strikeouts...had three double-digit strikeout games and a career-high seven complete games...was starting pitcher in Class AAA All-Star Game at Buffalo...named to Baseball America's Class AAA post-season All-Star team...made major-league debut 9/24 at Busch Stadium, starting and winning, allowing a run on five hits over five innings while going two-for-two at plate (single vs McWilliams, double vs Quisenberry)...appeared another time, in relief, 9/28 at PHI.

1989 – Opened season at Tidewater...was IL Pitcher of the Week 4/23 - 29...raised minor-league career strikeout tally to 958, fourth most of the 1980s, in 908.1 innings (9.49 K/9IP)...recalled 6/9 and immediately delivered five consecutive scoreless appearances, 10.1 innings, 6/10 - 6/26...traded to MIN 7/31 as one of five for one (Frank Viola)...made AL debut, in relief, 8/2 at NYY...collected first junior-circuit victory, in rain-shortened game 8/26 vs Seattle, working 7 2/3 innings of what would be combined four-hit shutout.

1990 – Saw first full season in majors...tossed a three-hitter in first major-league complete game 5/2 at DET...struck out career-high nine over 7.1 innings 6/23 vs KC...capped stretch of five starts, dating back to 6/2, during which he fanned 29 in 29.2 innings...held opponents to .218 batting average (26-119) over last six starts 8/10 - 9/4...went on disabled list 9/7 with pulled left hamstring and missed rest of season...was playoff MVP for Santurce of Puerto Rican Winter League.

1991 – Contributed to World Championship squad after first half of season virtually wiped out by two injuries...disabled 4/12, retroactive to 4/7, after experiencing tenderness in left elbow...in first inning of rehab with Class AA Orlando of the Southern League, 5/14, incurred strained right abdominal muscle...went to Portland for another rehab stint 6/14, making four Pacific Coast League starts, splitting a pair of decisions and striking out 15 in 15.2 innings...activated 7/2...went 4-4 in 12 starts while allowing just a run and two hits over seven innings in three relief appearances...in first effort, 7/4 at TOR, fashioned two-hitter over seven innings, then turned it over to bullpen, who finished off his 1-0 win...opposing hitters went four-for-29 (.138) in his three September appearances...had two solid road outings during A.L. Championship Series vs TOR...held East champs to a hit over 2.2 innings in Game Three and fired three hitless frames in Game Five...also summoned from bullpen twice in World Series vs. ATL.

1992 – Spent bulk of season in PCL...finished second among league starters with 7.69 K/9IP and .237 opponents' batting average...tossed first six innings of combined no-hitter 6/7 vs. Vancouver...worked only complete game of season 6/28 vs Colorado Springs...was 3-1, 1.58 ERA in six June starts...whiffed season-high 10 on both 6/2 and 7/25 vs. Calgary...recorded 33 strikeouts in last four starts...went 5-1 with 1.72 ERA and .142 opponents' BA in final eight starts, lifting record to 7-6 for playoff-bound ballclub, before 7/31 recall...pitched five scoreless innings out of bullpen for lone victory 8/14 at SEA...dealt to Phillies 12/5.

1993 – In his first five seasons, made 76 appearances, 26 in relief...in his sixth season, made 76 appearances, 76 in relief...finished tied for second in NL in, and broke club's eight-year-old southpaw record for, games pitched...led NL East champs' bullpen with six wins, 86.1 innings, and 87 strikeouts...surrendered .194 batting average for season...posted 13.1-inning scoreless streak 4/14-5/14...earned first professional save 4/18 at CHI...contributed significantly to second career save, 5/23 vs MTL, with bat, delivering two-run double in ninth inning, first big-league RBI, in between four-up, four-down outing on mound...went 2-0 with 0.87 ERA (2 ER/20.2 IP) in July...held opponents to .170 batting average (27-159) from 7/1 through end of season, going 5-2 with 2.51 ERA (13 ER/46.2 IP) and 5.21 H/9IP...surrendered one home run, in 35 innings, over final 37 outings from 7/18...made three appearances apiece in NLCS vs ATL and World Series vs TOR.

1994 – Began season as reliever but was moved into rotation in late May...made 17 appearances out of bullpen before first Phillie start 5/24, which like his major-league debut, was at Busch Stadium...threw four innings of two-hit ball before teammates picked it up from there in 4-0 win...in next start 5/29 vs HOU, hurled six no-hit innings in what would eventually be 4-2 victory, first winning start since 8/28/91 at CLE...worked 10 consecutive scoreless innings over those two starts...though incurring 4-2 loss, 6/3 at HOU, tallied season-high eight strikeouts in five innings...allowed three hits over seven innings, 6/8 vs CHI, before two relievers wrapped up 3-0 win...allowed three safeties over eight innings in 3-0 triumph, 7/1 at LA, last of three combined shutouts he started and one of two eight-inning efforts he had on season...in 14 starts, registered 3.20 ERA (28 ER/79.2 IP) and .187 opponents' batting average (53-284)...finished with team bests of .205 opps.' BA overall and .156 BA vs lefties.

1995 – Opened season as starter, and remained so for season, yet just eight outings...worked five innings each of first two starts...winning 4/27 at STL and striking out season-high seven 5/3 at CIN...left after two innings, 5/8 at ATL, unable to generate arm speed...shut down after 1.1 innings, 5/13 at HOU, with a tired arm...disabled 5/24 (retro to 5/14) diagnosed with tendinitis...had two rehab starts...with Class AAA Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, tossed seven-inning two-hit shutout in first game of doubleheader, 6/5 vs Norfolk...allowed a run on two hits over six innings for Class AA Reading 6/10 vs Canton before 6/15 activation...went a season-high seven innings in 2-1 loss 6/16 vs FLA...hit first major-league homer, three-run shot off Steve Parris, 7/6 at PIT...placed on DL 7/7 with further problems from tendinitis, underwent surgery by Dr. Frank Jobe 7/21 to tighten up looseness in shoulder and clean up fraying around rotator cuff, but would not pitch for rest of season.

1996 – Opened season still recovering from shoulder surgery...sent to Class A Clearwater, 6/12, for rehab assignment...pitched one inning that night vs Lakeland before leaving with strained groin muscle...began another Florida State League stint 6/29 vs St. Lucie...would pitch three more times for Clearwater, in July, posting 2.89 ERA (6 ER/18.2 IP)...joined Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, 7/21, for a pair of starts before 8/3 activation...earned no decision as that afternoon's starter vs PIT in team's 7-6 win...left after an inning of start 8/25 at SD with strained left groin muscle...placed on DL next day...activated 9/12...capped off truncated season in solid fashion with six innings of one-run, two-hit pitching 9/25 vs MTL, striking out six and walking none in 3-1 win.

1997 – Pitched in Japan for the Fukuoka Daiei Hawks of the Pacific League, went 8-5 with 6.38 ERA in 19 appearances...finished third in wins among Americans behind Kip Gross (13) and Willie Frazier (10).

1986 - Played his first full major league season and led NL shortstops with 17 homers, the most by a Cubs shortstop since Ernie Banks hit 29 in 1961...drove in 68 runs, also the most by a Cubs shortstop since Banks' 80 in '61...had a career-high five hits on 4/19 against PIT...had a 14-game hitting streak, 5/20 to 6/3 (19-for-53, .358)...tied for third in the NL with 37 doubles...led all major league shortstops in putouts (320) and total chances (817)...led NL shortstops in assists (465).

1987 - Missed two months of the season after suffering a spiral fracture of his right ring finger on 6/15 vs. PHI...the injury occurred while he was sliding during a steal of second base...batted .246 with five homers in 95 big-league games...hit .421 in five rehab games at Iowa.

1988 - Earned his first trip to the All-Star Game...was the first Cubs shortstop on the NL All-Star team since Don Kessinger in 1974...was fourth among NL shortstops with a .973 fielding percentage...led league shortstops in putouts (257)...had surgery 10/3 to remove screws implanted in his right hand during the 1987 season.

1989 - Was selected to The Sporting News' NL All-Star team after batting .278 with 60 RBIs...struggled through the early part of the season...after 30 games and 96 at-bats, he had no homers and just two RBIs...batted .313 after 5/31...had eight hits in 12 at-bats against PHI, 8/10 to 8/12, with a double, a homer and 10 RBIs, including a career-high six RBIs on 8/12...had a 14-game hitting streak 9/9 to 9/26 (21-for-51, .412)...hit his first career grand slam 9/15 off Bob Patterson (PIT)...batted .316 (6-for-19) against SF in the NLCS.

1990 - Equaled his major league high with 17 homers while driving in 66 runs...combined with Ryne Sandberg to hit 57 homers, tying for the most ever for a big-league shortstop-second baseman duo...the other middle-infield combo to reach the 57-homer mark was Boston's Vern Stephens (39) and Bobby Doerr (18) in 1949 and Stephens (30) and Doerr (27) in 1950...went to the All-Star Game for the second time and made his first All-Star appearance in Wrigley Field, going 0-for-2...hit a grand slam off Don Carman (PHI) on 6/8...had three triples on 7/28 at MON, tying the modern major league record...had the third two-homer game of his career 8/17 vs. ATL...was a member of the M.L. All-Star team that toured Japan after the season.

1991 - Finished tied for third in the NL in sacrifice flies (11) and tied for ninth in triples (7)...had a 14-game hitting streak 8/14 to 8/28 (26-for-49, .531)...led league shortstops in putouts with 261.

1992 - Played in only 18 games due to a herniated disc in his lower back...injured his back during the off-season, necessitating a hospital stay in January...hit safely in 16 of his 18 games, including a 12-game stretch 4/19 to 5/3, in which he batted .347 (17-for-49)...the hitting streak was snapped 5/4 in his final game of the season...on 5/6, a myelogram and a CT Scan were performed, revealing the herniated disc...the disc was removed 5/13 by Dr. Michael Schafer, the Cubs' orthopedic surgeon.

1993 - Played just seven games and missed most of the campaign due to continued back rehabilitation...was activated from the disabled list on 9/1 and made his first M.L. appearance in almost two years the next night against NY, grounding out as a pinch-hitter...on 9/4 vs. NY, he had an eighth-inning, game-tying RBI double and scored the eventual winning run...started at shortstop on 9/10 at NY and went 2-for-3...it was his first start since 5/4/92 vs. ATL.

1994 - Appeared in 88 games after missing almost two full seasons due to back surgery...led off three games with homers, 6/19 at SF (off Salomon Torres), 6/29 at HOU (off Pete Harnisch) and 7/26 at PIT (off Zane Smith)...in the 6/19 contest, he later added a second homer...it was his fourth career two-homer game...played in his 1,000th big-league game 7/17 at CIN.

1995 - Posted one of his best major league seasons, batting .296 with 14 homers and 69 RBIs...nearly became the first Cubs shortstop to bat .300 since Ernie Banks (.304) in 1959...recorded his 1,000th career hit 6/4 off Florida's Mark Gardner...from 6/22 to 8/6, a span of 38 games, he batted .382 (55-for-144) with 16 doubles, five homers and 21 RBIs...served a two-game NL-imposed suspension 6/20 to 6/21 stemming from an incident with Colorado's Jason Bates on 6/11...charged the mound after getting hit by a Sergio Valdez pitch 8/13 at SF and was on the NL's suspended list 9/8 to 9/11.

1996 - Spent the entire season with the Giants, appearing in 82 games and batting .300 with five homers and 25 RBIs...in his Giants debut Opening Day (4/1) against ATL, he went 2-for-4 with a two-run homer off the Braves' Greg Maddux...opened the season with a 12-game hitting streak, going 16-for-38 over the stretch (.421)...on 4/22 against HOU, he committed four errors and participated in five double plays (the major league record for shortstops in both categories is five)...was on the disabled list 4/24 to 5/13 with a strained left groin...hit his 100th career home run 6/15 off Houston's Donne Wall...his season came to an end 8/4 when he collided with Houston's Ricky Gutierrez at second base...suffered a concussion, two fractures of the left eye orbit and a fractured left cheekbone...underwent surgery (Dr. Joann Stenger) on 8/9 in which three mini-plates were inserted into the eye orbit.

1997 - Began the season with Chicago after signing back with the Cubs in the off-season following a one-year, injury-shortened hiatus in SF...enjoyed one of his finest seasons in the majors, batting a combined .300 (147-for-490) with 22 doubles, five triples, 14 homers and 57 RBIs between CHI and PIT...his 147 hits and 32 steals (40 attempts) were career-bests...he hit .275 (33-for-120) with runners in scoring position, including 10 homers and 46 RBIs...batted .433 (13-for-30) against the AL Central...his ratio of one walk every 63.9 plate appearances was the lowest in the majors...he walked just once after 6/28 (72 games, 256 plate appearances), on 8/12 at LA...passed Ernie Banks on 4/5 at ATL, his 1,126th game at shortstop for the Cubs, moving into third place in club history for appearances by a shortstop (Don Kessinger - 1,618, Joe Tinker -1,500)...ended his Cub tenure with 1,228 games at shortstop...on the year with the Pirates and Cubs, he made 126 appearances (123 starts) at short and seven (5 starts) in left field...made his first career appearance in left field on 8/24 vs. MON, ending a stretch of 1,278 consecutive starts at short...hit his 100th homer as a Cub on 5/30 vs. CIN off Pete Schourek, becoming the 16th player and second shortstop (Ernie Banks - 277) in Cubs history to accomplish the feat...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/9 with a strained left hamstring, his sixth career stint on the DL...Collected his 500th RBI with a three-run homer off Darryl Kile and HOU on 7/15...was traded to PIT for a player to be named later just hours before the trading deadline on 8/31...equaled his career-high by hitting in 14 straight games from 8/28 to 9/14 (.407, 24-for-59)...the last 10 games of the streak came as a member of the Pirates...In his PIT debut on 9/2 vs. CLE he went 2-for-4 with a pair of home runs and four RBIs in the 6-4 PIT win...it was his fifth career two-homer game (both HRs off Jaret Wright).

MISC: Graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn, NY, in 1982, where he was a three-time baseball all-star and two-time MVP...during his senior season, he stole 37 bases in 37 tries and batted .790...he and his wife, Tracie, have four children, including three girls - Whitnie, Jasmine and I'sha - and one boy, Shawon Jr...resides in Fremont, Calif.

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed to a minor league free-agent contract, February 16, 1999.

M.L. SERVICE: 3.103

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 1999.

1998 SEASON:

- Hit .238 with four home runs and 30 RBIs in 84 games for CIN, including 36 starts at first base.
- Batted .345 with runners in scoring position.
- Ranked third on the Reds' squad with 35 pinch at-bats; had six pinch-RBIs.
- Batted .298 after the All-Star break. Hit safely in nine of his last 11 starts of the season.
- Tied his career high with four RBIs on 4/10 vs. COL.
- On 7/19 vs. SD hit a 444-foot homer off Sterling Hitchcock, the second-longest blast at Cinergy Field in 1998; became only the 24th player ever to reach the upper deck. He and his father, Tony, are the only father/son duo to homer into the upper deck in Cincinnati.
- Went 2-for-4 with two RBIs on 8/28, the night his father was inducted into the Reds' Hall of Fame. Suffered a hip flexor injury while rounding third base in that game and played just two more contests the remainder of the season.
- Ended the year with a three-game hitting streak in which he went 4-for-6 with three RBIs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1991 - Helped lead Class-A Boise to its first Northwest League championship...batted .288 with 22 RBIs in 46 games...led Boise in doubles (13) and stolen bases (12)...was rated by Baseball America as the sixth-best prospect in the NWL.

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Veteran 39-year-old right-hander Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth batted .625 for the Series and hit three home runs in one game, and Gehrig batted .545 with nine runs batted in. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were pitched by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge against the Athletics, defeating them four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis' order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had slid hard into Tigers third baseman Marv Owen in the sixth inning, so infuriating Detroit fans that they bombarded Medwick with fruit, vegetables and debris when he took his position in left field in the bottom of the inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games, lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski belted an RBI-triple in the second game and a two-run, ninth-inning homer to clinch the finale.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 by defeating the Redbirds in five games. The turning point of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on pinch-hitter George Stirnweiss' sacrifice bunt and jarred the ball loose from Kurowski's hand. After a fly out and an intentional walk, Billy Johnson's triple drove home three runs, igniting a five-run inning and a 6-2 Yankee victory. Manager Joe McCarthy's team won the next two games, 2-1 and 2-0, to win the title.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated as the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The two teams combined to strike out a six-game Series-record 92 batters, 49 by Cardinal pitchers and 43 by Browns hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's double to left-center, a sprint that surprised Red Sox relay man Johnny Pesky, whose moment's hesitation allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand slam to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who batted a Series-high .478, smashed a 10th-inning home run to win the fifth game; and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig combined for 9.2 scoreless innings of relief.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs.

1968 The Cardinals led three games to one, but the Detroit Tigers rallied to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship since 1945. Left-hander Mickey Lolich, who pitched all season in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds and set Series records by striking out 17 batters in Game One and 35 in the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964. Lou Brock batted .464 and stole seven bases.

1982 The Cardinals rallied from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while reliever Bruce Sutter posted a win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game, a rain-delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a Series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Catcher Darrell Porter was named the Series MVP on the strength of his clutch hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship Series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then winning four straight, including the decisive sixth game on Jack Clark's three-run, ninth-inning homer. In the World Series, they won the first two games at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games behind an offense that batted only .185 for the Series. John Tudor and Todd Worrell pitched the Cardinals to victory in Game One, and Terry Pendleton's ninth-inning, bases-loaded double sparked a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen's pitching, then lost Game Four to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1, in the fifth game, although Worrell tied a Series record by striking out six consecutive batters in two innings of relief. The pivotal moment of the Series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Six, with the Cardinals leading, 1-0. After Kansas City leadoff man Jorge Orta reached first on a disputed call by an umpire and Steve Balboni singled after his catchable pop-up fell safely in foul territory, former Cardinal pinch-hitter Dane Iorg stroked a one-out, two-run single for a 2-1 Royals victory. Game Seven was no contest, an 11-0 Royals victory.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit in games to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals lost their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Returning to Busch Stadium for Game Three, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night, utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for injured third baseman Terry Pendleton, led the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper was just the second for Lawless at the major league level. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game Five. Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases, and Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. In Game Six, the Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to an 11-5 victory. In the decisive seventh game, Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs and Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 sixth-inning tie with an infield single, giving Minnesota a 4-2 victory and its first-ever World Series title. The Series was the first in which the home team won each of the seven games.

CARDINALS HISTORICAL / SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis rejoined the N.L. as the Browns, later becoming the Perfectos.

1899 The team changed its name from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 The team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1922 Rogers Hornsby won the Triple Crown with 42 home runs, 152 RBI and a .401 batting average.

1924 Hornsby won the batting title with a .424 average, the highest mark in the National League since 1900.

1925 Hornsby won his second Triple Crown with 39 home runs, 143 RBI and a .403 average.

1937 Joe (Ducky) Medwick won the Triple Crown with 31 home runs, 154 RBI and a .374 batting average.

1940 First night games in St. Louis for the Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize hit a club-record 43 home runs.

1946 Home paid attendance topped 1 million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third N.L. Most Valuable Player award and led the league in nearly every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs batted in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 The Cardinals played their first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a May 2 double-header against the Giants at Busch Stadium.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record by extending his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22, when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung at and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch-hitting in the sixth inning, doubled against the Cubs at Wrigley Field on May 13 to collect his 3,000th career hit.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a bid for his eighth batting title by hitting .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood with the winning run. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single, and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. The Cardinals also hosted the All-Star Game.

1967 Home paid attendance topped 2 million for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for a 1.12 ERA, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards.

1969 On September 15 against the New York Mets, Steve Carlton struck out 19 batters, a major league record at the time. However, he lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. Carlton struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different frames.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second N.L. Cy Young Award. The Cardinals played their first season at Busch on AstroTurf, which replaced the original natural-grass field.

1971 Joe Torre won the N.L. batting title with a .363 average and was named league MVP. Gibson pitched his only career no-hitter, an 11-0 victory over the Pirates on August 14. Red Schoendienst established a longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Lou Brock became the first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extended his major league record for most seasons with 200 or more strikeouts to nine. He also set an N.L. career mark for righthanders with his 2,786th strikeout. Brock extended his record for most consecutive seasons of 50 or more stolen bases to eight. The Cardinals drew their 50 millionth fan since 1900.

1973 Brock stole his 600th base, moving into ninth place on the all-time list, and extended his major league record for most consecutive seasons with 50 or more steals to nine. Gibson moved into second place on the all-time strikeout list. Joe Torre collected his 2,000th hit and 1,000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' single-season mark and surpasses Max Carey's N.L. career record. Brock moves from ninth to second on the all-time career stolen base list. Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000 fans, the third-highest home attendance in their history. The Redbirds and Mets play a 25-inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride is named the N.L. Rookie Of The Year.

1975 Brock gets career hit No. 2,500 and stolen base No. 800. Gibson retires after a 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by a standing-room crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day attracts 50,548 fans, the largest regular-season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in the league batting race with a .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins the National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on managing, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith, who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post-season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries. The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row...Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record. The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to steal 100 bases twice; rookie left-hander Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight Gold Glove and Todd Worrell was named N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor...Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids created by injuries. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9 games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1 games as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win a New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 After acquiring Tom Brunansky from Minnesota in April, the defending N.L. champions climbed within six games of first on June 12, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense. By the end of July, the Cardinals were 19 games out of first. Newcomer Jose DeLeon became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark, despite winning just five games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season, and Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the fourth consecutive year. Jose Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season. Trades that brought Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departing players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. Despite finishing fifth, the club drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch.

1989 Although the outlook was bleak when injuries crippled the pitching staff in spring training, the Cardinals remained in the race until the final week of the season. The Redbirds pulled within a half-game of the division-leading Chicago Cubs with a dramatic come-from-behind win on Sept. 9, but a six-game losing streak followed and the Cards sunk to third place on the final day of the season. Pedro Guerrero was spectacular in the clutch, batting .406 with runners in scoring position and leading the club with 117 RBI and a .311 batting average. Vince Coleman again led the league in stolen bases and set a major league record by stealing 50 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak begun in 1988. Despite the early concern over the pitching staff, Joe Magrane (18 wins) and Jose DeLeon (16) spearheaded the patched-up starting unit. The Cardinals set a club attendance record, attracting 3,080,980 fans during a season that ended on a sad note when long-time club president August A. Busch Jr. died at age 90.

1990 Considered by many to be a contender following the spring training "lockout," the Cardinals never lived up to expectations and finished in last place for the first time since 1918. On July 5, Manager Whitey Herzog resigned after more than 10 years as the Cards' skipper. Interim manager Red Schoendienst took over until Aug. 2, when Joe Torre was named manager. Willie McGee won the league batting title (.335), despite being traded to Oakland in late August as the team made room for younger players. One of those was rookie catcher Todd Zeile, who led the team with 15 homers. John Tudor returned to the club and posted a team-high 12 wins but announced his retirement following the season. Vince Coleman led the league in steals for the sixth straight year, tying Maury Wills' N.L. record, and batted a career-high .292. Starting pitchers Jose DeLeon (a league-high 19 losses) and Joe Magrane (17 losses) were disappointments. Reliever Lee Smith was a steady closer following his acquisition in May, saving 27 games. Jose Oquendo set a major league record for fewest errors by a second baseman (three).

1991 Coming off a last-place finish, the Cardinals were one of baseball's biggest surprises in 1991, moving up to second place in the N.L. East. Manager Joe Torre, in his first full season at the Cardinals' helm, opened the year with several unproven players at key positions. Among the young standouts were outfielders Ray Lankford and Felix Jose. Lankford led the majors with 15 triples and had a team-high 44 steals. Nine Cardinals stole 10 or more bases, the first time since 1917 that a team had done so. Former Athletic Jose, playing his first full season in the National League, led the Cardinals in batting (.305) and plugged Busch Stadium's spacious gaps with 40 doubles. Sophomore Todd Zeile made a fine transition from catcher to third base, leading the club with 11 homers and 81 RBI. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi, seeing his first full-time duty, earned a Gold Glove award. The season also was a good one for Cardinals named Smith. Lee Smith set an N.L. record with 47 saves and became only the fifth pitcher to record 300 career saves. Ozzie Smith set an N.L. record for fewest errors by a shortstop (eight) en route to winning his 12th Gold Glove. Bryn Smith's 12 wins paced the pitching staff, which was without Joe Magrane, Frank DiPino and Todd Worrell due to injuries. Young starters Ken Hill (11 wins) and Omar Olivares (11 wins), and reliever Cris Carpenter (10 wins) helped fill the void.

1992 Though injuries took a toll in the Cardinals' centennial season, the team actually led the N.L. East by one game on June 1, despite losing three players in the first week of the season. Injuries or illnesses continued to mount, however, as the team lost shortstop Ozzie Smith to chicken pox for two weeks in late June and Omar Olivares and Rheal Cormier from the starting rotation. At second base, seven players were used. Ray Lankford, moved from first to third in the order, became the first Cardinal since Lou Brock in 1967 to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases. Ozzie Smith tied Felix Jose for the club lead in batting (.295) and stole a team-high 43 bases. The "Wizard" also collected his 2,000th career hit and 500th stolen base, besides earning his 12th All-Star Game berth and 13th Gold Glove. Bob Tewksbury emerged as the No. 1 starter, winning 16 games and ranking second in the majors with a 2.16 ERA. He joined Smith on the N.L. All-Star squad, as did catcher Tom Pagnozzi, who tied a league mark with a .999 fielding average, and reliever Lee Smith, who led the league in saves (43) for the second straight season. Smith received help in the bullpen from Todd Worrell, who, after missing the last two seasons to injury, moved into the top spot on the Cards' all-time saves list. The team's major league record 16-game errorless streak in August helped establish a club record for fielding (.985). On the down side, the Redbirds set records for most strikeouts and caught stealing in a season. Moving the fences in proved beneficial. The Cards set a Busch Stadium season high while out-homering opponents, 55-52.

1993 Helped by a 20-7 mark in June (a club record for the month) and a potent offense, the Cardinals closed to within three games of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies in mid-July, only to fall 10 games back by the end of August. Midseason injuries to relievers Mike Perez, Les Lancaster and Paul Kilgus put the pitching staff on the skids. Offensively, several players enjoyed banner seasons, reflected by the team's 118 home runs, the most in 30 years. Newcomer Gregg Jefferies finished third in the N.L. batting race at .342 and swiped 46 bases, the most ever by a Cardinal first baseman. Mark Whiten cracked a team-high 25 home runs, including four in the second game of a September 7 double-header at Cincinnati, thus becoming only the 12th player to accomplish the feat. His 12 RBI in the game tied former Cardinal Jim Bottomley's major league record. For the season, Whiten finished with 99 RBI. Todd Zeile drove in 60 after the All-Star break, finishing with a team-high 103 RBI as he settled into the cleanup spot. Bernard Gilkey enjoyed a breakthrough season, leading the club in hits, extra-base hits and runs scored. Ozzie Smith recorded his 16th-straight 20-steal season and passed Larry Bowa to become the all-time N.L. leader in games played at shortstop. Gerald Perry tied a club record with 24 pinch-hits. Though the pitching was largely inconsistent, Bob Tewksbury led the staff with a career-best 17 wins and walked only 20 batters for the second straight season. Cuban rookie Rene Arocha ranked second on the staff with 11 wins, despite missing nearly a month with a broken finger. Reliever Lee Smith became the majors' career saves leader in April and set a club record for career saves (160) before being traded to the New York Yankees in late August. The Cards slipped defensively, committing 159 errors and failing to place a member on the Rawlings' Gold Glove team for the first time since 1977.

1994 The season started with a bang when Ray Lankford homered in the first at-bat of the schedule, but a players' strike in mid-August forced the cancellation of the remainder of the season and the World Series, ending the year in tragic fashion. When play was suspended on August 12, the Redbirds were 53-61 and tied with Pittsburgh for third place in the newly formed N.L. Central Division. The club's 5.14 ERA was its worst since 1897, and the opposition outscored the Cards by nearly 100 runs. A seven-game winning streak by Bob Tewksbury and a consecutive-game homer streak of 12 games highlighted the early portion of the schedule, helping the club stay within five games of first place through July 2. The Cardinals were involved in 14 shutouts and, despite inconsistent pitching, won seven of them. They tied an N.L. record by using six pitchers in a shutout (2-0) win at Pittsburgh on May 17. On May 24 against Philadelphia, they established a record for most runners left on base (16) in a shutout loss. The Cardinals blasted 108 home runs, exceeding the 100-homer plateau for just the second time since 1980, and were on pace to hit their most round-trippers since 1963. They hit a Busch Stadium-record five home runs in a July 1 win vs. Colorado. An 8-20 record in July included two of the team's lowest moments: On July 16 at Colorado, Cardinal pitchers walked a team-record 16 batters, one short of the N.L. record, and on July 18, the team tied an N.L. mark by losing an 11-run lead in its 15-12 loss at Houston. Ozzie Smith passed Luis Aparicio on July 14 to become baseball's all-time assist leader at shortstop. On September 1, Mark Lamping was appointed president, replacing the retiring Stuart Meyer. Lamping named Walt Jocketty general manager in October, replacing Dal Maxvill, who had held the title since 1985. Hall of Famers Bob Gibson and Lou Brock were named to manager Joe Torre's coaching staff for 1995.

1995 The season was disappointing in most respects, with the Cardinals posting a 62-81 mark and their worst winning percentage (.434) since 1990. The schedule was reduced to 144 games due to the players' strike that continued into the first week of April. Once play began on April 26, the Cardinals never challenged for the NL Central lead. On June 16, Manager Joe Torre was fired and replaced by Mike Jorgensen. Although the team languished near the Central Division basement, there were a number of individual highlights. Reliever Tom Henke saved 36 of 38 opportunities, including a team-record 22 straight to begin the season, and won his first Rolaids Relief title. He also notched his 300th career save, becoming the seventh pitcher to reach that plateau. Henke headlined a bullpen that led the NL with a 2.71 ERA and a .225 opponents' batting mark. Rich DeLucia topped the team with eight wins (the lowest-ever total to lead the club), all in relief. While starters Danny Jackson and Ken Hill failed to fulfill expectations, Mike Morgan, who was acquired in a June trade for Todd Zeile, gave the Busch Stadium crowd a night to remember on July 3 when he held Montreal hitless for 8.1 innings. On offense, the Cardinals' outfield trio of Bernard Gilkey (a team-high .298 BA), Ray Lankford (25 HRs, 82 RBIs) and Brian Jordan (22 HRs, 81 RBIs) led the way. Lankford's team-high 25 homers were the most ever by a Cards center fielder, and he tied Jordan for the team lead with 24 steals, thus becoming only the fifth Cardinal and the first since 1948 to lead the team in both home runs and steals. Jordan and Lankford also formed the Redbirds' first 20-homer tandem since 1980. First baseman/outfielder John Mabry (.307) narrowly missed qualifying for the NL Top 10 in batting, but his average topped all NL rookies and earned him a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team. Ozzie Smith, who was slowed by a shoulder injury, added to his collection of fielding records on Sept. 15 when he turned his 1,554th double play, an all-time high among shortstops. He also became the first big-league shortstop since 1950 to play at the age of 40 and the first Cardinal shortstop to do so since 1918. Off the bench, veteran Gerald Perry became the club's all-time pinch-hit leader (70), rookie Mark Sweeney hit in seven straight pinch at-bats (one short of the major league record) and Danny Sheaffer hit the Cards' first pinch grand slam in nearly 10 years. The Cardinals took part in two bizarre games at Dodger Stadium: on May 12 they committed seven errors, their highest single-game total since 1940, and on Aug. 10 they recorded a 2-1 forfeit win, the first forfeited game in the majors since 1979. A busy off-season included the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the announced sale of the club to a group of long-time Cardinals fans led by Fred Hanser, William DeWitt Jr. and Andrew Baur. The Busch playing surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass prior to the '96 season.

1996 With new ownership, new Manager Tony LaRussa and a variety of new players in place, the Cardinals made their first postseaon appearance since 1987. The year also marked the end of an era, as shortstop Ozzie Smith completed his 19th, and final, major league campaign. The Cardinals began their climb to their first N.L. Central Division title after falling nine games below .500 following a series sweep by Colorado in mid-May. They rebounded with a sweep of the division-rival Astros in Houston, went on to record a 17-10 mark in June and reached the All-Star break tied for the division lead. The race remained close until Labor Day weekend, when the Redbirds swept three games from the first-place Astros to take over the division lead for good. Right fielder Brian Jordan led the league with a .422 batting average with runners in scoring position and teamed with center fielder Ray Lankford, the N.L. fielding leader, to provide dazzling outfield defense. New left fielder Ron Gant led the team with 30 homers despite missing over a month to injury. Brothers Andy (18-10) and Alan Benes (13-10) combined for 31 wins, and newcomer Todd Stottlemyre fashioned 14 victories in his first N.L. season. Lefthander Donovan Osborne won a career-high 13 games. The bullpen was anchored by former Oakland relief ace Dennis Eckersley, who saved 30 games in 34 tries. Fan-favorite Willie McGee returned to the club after five years with San Francisco and Boston and batted .307, including .350 in the pinch. The season also featured many record-setting achievements: The Cardinals tied a 56-year-old club record with a seven-homer game (July 12 at Chicago); the pitching staff recorded a team-record 1,050 strikeouts; and Willie McGee's five-RBI inning tied Chick Hafey's 1930 mark. The Cardinals retired the uniform numbers of Red Schoendienst (2), Enos Slaughter (9) and Ozzie Smith (1). In their first postseason appearance in nine years, the Cardinals swept a best-of-five Division Series from San Diego. After taking a 3-1 lead over defending World Series champion Atlanta in the NLCS, the Cardinals lost three straight.

1997 After beginning the season with a six-game losing streak, the Cardinals never climbed above .500 and finished in fourth place with a 73-89 record, 11 games behind division-winner Houston. The Redbirds did manage to take sole possession of first place for two days (July 2-3), and their high-water mark for the season was an even .500 (41-41). But after trailing first-place Pittsburgh by only two games at the All-Star break, the Cardinals dropped to 7½ back by the end of July. During the course of the season, the Cardinals set several club records. They used a record 51 players (including 24 pitchers), swatted a franchise-record 144 round-trippers (one more than their 1955 total of 143), and established team highs in strikeouts — at the plate (1,191) and on the mound (1,130). Ray Lankford, who missed the first two weeks of the season while recovering from shoulder surgery, emerged as a star-caliber player, leading the team with a career-high 31 homers (the most ever by a Cards center fielder) and career-best 98 RBIs. He finished only percentage points behind team batting leader Delino DeShields (.2954 to .2946). Slugger Mark McGwire arrived July 31 and belted 24 home runs as a Cardinal, including 15 in September (a club record for one month). He finished with 58 homers, tying the major league record for righthanded hitters. McGwire became just the fifth player to hit as many as 58 home runs and only the second, next to Babe Ruth, to record 50 or more in consecutive seasons. "Big Mac's" total of 110 homers in 1996 and '97 are the most ever back-to-back by a righty. He finished the year by homering in 12 consecutive series, but none of those blasts matched the flair of the 517-foot shot he launched above the left-field scoreboard in his first at-bat on Sept. 16, the day he announced he'd signed a multiyear contract with the club. Pitcher Matt Morris displayed much promise in his first season, leading N.L. rookie pitchers in wins (12), ERA (3.19), complete games (three), strikeouts (149), opponents' batting average (.258) and innings pitched (217). He topped the staff in victories and starts (33). DeShields led the team in batting (.295), hits (169), triples (14), sacrifice flies (six) and stolen bases (55). He was the first Cardinal since Lankford in 1991 to lead the league in triples. The Cardinals posted an 8-7 record against A.L. opponents in their first year of interleague play. They swept a three-game series from Minnesota but lost three at Milwaukee. The team drew 2,634,014 fans, the fifth-highest total in club history. Before the season, the Cardinals added a hand-operated scoreboard in center field and moved the visitors' bullpen to right field.

1998 While Mark McGwire slugged his way to a record-setting season, the Cardinals finished in third place for the fifth time in the last decade, 19 games behind Central Division champion Houston. The 83-79 Cardinals jumped out of the gate strong, as McGwire began his march toward 70 home runs by going deep in each of the first four games, helping the Redbirds to a 16-11 record through April. As injuries took their toll, the Cardinals labored into the All-Star recess in fourth place, 12½ games out of first, with a 40-46 record. The team wound up closing the season with a 43-33 record after the break, including an 18-7 mark in September, the franchise's best record in that month since moving into Busch Stadium in 1966. McGwire remained the center of attention throughout the year, captivating a national audience as he marched toward Roger Maris' 1961 single-season record of 61 homers. Big Mac eclipsed the record with his 62nd homer at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, Sept. 8. The record-breaking homer came with two outs in the fourth inning —a solo shot to left field off Cubs' righthander Steve Trachsel. McGwire set a bevy of records during his home run tour de force. He walked 162 times to set a new N.L. standard, averaged one home run every 7.27 at-bats to break his 1996 major league record of one homer every 8.13 at-bats, hit an N.L.-record 38 home runs at home and became the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three consecutive seasons. McGwire also set a club record for most home runs in one month when he hit 16 in May, became the first Cardinal to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, hit the longest home run in Busch Stadium history (an estimated 545 feet on May 16) and became the oldest player (34 years, 324 days) in major league history to hit as many as 50 homers in a season. McGwire was named N.L. Player of the Month three times — in April, May and September — and was honored as the AP Player of the Year while sharing (with the Cubs' Sammy Sosa) The Sporting News' Man of the Year award and Sports Illustrated's Sportsman of the Year accolade. Home run records weren't McGwire's exclusive domain, however, as the team collectively set a single-season club mark with 223 homers, most in the National League and second-most in N.L. history. The Cardinals hit 10 homers in the pinch, also a team record, and homered in a team-record 17 straight games (34 homers total) from May 7 to May 25. The Cardinals' lineup featured four players with at least 20 homers for the first time ever, with McGwire and the outfield trio of Ray Lankford (31 homers), Ron Gant (26) and Brian Jordan (25) making history. McGwire and Lankford combined for 101 home runs, becoming just the third pair of teammates in big-league history to top the century mark in one year. Lankford wound up with a career-high 105 RBIs and became the all-time Busch Stadium home run leader, reaching 87 in his career. Jordan also enjoyed a banner season, leading the club in batting (.316) and posting career highs in hits (178) and homers (25). Outfielder J.D. Drew, the Cards' first selection (fifth overall) in the June amateur draft, signed a major league contract July 3 and made his big-league debut Sept. 8. In 14 games with the Cardinals, Drew hit .417 with five home runs, more than any other Cardinals rookie in '98. On the pitching staff, 15 hurlers drew starting assignments, though the staff became more solidified in the second half as players returned from injuries. The Cardinals' monthly team ERA dropped steadily, from a 4.72 mark for June, to 4.00 for July, 3.84 in August and 3.45 in September. Righthander Matt Morris was activated from the disabled list on July 10 and led the staff after the All-Star break with seven wins and a 2.48 ERA. Reliever Juan Acevedo collected 13 of his team-high 15 saves after the recess and did not allow a run in his last 16 outings. Cardinals fans turned out in record numbers, setting club home and road attendance marks. The Busch Stadium season total of 3,194,092 ranked fourth in the league, as the Cardinals surpassed the 3-million plateau for the first time since 1989. The club sold out its final 14 home games (the entire September home schedule). With fans across the country flocking to see McGwire, the Cardinals played in front of 2,766,984 fans away from Busch, the second-highest road total in baseball.

BUSCH STADIUM
1966 — 1999

In the mid-1950s, several years after he persuaded the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch to purchase the St. Louis Cardinals, August A. Busch Jr. decided that if the team was to prosper and attract the fans necessary to support a major league franchise, it would have to move to a new stadium.

Mr. Busch took his idea for a new stadium in downtown St. Louis to city officials and civic leaders. Their interest in a major redevelopment of the downtown area and their realization that a new stadium could serve as the focal point paved the way for the laying of groundwork for the project.

In 1964, ground was broken, and on May 12, 1966, Busch Stadium officially opened as the new home of the St. Louis Cardinals. In a 12-inning inaugural, the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3.

Looking back over the stadium's 33-year past, it is clear that Mr. Busch and others involved in the project accurately anticipated that the new stadium would spur a rebirth of downtown St. Louis. With Busch Stadium as the focal point, the redevelopment of the downtown area has been marked by the addition of new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Through the 1998 season, more than 67 million people have attended 2,537 games at Busch Stadium.

Recent improvements include the installation in 1997 of a hand-operated scoreboard flanked by flag decks commemorating the club's World Series championships and retired numbers; the return in 1996 to a natural-grass playing surface, which replaced the artificial turf that had been in place since 1970; the opening in 1996 of the Family Pavilion, featuring a variety of games and attractions for families and children, and Homer's Landing, a picnic area located above the bullpen in left-center field; and the return of a more traditional "ballpark green" color scheme for the outfield fence and stadium trim.

Other improvements include the installation in 1993 of a state-of-the-art sound system and a new large-screen video display, a Diamond Vision MARK III High Contrast system by Mitsubishi Electronics. Prior to the 1995 season, a Plaza of Champions monument display honoring the Cardinals' World Championship teams was erected near the Stan Musial statue. The Stadium Club was totally renovated and included the addition of a sports-themed bar.

Busch Stadium's basic structure is concrete. The stadium is basically a two-deck facility with about half its seats in each deck. The seats completely surround the field without posts or columns to obstruct fans' views. The nearly circular structure has an outside diameter of more than 800 feet, covers more than 12 acres and is 130-feet tall, measured from the playing field to the top of the stadium.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is 10 to 30 feet lower than street level. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to seating areas. There are eight major entrances.

Field dimensions, from home plate: left-field line, 330 feet; left-center field, 372; center field, 402; right-center field, 372; right-field line, 330. Outfield walls are 8-feet high.

Busch Stadium capacity is 49,738.

BUSCH STADIUM CHANGES FOR 1999

"Batter's Eye" Club – Located in straightaway center field between the bleachers, this glass-enclosed suite provides up to 252 fans a direct line of sight to home plate from a perch just above the playing field. The 80-foot wide club features a specially tinted antireflective glass on its front surface, which serves as the hitter's backdrop. A newly designed tri-vision ad panel sits above the club and replaces the existing ad panel that formerly served as the hitter's backdrop. Tickets for the club, which also features cushioned seating outdoors and an all-you-can-eat buffet, can be purchased in quantities of two to 252.

Statue Tributes – The club will add three more statues to the series of bronze sculptures that appear outside the stadium to honor the players who helped forge the Cardinals' championship tradition. Tributes to Lou Brock, Red Schoendienst and Enos Slaughter are slated for 1999, following the inaugural 1998 dedications of statues honoring Bob Gibson, Stan Musial and Jack Buck. The statues, created by sculptor Harry Weber, will form an outdoor promenade that eventually will extend from Gate Six to Gate Seven.

"Suite 70" – The newly remodeled party room was destined to take its new name after Mark McGwire's record-setting 70th homer soared into the suite on Sept. 27, 1998. Located on the field-box level directly above the left-field wall, the suite is available for groups up to 80.

Loge Boxes – An additional row of loge box seats will be added behind home plate and in right and left field. In these areas, the boxes will contain five rows of seats instead of four.

The various changes increase the stadium's capacity to 49,738 from 49,625.

BUSCH STADIUM ATTRACTIONS

Busch Stadium Family Pavilion – The Busch Stadium Family Pavilion, located between Gates 7 and 8, adjacent to the Stan Musial statue and Plaza of Champions, features a variety of attractions inside and outside Busch Stadium. The Family Pavilion is open before, during and after all home games, as well as for selected special events during the year. All fans with a Cardinals ticket are admitted to the Pavilion for free. There is a nominal charge for select activities. The Family Pavilion's interactive games and attractions include:

- Power Alley – Fans have the opportunity to step into a state-of-the-art batting cage and hit real baseballs thrown by life-size video images of popular major league pitchers.
- Pitcher's Dream – Pitchers can take the mound to test their speed and accuracy with the latest in radar speed pitch technology.
- Fantasy Play-by-Play – Future broadcasters will get their chance to enter the broadcast booth and call great moments in Major League Baseball history and come away with a videotape of their experience.
- Sports Video Stations – The latest in computer sports video games will be geared to challenge rookies as well as big-leaguers.
- Family Pavilion Food Plaza – A place for fans to sit down and enjoy specialty food and beverages in a relaxing atmosphere.

Homer's Landing Picnic Area – Before the 1996 season, part of the left-field bleachers area was redesigned as a picnic area, complete with tables, concessions and a panoramic view of the action. Accessible to all fans entering Busch Stadium, the tiered picnic area also offers a great view of the visitors bullpen. The picnic area also is available to groups for pregame parties and events.

Power Alley – Similar to Homer's Landing in left-center field, the stadium's newest picnic area overlooks the Cardinals' bullpen in right-center field. The "Power Alley" features a picnic buffet and unlimited beverage service for fans who purchase tickets for reserved tables. Groups of four to 196 people can reserve tables for the entire game.

Luxury Suites – In 1998, four new luxury suites were built behind the field-box seats behind home plate. Each suite holds about 24 people.

New Box Seats – The premium "club box" seats, originally installed before the 1996 season, were expanded in 1998 into the areas formerly occupied by the TV cameras, next to both dugouts. Behind the club boxes, a new class of fully padded "diamond box" seats was added in the first six rows between the dugouts. An additional row of dugout box seats was installed behind the first- and third-base lines.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:
Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:
Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:
Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:
1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played; add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:
A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:
15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.
60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

FARM AND SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

MIKE JORGENSEN
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mike Jorgensen begins his eighth year as the Cardinals' Director of Player Development.

Jorgensen was named to the position on February 5, 1992, after his predecessor, Ted Simmons, joined the Pittsburgh Pirates as general manager. Jorgensen had been working as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor/coordinator since 1990 after managing the Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989. He made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, Jorgensen also remained in his post as director of player development. He returned to player development full time following the 1995 season.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, Jorgensen was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg when Dave Bialas moved up to Louisville to replace Jim Fregosi, who had been hired to manage the Chicago White Sox. Jorgensen led St. Petersburg to an 88-48 finish, the best mark in the Florida State League.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman-outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968, appearing in eight games. He was traded to Montreal in a multiplayer deal for Rusty Staub at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland (1977), Texas (1978-79), the Mets again (1980-83), Atlanta (1983-84) and the Cardinals (1984-85), arriving with pitcher Ken Dayley in a trade for third baseman Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, N.J., and his wife, the former Brenda Rice, have three children; Brian Michael (9-30-73), Kristen Leigh (7-7-75) and Eric James (4-7-81) and one grandchild; Eric (10-12-95). He graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., and attended St. John's University. Jorgensen enjoys quail hunting, cooking and coaching basketball in his spare time.

JEFF SCOTT
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PROCUREMENT

Jeff Scott was appointed in November 1998 to this newly created position in the Cardinals' player development department after serving as a special assignment scout with the club since 1996. In his new position, Scott oversees the club's amateur scouting operations and draft selections. He'll also assist in special assignment scouting at the direction of the general manager.

Before joining the Cardinals, Scott was scouting director for the Detroit Tigers from 1994 to '96, for Cleveland in 1988 and for the Seattle Mariners in 1984 and '85. He also was the Indians' director of scouting and player development in 1986 and '87, the Mariners' assistant scouting director in 1982 and '83, and a scout with Colorado in 1996. Major leaguers scouted and signed by Scott include Edgar Martinez, Albert Belle, Omar Vizquel, Charles Nagy, Greg Swindell, Jeff Shaw and Bill Swift.

A former pitcher, Scott was drafted by the Texas Rangers in the third round of the 1972 amateur draft. He pitched for four years in the Rangers' system, reaching the Double-A level before injuries cut short his career. He then worked as a pitching coach for four years with the Rangers' Class-A Asheville club and managed Seattle's short-season Bellingham affiliate from 1979 to '83.

Scott, 44, and his wife, Vicki, have three children, Jennifer, Sara and Ryan.

JOHN MOZELIAK
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING OPERATIONS

John Mozeliak begins his first season as the Cardinals' scouting director after being appointed to his new post in November 1998. He joined the organization following the 1995 season, serving as an assistant in scouting operations in 1996 and 1997, and as the assistant scouting director in 1998.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies, where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations.

Mozeliak, 30, is a graduate of the University of Colorado and a member of the Missouri Scouts Association. He lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie.

FRED McALISTER
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Fred McAlister was named the Cardinals' special assignment scout following the 1993 season after serving as scouting director since 1980. As special assignment scout, he reports directly to General Manager Walt Jocketty.

McAlister has been part of the Cardinals' organization since 1945, when he signed as a player out of high school. He played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1945 to 1960, serving as a player/coach or player/manager at various times.

During his tenure as scouting director, McAlister's first-round picks reached the majors in 12 of his 13 drafts, including a streak of picks from 1981 to 1987. McAlister's drafts produced more than 70 players who suited up for the Cardinals, as well as 17 players who reached the majors with other organizations.

McAlister also was the Cardinals' assistant farm director from 1967 to '69. He then served as a scouting supervisor and special assignment scout from 1969 to 1979.

McAlister, 71, resides in Clearwater, Fla., with his wife, Patty.

GEORGE KISSELL
SENIOR FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As senior field coordinator for player development, George Kissell coordinates each of the Cardinals' minor league affiliates and reports to Director of Player Development Mike Jorgensen. Because of his expertise in fundamentals of the game, Kissell handles many of the instructional duties for the minor leagues during spring training and extended spring training.

Kissell spent 10 years in the minor leagues as an infielder and has served the Cardinals in several capacities since joining the organization in 1940. From 1946 to 1968, he worked as a manager, coach, scout and minor league instructor. Kissell was a Cardinals' coach from 1969 to 1975 and a special field assistant to General Manager Bing Devine in 1976.

Kissell, a Watertown, N.Y., native, graduated with a master's degree from Ithaca (N.Y.) College. He and his wife, Ginny, reside in St. Petersburg. The couple have a son, Dick, and a daughter, Kay.

JOE PETTINI
MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Pettini, a longtime skipper in the Cardinals' system, begins his third year as Minor League Field Coordinator. Pettini managed eight seasons in the organization, most recently at Class-AAA Louisville, where he guided the Redbirds to the 1995 American Association Championship. Overall, he was 475-569 at the helm of the Cardinals' farm affiliates.

The 44-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with Hamilton, Ontario. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991 to '93 seasons (175-229).

Pettini's playing career began in 1977, when he signed with the Montreal Expos as a nondrafted free agent. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

Pettini was born January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, W.V., and graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, W.V., in 1973. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, Ga. Pettini married the former Barbara Sperlazza on November 11, 1981. The couple have two children: Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

MARK RIGGINS
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Riggins is entering his fourth season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator and his 16th season in the system. In 1995, he served as the Cardinals' pitching coach under Joe Torre and Mike Jorgensen and was the pitching coach at Louisville from 1990 to 1994.

Riggins, 42, began his coaching career in 1984 with Johnson City, moved to St. Petersburg in 1985, to Arkansas in 1986, to Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Petersburg in 1988. He spent the 1989 season as the Cardinals' roving minor league pitching instructor before joining Louisville in 1990. Riggins pitched in the Cardinals' system for five seasons with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He also played on loan for Baltimore's Charlotte club for part of 1983.

Riggins is a graduate of Loogootee High School in Indiana and earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural business in 1979 from Murray State University, where he was a three-year all-conference pitcher. He makes his off-season home in Murray, Ky., with his wife, Tammie, and daughter, Chelsea Lee.

DYAR MILLER
ASSISTANT MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Miller begins his third season as a roving pitching instructor after spending the 1995 and '96 seasons as the pitching coach at Louisville.

Miller previously coached in the Cardinals' system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986). He was bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. He coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) before serving as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians' organization from 1991 to 1994.

The 52-year-old former pitcher was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81).

Miller was born May 29, 1946, in Batesville, Ind. He graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track. He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. He and his wife, the former Bertha Jo Williams, have four children: Scott, Matthew, Christopher and Sara Mae. They reside in Batesville. Miller, a teacher during the off-season, enjoys golf, hiking and fishing.

MITCHELL PAGE
MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Page begins his first year as the Cardinals' minor league hitting coordinator after joining the organization in 1998 as the hitting coach at Class-AAA Memphis. Before coming to the Cardinals, Page was the Kansas City Royals' first-base coach for the 1995-97 seasons and Oakland's Triple-A hitting instructor and first-base coach, at Tacoma, for the 1992-94 seasons.

As a player, Page enjoyed an eight-season big-league career with Oakland (1977-83) and Pittsburgh (1984). He was originally drafted by the Pirates in the third round of the June 1973 amateur draft but was sent to Oakland in a nine-player trade in March 1977. That year, he batted .307, hit 21 homers, drove in 75 runs and stole 42 bases — all career-best totals — and was named The Sporting News' A.L. Rookie of the Year.

Page was born October 15, 1951, in Compton, Calif., and has one son, Kyle. He resides in Oakland.

LUIS MELENDEZ
MINOR LEAGUE HITTING AND OUTFIELD INSTRUCTOR

Former Cardinal outfielder Luis Melendez takes on a new assignment in 1999 as a hitting and outfield instructor in the club's minor league system.

For the past two seasons, Melendez coached at Double-A Arkansas following a one-year coaching stint at Louisville in 1996. As a manager in the Cardinals' farm system, he posted a 171-173 record, highlighted by an 82-55 season and South Atlantic League championship at Savannah in 1994. He also managed at New Jersey in 1995, at Hamilton in 1990 and at Peoria in 1989. Melendez was a roving instructor in the system from 1991 to 1993. He coached at Hamilton in 1988, his first season on the club's minor league staff.

Melendez was signed by the Cardinals in 1968 and saw action in eight major league seasons with the Redbirds and Padres. He enjoyed his best year in 1973, establishing career highs in games (121), runs (35), hits (91), doubles (18) and RBIs (35).

Born August 11, 1949, in Aibonito, Puerto Rico, Melendez still makes his off-season home there.

DAVE RICKETTS
MINOR LEAGUE CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Ricketts is entering his 26th year as an instructor with the organization.

The 63-year-old Ricketts originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957. He was a backup catcher and pinch-hitter with the Cardinals from 1967 to 1969 and appeared in the 1967 and 1968 World Series. He spent his last season as a player with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1970.

Ricketts began his coaching career with the Pirates, serving as their bullpen coach from 1971 to 1973. He joined the Cardinals as a major league coach in 1974. In 1976, he was named manager at Sarasota, where he guided the team to a third-place finish. He managed at Johnson City in 1977 before returning to the majors as a coach form 1978 to 1991. In 1995, he was the pitching coach at Savannah.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, Pa. He earned a bachelor's of arts degree from Duquesne University, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinals pitcher. Ricketts lives in St. Louis with his wife, Barbara. The couple have one daughter, Candy.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

GAYLEN PITTS
MEMPHIS

Gaylen Pitts is entering his 19th season in the organization and his third successive year as manager of the Cardinals' Class-AAA affiliate. He begins his second season at the helm of the Memphis Redbirds following the move of the organization's Triple-A outpost to Tennessee in 1998. Pitts managed the Redbirds in their final season at Louisville in 1997. He also served as Louisville's manager in 1990 and coached there in 1983 and '84.

Pitts returned to the farm system in 1996 as Minor League Field Coordinator after serving the previous five seasons as a coach at the major league level. He was the Cardinals' bullpen coach from 1991-94 and third-base coach in 1995.

Pitts also has managed Cardinal farm teams at Arkansas (1981-82, '89), Savannah (1985), Springfield (1986-87) and Johnson City. He managed the Oakland A's Modesto club in 1978-79. Pitts was named Texas League Manager of the Year in 1989, when he led Arkansas to the league championship. He also guided Springfield to back-to-back division titles in 1986 and 1987.

Pitts was signed by the Cardinals in 1964 out of Mountain Home High School in Arkansas, where he lettered in baseball and football. He was an infielder in the Cardinals' system until 1971. Pitts played 28 games at the major league level with Oakland in 1974-75.

Pitts, 52, resides in Columbia, Ill., with his wife, Julia, and son, Travis Ray (8-8-87). In his spare time, he enjoys trout fishing, snow- and water-skiing, and racquetball.

CHRIS MALONEY
ARKANSAS

Maloney begins his second successive season as skipper at Arkansas after earning honors as 1998 Texas League Manager of the Year for guiding the 80-60 Travelers to a regular-season title and their first trip to the postseason since 1989.

A member of the farm system's coaching and managerial ranks since 1988, Maloney has a career 477-351 (.576) record in seven seasons as a manager. In 1993, Maloney guided the Savannah Cardinals to a 94-48 record and the South Atlantic League championship — a feat that warranted his selection by USA Today's Baseball Weekly as its 1993 Minor League Manager of the Year. The year before, his .737 winning percentage (56-20) at Hamilton was the highest ever posted by a Cardinals farm team, earning Maloney recognition as the New York-Penn League Manager of the Year.

Maloney also has managed at St. Petersburg in 1995 (64-67) and '96 (75-63), at Arkansas in 1994 (68-67) and at Johnson City in 1991 (40-26). As a coach in the system, he's had stops at Louisville (1997), Johnson City (1990), Arkansas (1989) and Springfield (1988).

Maloney was signed as a nondrafted free agent by the New York Mets in June 1983. The outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played for Springfield.

Maloney graduated in 1979 from St. Joseph High School in Jackson, Miss., and from Mississippi State University in 1983. He likes bass fishing, deer and duck hunting and golfing. Maloney is involved with the Multiple Sclerosis Society and lives with his wife, Laurie, in Jackson during the off-season.

JOE CUNNINGHAM
POTOMAC

Cunningham begins his second consecutive season as manager of the Cardinals' Carolina League entry after leading the Cannons to a 72-67 record and third-place finish in 1998.

Cunningham has managed in five of his 10 seasons as an instructor in the Cardinals' system. In his second year as a skipper, he was named the Appalachian League's 1993 Manager of the Year for guiding Johnson City to a 37-31 mark, falling just half a game short of a playoff berth. He was 28-28 at Chandler in his managerial debut in 1992, 66-73 at Madison in 1994 and 70-69 at Peoria in 1997. Cunningham served as a roving minor league instructor in 1996 after coaching at Louisville in 1995, Johnson City in 1990 and 1991, and Hamilton in 1989.

The 36-year-old Cunningham, son of former Cardinals' All-Star outfielder and longtime front office employee Joe Cunningham Jr., played in the Cardinals' organization from 1984 to 1988 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield.

Cunningham was born on January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, where he graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City, Fla. Off the field, Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing. His wife's name is Delsey.

BRIAN RUPP
PEORIA

Brian Rupp makes the transition from minor league player to manager as he takes over the reigns of the Peoria Chiefs in 1999.

A native St. Louisan, Rupp played the last seven seasons in the Cardinals' farm system after being drafted in the 43rd round of the June 1992 amateur draft. He compiled a career .295 batting average, highlighted by a South Atlantic League batting title in 1993, when he hit .320 with 81 RBIs at Savannah, and a 1992 batting crown in the Arizona League, where he hit .386 while leading the league in hits and RBIs. Rupp, 27, was drafted as a shortstop from the University of Missouri-St. Louis but eventually found playing time at first and third base and the outfield.

A graduate of McCluer North High School, Rupp resides in Florissant, Mo., with his wife, Stacie.

JEFF SHIREMAN
NEW JERSEY

Shireman returns in 1999 to New Jersey, where he made his managerial debut in 1997 with a 35-39 finish. Last season, he managed the Peoria Chiefs to a 72-68 record.

Shireman, 33, coached at Arkansas in 1995 and '96 following the conclusion of his seven-year playing career in the Cardinals' system in 1994. Drafted by the Cardinals in June 1988, the infielder had stops at Johnson City, Springfield, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. Shireman attended Georgia Southern University, where he earned all-conference recognition in 1987 and '88 and Conference Player of the Year honors in 1988.

Shireman was born March 3, 1966, at Ames, Iowa. He graduated from Bucholz High School, where he received all-state honors in 1984 and all-district recognition from 1981 to 1983. He makes his off-season home in Little Rock, Ark., with his wife, Melissa, and two sons, Jonah and Jacob.

STEVE TURCO
JOHNSON CITY

Turco begins his eighth season of managing in the Cardinals' organization and his sixth year at Johnson City. In 1996, he led Johnson City to a 42-26 record and in 1994 to an Appalachian League playoff berth. He is 237-244 in seven seasons as a manager.

The 40-year-old Turco also has three years' coaching experience in the Cardinals' system, starting as a coach at Springfield in 1985 before moving to Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Turco was signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder and played in the farm system from 1979 to 1984.

Turco graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975. He earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Largo, Fla., with his wife, Kathy, and children Nicolette, Nicholas and Steven Jr.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

BOOTS DAY
MEMPHIS

Day moves up to coach at Triple-A Memphis after making his organizational coaching debut at Prince William in 1997. He joined the Cardinals' staff after coaching the previous two seasons in the Cleveland Indians' organization, at Class-A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1997 and at Class-AAA Buffalo in 1996. Day previously scouted for Kansas City, the New York Yankees and Detroit, and managed the Tigers' rookie-level Bristol club in 1982-83.

A former outfielder who made his big-league debut with the Cardinals in 1969, Day played for Montreal in five of his six major league seasons, splitting the 1970 schedule between the Expos and Cubs. He batted .256 during his career, including a .283 mark for Montreal in 1971.

Day, 51, was born and raised in Ilion, N.Y. He now resides in Ballwin, Mo., and has two daughters, Kori and Tara.

MARTY MASON
MEMPHIS

Mason enters his third season at the Cardinals' Triple-A affiliate and his 14th year as a coach in the organization. Mason's coaching career began in 1986 at St. Petersburg, where he spent two seasons. He coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas from 1990-96.

Mason, 41, originally was signed by the New York Yankees in 1980. He was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. Mason also appeared with Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, Ky. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on February 22, 1986. The couple have two daughters, Brandy Leigh and Lindsey. Mason enjoys bass fishing and is a small-engine mechanic in his spare time.

GLENN BRUMMER
ARKANSAS

Brummer, the former Cardinals catcher who spent 11 seasons in the organization as a player, returns to the fold in 1999 as a coach at Double-A Arkansas. For the past 10 seasons, Brummer worked in the Phillies' farm system, as a roving catching instructor (1989-95) and as a coach at their Class-A Clearwater affiliate (1996-98).

Signed by the Cardinals in 1974, Brummer toiled in the system for seven seasons before making his big-league debut in May 1981. He appeared with the Cardinals through the 1984 campaign and became a fan favorite for his hustle and enthusiasm. He'll long be remembered for his heroics at Busch Stadium on Aug. 22, 1982, when he stole home in the 12th inning of a 2-2 game against San Francisco with 2 outs and a 2-2 count after reaching base with a pinch-single. Brummer appeared in one game in the World Series that fall and wound up his Cardinals tenure with a .238 average in 129 games. He batted .278 for Texas in 1985, his final major league campaign, and concluded his career with a .251 average.

Brummer, a 1971 graduate of Effingham (Ill.) High School, was signed out of Lakeland Junior College at Mattoon, Ill. He resides in Clearwater, Fla.

RICH FOLKERS
ARKANSAS

Folkers returns to Double-A Arkansas for his third season with the Travelers and his seventh as a pitching coach in the farm system. The former Cardinals pitcher coached at St. Petersburg for four seasons after returning to the professional ranks in 1993 following a five-season stint as an assistant coach at Eckerd College.

The 52-year-old Folkers had a seven-year major league career with the Mets, Cardinals, Padres and Brewers, posting a 19-23 record and 4.12 ERA. His best season came in 1974, when he was 6-2 with two saves and a 3.00 ERA for the Cardinals. He spent three seasons with the Cardinals, going 11-6 in 98 games as a spot starter and reliever.

Folkers, born and raised in Waterloo, Iowa, graduated from East High and was a Junior College All-America at Ellsworth J.C. in Iowa Falls. He also attended Parsons College in Fairfield, Iowa. He resides in Tampa Bay, Fla.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

TODD STEVERSON
POTOMAC

Steverson takes his first job as a minor league coach at Potomac after concluding a seven-year playing career that included big-league appearances with Detroit in 1995 and San Diego in '96. Steverson played the 1998 season as an outfielder with the Cardinals' Class-AAA Memphis club.

Steverson, 27, originally was drafted out of Culver City (Calif.) High School by the Cardinals in the sixth round of the June 1989 amateur draft but elected instead to attend Arizona State University. Three years later, he was a first-round pick (25th overall) by Toronto.

Steverson, a cousin of former major leaguer Ron LeFlore, resides in Phoenix, Ariz.

MARK GRATER
POTOMAC

Grater, 35, begins his second season as pitching coach for the Cardinals' Carolina League affiliate and his third year on the organization's minor league staff. In 1997, he was the pitching coach at New Jersey.

A former pitcher nicknamed "The Saver," Grater appeared in the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1991 and Detroit in 1993. He led the Florida State League with 32 saves at St. Petersburg in 1989 and the American Association with 24 saves for Louisville in 1992. Grater was the Cardinals' 24th-round pick in the June 1986 draft out of Florida International University. He is originally from Rochester, Pa., and resides in Monaca, Pa.

TONY DIGGS
PEORIA

Diggs begins his second season at Peoria after concluding his playing career in 1996.

The 32-year-old former infielder-outfielder played in the Cardinals' system from 1994 to 1996 after being acquired from the Milwaukee system for Ozzie Canseco. He first reached the Class-AAA level with the Brewers at the end of the 1993 season after batting a career-best .295 at Class-A Stockton to start the year. With the Cardinals, Diggs played at Arkansas in 1994 and '95 and Louisville in 1995 and '96.

Diggs resides in El Paso, Tex., with his wife, Kim, and their four children: Amber, A.J., Aaron and Andrew.

MIKE SNYDER
PEORIA

Snyder, 41, begins his first season as pitching coach at a full-season Cardinals affiliate after coaching the last two seasons at Johnson City. A former scout with Kansas City, San Francisco, Texas and the New York Yankees, Snyder began his coaching career in 1990 with the University of Indianapolis. He was on the University of Louisville's staff from 1993 to '96 and was pitching coach for the Richmond Roosters in the independent Frontier League in 1996.

Snyder is a native of Greenwood, Ind., and resides in Fishers, Ind., with his wife, Erin, daughters Casey and Haley, and a son, Nolan.

GARY BUCKELS
NEW JERSEY

Buckels, 33, enters his third season on the Cardinals' minor league staff after coaching at Peoria in 1997 and '98. Buckels playing career spanned eight seasons, starting in the California Angels' organization in 1987. He appeared in 10 games with the Cardinals in 1994, going 0-1 with a 2.25 ERA. The same year, he was named to the Triple-A All-Star team while pitching for Louisville.

Buckels was born in La Mirada, Calif., and attended Cal State-Fullerton. He resides in Fullerton with his wife, Gina, and daughters, Megan and Tarah.

ELIAS SOSA
JOHNSON CITY

Sosa, 48, joins the Cardinals' minor league staff after working the last two seasons with MLB International's envoy program. The program sends coaches to 25 countries around the world to hold clinics, spot players and promote the game. Sosa was a pitching coach in the Montreal system from 1989 to '91 and in San Francisco's system from 1994 to '96.

As a durable reliever, Sosa pitched for eight teams in a big-league career that spanned 12 seasons (1972-83). He was 59-51 with 83 saves in 601 games and appeared in 14 games with the Cardinals in 1975. He was part of the Dodgers' 1977 World Series title team.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS
MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE

250 Stadium Plaza
St. Louis, MO 63102
Office: (314) 421-3060
Fax: (314) 982-7399

Brian Bartow — Director
Steve Zesch — Manager
Brad Hainje — Assistant
Melody Yount — Assistant

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies. Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Cardinals on a daily basis. Season credentials will be laminated and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made in writing to the Cardinals Media Relations Office. Deadlines for credentials are as follows: Season – March 8; Daily – two working days prior to the game requested. All agencies must have a letter on file to have credentials issued. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only. No spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media also are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available at the Press Will Call window located between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium. Photo identification is required.

ADMISSION — The media entrance is through the ticket office lobby, located at street level on the west side of the stadium.

PRESS BOX — Take the elevators from the lobby to Level 5. All persons entering the press box must sign in. The press box and broadcast booths are located on Level 5. The press box is for working members of the media only.

MEDIA DINING — Located inside the press box. It is open for meal service 1-1/2 hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately 90 minutes after the game for beverage service. There is a $5 charge for meals.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals' and visitors' clubhouses are located on Level 1. Access the clubhouses by taking the elevator to Level 1 and then walking to the clubhouses. All working media with clubhouse credentials will be admitted 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before first pitch. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than ten minutes following the game's conclusion. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc.

FIELD — All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch. No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., photo pass).

NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box two hours prior to game time. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

TELEPHONES — Five credit-card-only telephones are available for media use in the main press area. Two pay phones are also available in the press box.

TICKETS — All requests for media complimentary tickets must be made to the Cardinals Media Relations Office at least 24 hours before the start of the requested game. Requests for Saturday and Sunday games must be made by 2 p.m. Friday. Tickets can be picked up at the Press Will Call windows between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium 90 minutes prior to the game. Photo identification is required.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING — 1999

RADIO

KMOX Radio, St. Louis, is the flagship station for a network of more than 100 stations covering 11 states. It will broadcast all 1999 games with commentary by Jack Buck, Mike Shannon and Joe Buck.

TELEVISION

WB-11, St. Louis, will televise 55 regular-season games locally and to a network of approximately 20 stations reaching seven states. Fox Sports Midwest, a regional cable network, will televise 50 games. Commentary will be provided by Joe Buck, Bob Carpenter, Al Hrabosky and Ozzie Smith.

CARDINALS BROADCASTERS

JACK BUCK

Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987, when he was inducted into the broadcasters wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient. Buck was inducted into the Broadcasters' Hall of Fame in 1990. He was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1995.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck received a bachelor's of arts degree from Ohio State. He got his start in baseball as the play-by-play announcer for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester. Now KMOX Radio's sports director, Buck has at one time or another broadcast almost every type of sports event imaginable. He received widespread acclaim as the former voice of the National Football League, and he had the distinction of handling the first telecast of the old American Football League. His autobiography, "Jack Buck: That's a Winner," was published in 1997. In 1998, the Cardinals honored the legendary broadcaster by unveiling a bronze sculpture of Buck behind the microphone, outside Busch Stadium's main ticket lobby.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 28th season in the Cardinals' radio booth. His many years as a player in the organization and year in the front office give Shannon a unique insight that comes to the fore in his commentary, which is only heightened by his zeal for the game. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his popularity and performance on the air and, as a player, on the field.

The 59-year-old St. Louis native broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and went on to star for the Redbirds' World Series champion teams in 1964 and 1967, and their N.L. pennant winner in 1968.

The former outfielder-third baseman joined the Cardinals' front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales. His career was cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease.

JOE BUCK

Joe Buck handles play-by-play duties on the Cardinals' radio network and on games telecast by Fox Sports Midwest. He also is Fox Sports' lead baseball announcer for national telecasts.

Buck, 29, joined the Cardinals' radio team in 1991 after spending two seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Louisville Redbirds. He also has handled the play-by-play on Cardinals television broadcasts for both KPLR-TV and Prime, and in 1996 and '98 he called the World Series for Fox. He added the National Football League to his Fox television duties in 1994.

A graduate of Country Day High School in St. Louis, Buck studied communications and English at Indiana University. He married the former Ann Archambault in January 1993. They have a daughter, Natalie.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' 1970s bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. His expert commentary and sharp wit are a staple of Cardinals telecasts on WB11 and Fox Sports Midwest.

Hrabosky's fast rise in broadcasting came as no surprise. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station. He has been a commentator on telecasts by Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable, and hosts a local radio show on all-sports station KFNS. Away from the booth, Hrabosky is an active supporter of the MLB Players Alumni association.

BOB CARPENTER

Bob Carpenter has emerged as one of broadcasting's most prolific talents, calling games and describing the action for a myriad of major sporting events. He returns to the WB11 booth for his sixth season of Cardinals play-by-play duty and his 15th year in baseball.

With the Redbirds, Carpenter has called games for the Sportstime cable network in 1984, for the Prime cable network and KMOX Radio in 1995 and '96, and for Channel 11 since 1997. He begins his 10th season of baseball on ESPN and has worked in the TV booth for the Texas Rangers (1986-89), New York Mets (1992-93) and Minnesota Twins (1994). Over the years, he's shared the microphone with numerous former Cardinals, including Bob Gibson, Al Hrabosky, Ozzie Smith, Mike Shannon, Tim McCarver, Andy Van Slyke, Joe Magrane, Jerry Reuss and Jim Kaat.

A St. Louis native, Carpenter is remembered locally for his early play-by-play of St. Louis Steamers indoor soccer from 1983-86. He has worked college basketball games on ESPN for 11 seasons, emerging in the process as the "voice" of the Western Athletic Conference (since 1996) and Conference USA (since '97). On the USA Network, he hosted the 1995 U.S. Open tennis championship and The Masters golf tournament from 1986-88. He's also been heard on ESPN's telecasts of college football action, World Cup soccer and as host of the 1990 Hall of Fame induction ceremony.

Carpenter is a 1971 graduate of McBride High School in St. Louis and earned a degree in broadcasting from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters.

OZZIE SMITH

Ozzie Smith enters his third season as the analyst and color commentator for Cardinals home games telecast on WB11. He also begins his third year as host of "This Week in Baseball," the weekly baseball highlights show that marks its 22nd season in 1999.

Smith, 44, concluded his 19-year major league career following the 1996 season, his 15th with the Cardinals. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove awards (1980-92) at shortstop and is the all-time major league leader at the position with 1,590 double-plays and 8,375 assists. He amassed 2,460 career hits, was a member of 15 National League All-Star squads and had his signature No. 1 retired by the club on Ozzie Smith Day, Sept. 28, 1996.
